

Age, may be the glorious Instrument of Providence for establishing among us Peace and Happiness, Truth and Justice, Religion and Piety, throughout all Generations.

For these good Purposes we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our constant Endeavours shall be most zealously employed. We do sincerely acknowledge it to be both our Duty and our Interest; and, in Conformity to the known Loyal Principles of our Established Church, we shall diligently teach our People, that it is also theirs, by all possible Instances of Fidelity and Obedience, to consult the Honour and Security of our most holy Religion, to preserve Peace and Order, and Amity among all your Subjects, to contribute their utmost to the Ease and Happiness of your Majesty's Government, and inviolably to maintain all those Prerogatives and Dignities, which, together with the Imperial Crown of these Realms, are now by Law, and most undoubted Right, devolved upon your Royal Person and Posterity.
