WIGAN METROPOLITAN BOROUGH COUNCIL

Wigan Borough (Standishgate and Market Place, Wigan) (Experimental Disabled Persons Parking) Order 1990 (Extension) Order 1991.

Notice is hereby given that the Wigan Borough Council, in exercise of its powers under section 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, has made the Wigan Borough (Standishgate and Market Place, Wigan) (Experimental Disabled Persons Parking) Order 1990 (Extension) Order 1991. It will come into force on 18th November 1991.

The effect of this Order is to continue in operation for a further 6 months on an experimental basis the Wigan Borough (Standishgate and Market Place, Wigan) (Experimental Disabled Persons Parking) Order 1990 (the original Order) which has been in operation since 19th November 1990. The effect of the original Order is to provide on an experimental basis for a period of 12 months a scheme permitting the parking in parts of Standishgate and in Market Place, Wigan, of disabled persons' vehicles. The original Order also continues in force (notwithstanding the temporary suspension of certain provisions of existing Orders) existing exemptions permitting limited waiting for the purposes of loading and unloading in parts of Standishgate and waiting for the purposes of a local authority and statutory undertakers.

The original Order was made on an experimental basis in order to provide an opportunity to assess the suitability of allowing disabled persons' vehicles into an area which is predominantly used by pedestrians. The duration of that Order is now extended to provide an opportunity to assess also the effect of the experimental substantial pedestrianisation of Market Street, which is likely to come into effect in January 1992. This will remove the existing provision enabling disabled persons' vehicles to wait in Market Street and it is intended that the assessment of the effect of the pedestrianisation of Market Street should take place while the experimental waiting by disabled persons' vehicles continues to be permitted in part of Standishgate and in Market Place. In this way, the benefits and disadvantages of the two schemes can be assessed from the point of view of disabled persons.

Notice is hereby further given that the Wigan Borough Council will be considering in due course whether the provisions of the original Order should be continued in force indefinitely.

Any person may within the period of six months from the coming into force of this Order object to the making of the original Order for the purposes of such indefinite continuation.

Any such objection must be made in writing and specify the grounds thereof and must be made to the Borough Solicitor, New Town Hall, Library Street, Wigan WN1 1NN.

A copy of this Order, and of the original Order and of the relevant map and of a statement of the reasons for proposing to make this Order and of the Orders to be suspended, may be inspected in the New Town Hall, Library Street, Wigan between 9 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on any day from Monday to Friday.

Any person wishing to question the validity of this Order or any of its provisions on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or that a requirement of that Act or of any Regulations made thereunder has not been complied with may, within 6 weeks from 8th November 1991, make application for the purpose to the High Court.

S. D. Lowe, Borough Solicitor

8th November 1991.
