After which Her Majesty made the following most Gracious Speech to both Houses.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Progress which has been made in Publick Business, and the Season of the Year, render it both Convenient and Necessary, that I should put an End to this Session.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I Return you hearty Thanks for all your good Services to Me and to your Country, and particularly for the Supplies you have given Me, as well to Defray the Expences of the Current Year, as towards the Discharge of the National Debts.

In our present Circumstances, it could not be expected, that a full Provision should be made on both these Heads.

What you have granted, shall be laid out with the best Husbandry, and to the greatest Advantage.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I hope early in the Winter to Meet you again, and to find you in such a Temper, as is Necessary, for the real Improvement of Our Commerte, and of all the other Advantages of Peace.

My Chief Concern is to Preserve to you, and to your Posterity, Our Holy Religion, and the Liberty of My Subjects; and to Secure the present and future Tranquillity of My Kingdoms. But, I must tell you plainly, That these desirable Ends can never be Attain'd, unless you bring the same Dispositions on your Parts; unless all groundless Jealousies; which create and foment Divisions among you, be laid Aside; and unless you shew, the same Regard, for My Just Prerogative, and for the Honour of My Government, as I have always expressed for the Rights of My People.

And then the Parliament was Prorogued to Tuesday the Tenth Day of August next.

Hamburgh, July 13. N. S. On the 7th Instant the King of Denmark arrived at Pinneburg, three German Miles from hence, and the next Day our Magistrates sent Deputies to Compliment him in their Name
