

...ned a Body of Twenty thousand Men Ukrain, and the Grand Vizir having
...ent for Baron Saphiroff, the Czar's Am-...Bassador, desired to know the reason why such a number of Troops was sent to the Frontiers of the Empire in time of Peace.
The Baron returned answer, That his Master would withdraw his Forces as soon as the Borders of their Territories were adjusted, and the Muscovite Ambassadors were returned home.

Greenwich, September 18. His Majesty and the Prince having embarked on Board the Peregrine Yacht on Thursday last, about Eleven of the Clock in the Morning, attended by a Squadron of Men of War under the Command of the Earl of Berkeley, set sail with a fair Wind, and arrived safe at the Hope last Night. About Six this Evening His Majesty and his Royal Highness came to this Place, where they were met at their Landing by most of the Nobility, and great Numbers of the principal Gentry, and passed to His Majesty's House in the Park, through an infinite Crowd of People, who received them with loud Acclamations and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations and all other Marks of Joy and Satisfaction, suitable to the Occasion. Before His Majesty quitted His Ship, He was pleased to appoint the Earls of Dorset and Berkeley to be Gentlemen of His Bedchamber, and to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon William Saunderson, Esq; Captain of the Peregrine Yacht.

London, September 20. The King having appointed this Day for his Royal Entry from Greenwich through the City of London to his Palace at St. James's, publick Notice was given by the Lord Marshal for all the Nobility and others, who were to attend His Majesty, to repair to Greenwich Park by Ten of the Clock in the Morning, and Officers at Arms were appointed to Rank their Coaches in Order. About Twelve His Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness the Prince, set out from Greenwich, being preceded by a numerous Train of Coaches of the Nobility and Gentry, the Juniors marching first. When His Majesty arrived at St. Margaret's Hill in Southwark, he was met by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of this City. After which His Majesty proceeded to St. James's in the following manner. A Detachment of the Artillery Company. The two City Marshals on Horseback, with their Men on Foot to make Way. Two of the City Trumpets on Horseback. The Sheriffs Officers on Foot, with Javelins in their Hands. The Lord Mayor's Officers in black Gowns, on Foot two and two. Two more of the City Trumpets on Horseback. The City Banner born by the Water-Bailiff on Horseback. The City Officers on Horseback, in their proper Gowns. The four Attorneys two and two. The Solicitor, and the Remembrancer. The two Secondaries. The Comptroller. The four Common Pleaders. The two Judges. The Town-Clerk. The Common Serjeant, and the Chamberlain. Two more of the City Trumpets on Horseback. The Common-Cryer and the City-Swordbearer on Horseback. Those who had Fin'd for Sheriff or Alderman, or served the Office of Sheriff or Alderman in Scarlet Gowns on Horseback, according to their Seniorities, two and two, the Juniors first. The two Sheriffs in Scarlet Gowns on Horseback, with their Gold Chains, and their White Staves in their Hands. The Aldermen below the Chair on Horseback in Scarlet Gowns, two and two: The Aldermen above the Chair in Scarlet Gowns, on Horseback, wearing their Gold Chains, attended by their Beadles. Then the Coaches of the Nobility, Great Officers, &c. in the Order they came from Greenwich. The Knight Marshal's Men on Horseback, two and two. The Knight Marshal on Horseback. The King's Kettle-Drums. The Drum-Major. The King's Trumpets, two and two, The Serjeant Trumpet with his Mace. Pursuivants of Arms uncover'd, two and two. Herald of Arms. Kings of Arms. The Recorder in a Scarlet Gown on Horseback, uncovered. The Lord Mayor of London in his Crimson Velvet Gown on Horseback, uncovered, bearing the City Sword by His Majesty's Permission. Then came the King in His Coach, and His Majesty's Horse Guards clos'd the Procession. The Great Guns at the Tower were fired when His Majesty took Coach, as also when he pass'd over London-bridge. And at His Majesty's arrival at His Palace, the Canon in the Park were three times discharged.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices of Great Britain having ordered, that the Half-Pay Officers of the Earl of Hynsford's and Colonel Kerr's late Regiment of Dragoons, and Brigadier Gram's late Regiment of Foot, who are upon the Irish Establishment, do forthwith repair to North-Britain, to be under the Orders of Major General Whetbam, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces there, where they are to receive full Pay during their continuance in that Service; his Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland does hereby order and require all Half-Pay Officers belonging to those Regiments, who are now in this Kingdom, to take notice thereof, and accordingly to repair thither without loss of Time.

His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Duty on Wine Licenses, do give notice to all Persons concerned in taking out such Licenses, That their Office will be removed at Michaelmas next from Ess x-street, where it was formerly kept, to the lower End of Arundel-street, over-against St. Clements Church in the Strand.

Advertisements.

THE Manor of Wisley and Turly alias Turly Hanch, in the County of Wilts is to be sold to the best Purchaser, by Decree of the High Court of Chancery. Particulars may be had of Mr Richard Corford in the Devises in the said County.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against Charles Wilkinson, of London, Merchant, and he being declar'd a Bankrupt, is hereby requir'd to surrender himself to the Commissioners on the 30th Instant, and on the 7th and 21st of October next, at 3 in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; at the 1st of which sittings the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution-Money, and chuse Assignees.

IN PURSUANCE of an Order of the Rt. Hon. Simon Lord Harcourt, Baron of Stanton Harcourt, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, this is give Notice, that the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against James Baden, late of London, Merchant, are to meet on the 7th of October next, at 3 in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; where the Creditors are to come prepared to chuse new Assignees or Assignees.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Henry Griffin late of Bewdley in the County of Worcester, Cowper, deceased, intend to meet on the 4th of October next, at 11 in the Forenoon, at the Bull Inn in Bewdley aforesaid, to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Effects; where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, and paid their Contribution-Money, are to come prepared to do the same, or they'll be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

WHEREAS a Debenture for Corn Exported from the Port of Whitby, County-Money 14 l. 14 s. 6 d. granted from the Custom house there, to Mr. William Wilson, Merchant, March 26. 1713, and the said Mr. Wilson being since dead, so that the Original Debenture is lost or mislaid: This is to give notice, That if any Person has found or can bring to light the same in a Month after the Date hereof, and convey it to Mrs Jane Wilson of Whitby, or to Jefferyson's Coffee-house, Red-lyon Street, Holbourn, shall have 20 s. Reward. It's of no Use to any but the Owner, Payment being stop'd.