

he was receiv'd by the Marechal of the Court, who accompanied him to the Door of the Antichamber, and from thence the First Chamberlain Conducted him to his Audience. In the Afternoon he went to the Castle, where he Complimented the young Prince and Princess.

Hague, August 10. N. S. On the 7th Instant the Earl of Strafford held a Conference with the Deputies of the States General, in relation to the Barrier in the Spanish Netherlands, soon after which they had another with Baron Heems upon the same Subject. The next Day the States communicated to the Earl of Strafford the Proposals that had been made them by the Imperial Minister, and Yesterday they were again in Conference with the Baron, to agree upon a Place of Treaty. The Emperor hath already appointed Count Koningseck to be his Plenipotentiary, and the States will very soon Name theirs, in order to terminate this Affair in a Friendly Manner, in Concert with a Minister of Great Britain. The Ratifications of the Treaties of Peace and Commerce lately made at Utrecht between his Catholick Majesty and this Republick, are expected in a short time from Madrid in order to be Exchanged. Monsieur Palmquist, Envoy of Sweden, hath delivered a Representation to the States General, complaining, That notwithstanding their late Prohibition, their Subjects continue to sell Ships and Warlike Provisions to the Czar. Monsieur Van Borsele, Envoy Extraordinary of the States to Her Late Majesty, hath been in the Assembly of their High Mightinesses, to give them an Account of his Negotiations in Great Britain.

Paris, August 10. N. S. The Duke de Maine and Count de Tholouse, his Majesty's Natural Sons, who were formerly Legitimated, and their Male-Descendents, have been declared in Parliament capable of succeeding to the Crown of France, in case of failure of all the other Princes of the Blood. The Earl of Peterborough arrived here a few Days ago, and hath been at Masli to wait upon the King, who received him very graciously. His Excellency intends to set out very soon for Great Britain. The Electoral Prince of Saxony, who was on his way to this Place, hath been taken with an Indisposition, which hath hindered him from pursuing his Journey. They write from Madrid, that an Express was arrived there with the Treaty of Peace and Commerce with the States-General. Monsieur Orry was come from Catalonia, and the Duke de Popoli was likewise expected in a short time. We have received advice from the Camp before Barcelona, that on the 25th they began to Bombard the Place with Seventy Cannon and Twenty four Mortars, which played without ceasing. The furthest Battery was but Two hundred and forty Yards from the Walls. The Fire from the Town was very much diminished, and the Inhabitants were in great want of Money, Provisions, and Ammunition; notwithstanding which they seemed resolv'd to defend themselves to the utmost Extremity.

Cambridge, August 3. This Day the Reverend Dr. Lany, Master of Pembroke Hall, and Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the University, in the absence of the Vice-Chancellor, Summoned the Heads of Houses, and the Doctors of all Faculties, to meet him at the Schools. Where being Assembled, and attended by the Masters of Arts and Students, they proceeded in their Formalities to the Market-Cross, and Proclaimed His Majesty with the usual Solemnity.
