Turin, Octob. 3. N. S. The King and Queen being returned from Sicily, and on the Road to this Capital, were met the 1st Instant at Carignan by our Magistrates in a Body, and by the Governor the Marquis de Carail, and the same Day they made their Entry into this City. Their Majesties and the Princes their Sons were in a Travelling Coach, the Duchesse Dowager with the Princes and Princesses of the Blood were in another, followed by the Ladies, Officers and Gentlemen of their Majesties Household and Retinue in several Coaches, a Detachment of the Horse Guards closing the March. The Governor having come back hither before them, stood ready at the Gate to present the Keys to the King. At their Majesties entrance the Cannon on the Ramparts were discharged; and as they pass'd thro' the Square of St. Charles, the Burghers who were drawn up in two Lines, fired their Musquets, as did the two Battalions of Hachbret and the Regiment of Schulembourg, which were posted in the Square before the Cathedral; where their Majesty's alighting, were received at the Door of the Church by the Clergy, Nobility, and others of Distinction: Their Majesties going up to the High Altar, the Choir Sung the Te Deum to Musick, the Artillery firing a second time: Their Majesties having received the Benediction of the Vicar-General, (who Officiated in chief, the Archbishop being dead) and having performed their Devotions in a Chappel of the Cathedral, proceeded to the Court: The Cannon gave a third Salvo at their entering the Palace, where they were received and complimented by all the Ladies in the great Hall of the Swiss Guards, and by the Magistrates and Senate in the State Room; and then their Majesties being fatigued retir'd from Company. It having rained continually for several Days past till this Morning, the Nobility have been hindred from making a Cavalcade as they designed in Honour of their Majesties; the Rain has likewise prevented the finishing a Triumphal Arch, and the playing of a Firework. This Court have reviv'd the Ceremonial that was observed here before the last War, according to which the Knights of the Order, the Ministers of State, and the Captains of the Guards, with the Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber, when in waiting, are the only Persons allowed to enter the Chambers of the King and Queen, all others being obliged to keep in the Anti-chambers and State Rooms. The Count de Wartlin is left Governour of Messina, and the Marquis d'Andourne Governour of Palermo. The Commodore of the British Ships of War which were of the Convoy that came with their Majesties from Sicily to Villa-franca, being come hither with two other Officers of those Ships, the King has made him a Present of his Picture set with Diamonds, and presented the other Officers in proportion; the Queen has likewise been very liberal in her Acknowledgments to them.

Turin, October 6. N. S. Since the Arrival of the King and Queen, the Confluence of the Nobility and Ladies at Court has been very great, and they have appeared in the utmost Magnificence of Dress and Equipage: The Queen has had a Circle every Evening, at which the King has been present; but yesterday the Court went into Mourning again for the Death of the Queen of Great Britain. The Deputies of divers Towns of Savoy and Piemont, who came hither to Congratulate the King and Queen on their Arrival, set out on their return yesterday; as did likewise most of the Gentlemen who came hither on the same Occasion, and have no Employment at Court. The Weather being settled fair, and a Triumphal-Arch representing the Temple of Glory being finished, all the Houses of the City began to be illuminated last Night; and this will be continued every Night to the 7th, when the said Arch will be illuminated with several thousand Lights, and the Firework erected before the Town-House will be let off. The Company of Sicilian Life-Guards, form'd entirely of Gentlemen of that Kingdom, chosen out of the best Families, some of which bear the Title of Princes, is expected here very soon, the greatest part of them being actually arriv'd at Coni. The new Battalion of Sicilians, with the Swiss Guards, and those of the Palace, which are already arriv'd in this Country from Sicily, are likewise expected in a few Days.

The Secretary of the States-General residing here, was admitted to a private Audience of the King of Sicily in his Closet the 4th, and Congratulated his Majesty on his return.

Vienna, October 13 N. S. Advices from Constantinople by the way of Transilvania tell us, that the Muscovite Ministers having settled all Matters to the Satisfaction of the Port, had liberty to return to the Czar their Master; that part of their Equipage was sent away, and that they intended to set out themselves soon after their Audience of Leave from the Grand Signor; and the freshest Letters from Constantinople, which are of the 21st and 22d of September say, that the Ministers of Poland having finished their Negotiation, went from the Turkish Court the 8th of that Month, and that on the 11th those of Muscovy departed likewise, being dismissed with great Civilities, having 290 Horses, with a suitable number of Waggon, allowed them for the Carriage of their Baggage and Retinue. These Letters confirm the Execution of the late Prince of Wallachia, with his four Sons and Sons-in-Law, and his Wife's Brother, that they were beheaded the 26th of August before the Seraglio, in the Presence of the Sultan himself; that their Bodies were publicly exposed all that Day, and the next they were thrown into the Sea. The News of the Death of the late Queen of Great Britain was come to the Port, and at the same time that of the quiet Accession of his present Majesty to the Throne of that Kingdom. We hear that the British and French Merchants in Turkey had furnished the King of Sweden with forty thousand Dollars, to enable him to prosecute his Journey, the Sums he had received from the Port not being sufficient to answer his Majesty's present Occasions. Thursday the 18th Instant is the Day appointed for the Coronation of the Empress at Presburg as Queen of Hungary.

Stockholm, October 2. N. S. We find no likelyhood of continuing the Conferences about Peace with the Muscovite General Trobetskey, since the Senate have no Orders from the King to proceed in that Negotiation. The 18th of last Month in the Evening King Stanislaus's Consort arrived here to take her Leave of the Royal Family, and return'd the 25th in the Afternoon towards Carlscrone in order to embark for Pomerania. During her stay here she was entertained with all the Marks of Royalty; the Queen Mother, and the Princess Royal, made her great Presents, and she had in Money and Bills from the Treasury very considerable Sums towards defraying the Charges of her Journey to Deux-Ponts. We had heard that so much Snow was fallen in East Bothnia, and those parts, that we were in hopes the Muscovite Galleys would retire towards Abo; but the 26th past an Express arrived from a small Town in Lapmark called Uma on the West side of the Bothnick Gulf, with an Account that the Muscovites had appeared thereabout with their Galleys, and landed some Troops on an Island in the middle of the Gulf; there were some Apprehensions of a Design to make a Descent on the Continent, but as that Country is very barren, and the Winter Season so near, it is believed the Muscovites can make no Stay. However this Alarm may occasion the Troops keeping the Field somewhat longer, which were otherwise ordered to march to Winter-quarters. Advices from our Squadrons at Sea tell us, that they suffered no small Inconveniencies by continuing so long on Duty. The Commission has sat, which was appointed to examine the Affair laid to the Charge of Baron Reqnsterna, for giving Passports clandestinely to several Ships to trade to the Ports in the Czar's Possession, but as this Business is not prosecuted with Vigour, 'tis doubted whether the Intrigue will be fully detected, and censured as it ought.

Westminster, October 25. On Thursday last the Parliament met, and was further Prorogued by Commission to the 13th of January next.

Whitehall, Octob. 25. His Majesty at the Coronation was graciously pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Charles Norton and Thomas Saunders, Esqrs; two of the Gentlemen of the Honourable Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, being presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans their Captain.

Whereas a Paper directed to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, signed W. D. hath been received, which gives an Account of several Abuses committed by an Officer belonging to the Navy; their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if the Person who writ the said Letter will attend them at their Office, to make good what is therein alleged, he shall have all fitting Protection and Encouragement.

Navy-Office, October 19. 1714.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy having this Day received a Letter by the Penny-Post, without Name, Date or Place, relating to the half Pay to the Sea Officers. They are to give Notice, that if the Person that wrote it will attend that Board, and make out what is alleged, he shall receive all fitting Encouragements.

All Persons who have any of his Majesty's Goods of what sort soever in their Custody, are hereby required forthwith to bring them to Whitehall, and there give Notice of the same at his Majesty's Board of Green-cloth, upon Pain of being prosecuted according to Law: And if any Person or Persons shall there make Discovery of any such his Majesty's Goods so unlawfully detained by any Person whatsoever, they shall be well rewarded for the same.

Whereas George Parker, a short thick brown Man, a little Cast with one Eye, late Servant to Mr. John Pope of Furnival's Inn, Holborn, left his Master's Service the 20th Instant and took with him four Circular Bank Notes for 100 l. each, all payable to Mr. Pope aforesaid, or Bearer, with Interest, some of which Notes become due in February, and some in March next: whoever shall apprehend and secure the said Parker, shall receive from Sir Richard Hoare, Banker in Fleetstreet, 10 Guineas, the like Sum for all the Notes, or proportionable for any part, Payment being stop'd at the Bank; or if the said Parker will return to his Master, with all the Notes, within the space of 6 Days, he shall receive 20 l. to ease his Circumstances.

The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against William Huddell, alias Huddball of London, Victualler, intend to meet on the 11th of November next, at 3 in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate, where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, and paid their Contribution-mony, are to come prepared to do the same, or they'll be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend. And the Bankrupt having surrendered himself (pursuant to Notice) and been several times examined; will then attend to finish his Examination; where the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.
