Venice, May 11. N. S.

ON the 6th, Monsignor Aldobrandini, the Pope's Nuncio, made his publick Entry here with great Magnificence. He was met at St. Spirito by Signor Morosini, accompanied by Sixty Senators in their Scarlet Robes, Fourteen Bishops, and several other Persons of Distinction. The next Day he was Conducted, with the usual Ceremonies, from the Palace of the Nunciatura to the College, where he had his first Audience; after which he returned home with the same Solemnity. Yesterday being Ascension-Day, the Vice-Doge, by reason of an Indisposition of the Doge, went on board the Bucentoro, and performed the Function of Marrying the Sea; at which the new Nuncio, together with the Regency, assisted. A severe Decree has been lately publish'd here against the Excesses of Luxury. The Magistrate of Health has again diminish'd the Quarentine, and in a short time all the Passages will be opened into the Territories of this State. Prince Ercolani, the Emperor's Ambassador, is returned here from Bologna, and intends to set out in a few Days for Vienna. They write from Rome, that the Earl of Peterborough was gone through that Place in his way to Florence. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that the St. Gennaro and the Santa Barbara Men of War, which had convoy'd the Tartanes with the Spanish Soldiers on Board to Fiume, were returned from thence, and had brought back a large Quantity of Timber and other Materials for the Building of Ships.

Madrid, May 14. N. S. The King has granted Count Albert, Envoy Extraordinary of the Elector of Bavaria, the Privilege of entering into his Chamber. His Majesty has constituted Don Joseph Terran and Monjaras, one of his Gentlemen, in consideration of his Services. The Marquis de Brancas has sent Orders from Paris to have his House and Family here discharged; and it is said, the Most Christian King will very soon name another Ambassador to this Court. The 17th is appointed for celebrating the Funeral of the Queen, and it is thought his Majesty soon after will remove to Pardo. Two Days ago we receiv'd an Express with an account, that on the 30th past, Monsieur Orry arrived at the Camp before Barcelona, and that Don Feliciano de Bracamonte had defeated a Party of Miquelets commanded by the Marquis del Pual, and had taken several Prisoners. Brigadier Solis had been in pursuit of another Body in the Plains of Tarragona, and had obliged them to retire for Refuge to the Mountains of Montblanc. We have receiv'd an account, that the Alcaide Hali, who had commanded above 15 Years at the Siege of Ceuta, was dead, and that the Emperor of Morocco had sent one of his Sons in his Place, with a considerable Supply of Men and Ammunition. Upon this advice, a Reinforcement of Troops, and a great Quantity of all sorts of Provisions necessary for a vigorous Defence, have been sent thither from Andalusia.

Berlin, May 19. N. S. Yesterday the King came hither from Potsdam, and reviewed the Regiment of Wartensleben in the Park. His Majesty intends in like manner to review the rest of the Forces quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of this Place, before he sets out for Madgebourg, which will be towards the end of this Month. The Inhabitants of this City have complained that great Numbers of People have been frightened away by the violent manner of raising Troops, and are withdrawn into other Countries, to the great decay of Trade: Whereupon his Majesty has order'd a Declaration to be read in the Churches to Morrow, that for the future no Person shall be Press'd into the Service. Monsieur Girardi, an Agent of the Duke of Saxe-Weymar, having endeavour'd to persuade several Manufacturers to remove from hence into the Duke his Master's Dominions, the King has sent him Orders to leave this Country within four Days.

Hamburg, May 22. N. S. The King of Denmark is expected very soon in Holstein. His Majesty has Summoned the Swedish Officers, who were taken Prisoners with Count Steinbock, to appear within a Month at the Places where they had been in Confinement, before they were released upon their Parole. They write from Copenhagen, that Sixteen Men of War were ready to set sail from thence upon the first Order. We are informed that the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel is arrived at Leipzick, where he has been several times in Conference with King Augustus, upon some Affairs that are to be treated of at the Congress of Brunswick. The Emperor not being pleas'd with the Reservations in the full Powers which had been sent him, to conclude a general Peace at Baden, in the Name of the whole Empire, the Diet of Ausbourg hath since altered them in the manner his Imperial Majesty desired, and the Ministers of the several Princes have given him an account in Writing of the Pretensions of their respective Masters. It is said, the King of Prussia is in Treaty with the Duke of Courland, for the Succession to his Dominions, in case the Duke, who is yet unmarried, should happen to Die without Issue. The Czar has refused to agree to a Truce with the Swedes. Letters from Demotica, of the 10th past, bring an Account, that General Lieven was upon his return to this Place, and that the King of Sweden his Master would likewise leave the Ottoman Empire in a few Days.

Hanover, May 23. N. S. Monsieur Schleinitz, Envoy of Muscovy at this Court, is appointed by the Czar to be his second Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Brunswick. On the 17th Instant, the Imperial Regiment of Dragoons that was Quartered in the Diocese of Hildesheim, began their March towards Newick near Coblentz. Monsieur de Frisen-dorf, who resided formerly at this Place with the Character of Envoy of the King of Sweden, arrived here a few Days ago from Berlin, and to Morrow he intends to set out for Brunswick. We are informed that Count Welling, who was Governor of Bremen, and retired to Hamburg when the Danes took Possession of that Dutchy, has received full Powers from the King of Sweden to enter upon a Treaty of Peace with the Allies of the North. They write from Breslaw, that the Polish Generals who arrived there some time ago from Turkey, in order to make their Submissions to King Augustus, had put off their departure to Dresden, upon account of the Uncertainty of the Affairs of Poland, where the Nobility make great Complaints of the King's Absence, and the Disorders of the Saxon Troops, for the redress of which Grievances they have demanded a Diet on Horseback. It is reported, that his Swedish Majesty is set out from Demotica, and that he will be soon at Hamburg, in his way to his own Dominions.

Hague, May 25. N. S. On the 23d the States of Holland and West-Friesland began their Assembly. The next Day his Excellency the Earl of Strafford had a long Conference with the Deputies of the States General, upon the Subject of the Barrier and Trade of the Spanish Netherlands. We have received advice from Spain, that Admiral Wilham is arrived at Cadiz with the Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships under his Command.

Whereas a Letter Sign'd by Four Persons, and sent to the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, has been receiv'd, wherein the said Persons offer to discover some Abuses in the Royal Regiment of Horse-Guards: If therefore the said Persons will apply themselves to Her Majesty's Secretary at War, they shall receive all due Encouragement suitable to the Discoveries they shall make.

The Paymaster-General of Her Majesty's Guards, Garrisons, &c. in Great Britain, hereby gives Notice, that Money is issued for the Subsistence of the Troops and Regiments under his Care, to the 22d of May Instant, inclusive.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of Her Majesty's Navy, having receiv'd a Letter, Sign'd R. N. by the Penny-Post, complaining of several Abuses committed by the Workmen belonging to Her Majesty's Yard and Rope-Yard at Woolwich. This is to let the Person know, that if he will attend the Navy Board, and make any such Abuses appear, he shall have all fitting Encouragement.

His Excellency, Signore Pietro Grimani, Ambassador from the Most Serene Republick of Venice, being upon his departure, gives this publick Notice, that whoever hath any thing due to them from him, or any of his Domesticks, may apply themselves, any time yet this For-night, to his Steward at his Excellency's Dwelling house in St. James's Square, and they shall receive full Satisfaction.

The Committee for Letting the City's Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give notice, That they intend to Let by Lease, a Tenement without Aldgate, in the Possession of William Brassy. And that the said Committee will sit in the Council Chamber of the Guild-hall, London, on Wednesday the 26th of May Instant, at 4 of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the same; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall aforesaid.

Notice is hereby Given by the Agent to the Captains, That the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ships the Assurance, Monk, York and Yarmouth may, at Mr. Master's House on Tower-hill, receive their several Shares of the Bounty for the Swallow of Rostow, a Privateer, viz. the Assurance on the 31st Instant, the Monk on the 2d, the York on the 3d, and the Yarmouth on the 4th of June next: And that the Shares of such as are not then paid may be received every Tuesday and Saturday Morning, during the space of three Tears, at the Place aforesaid.
