PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ACT 1923

A Statute made by the Governing Body of Newnham College, in the University of Cambridge, on 29th November 1991, amending Statute III has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923.

The purpose of the Statute is to provide greater opportunity for the College to elect to Bye-Fellowships. (1 SI)

TREASURY SOLICITOR

In the High Court of Justice Queen's Bench Division, Divisional Court, before the Right Honourable Lord Justice Leggatt and the Honourable Mr. Justice Owen.

In the Matter of section 42 of the Supreme Court Act 1981 (as amended by section 24 of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985) between Her Majesty's Attorney General, Applicant and Mrs. Sandra Dauncey, Respondent.

Upon reading the Originating Motion herein dated 25th June 1991, issued by the Applicant, Her Majesty's Attorney General, seeking a Civil Proceedings Order against the above-named Respondent pursuant to section 42 of the Supreme Court Act 1981 (as amended by section 24 of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985) that:

- (i) no civil proceedings shall without the leave of the High Court be instituted by the above-named Respondent in any Court and
- (ii) that any civil proceedings instituted by the said Respondent in any Court before the making of the Order shall not be continued by the said Respondent without the leave of the High Court and
- (iii) that no application (other than an application for leave under section 42 of the said Act) shall without leave of the High Court be made by the said Respondent in any civil proceedings instituted in any Court whether by herself or another on the ground that the said Mrs. Sandra Dauncey, has habitually and persistently and without any reasonable ground instituted vexatious civil proceedings in the High Court, County Court and Court of Appeal and made vexatious applications in civil proceedings instituted by her or others.

And upon reading the affidavits of Ian William Noble, sworn 24th June 1991, and 26th November 1991, together with the exhibits thereto on behalf of the Applicant, Her Majesty's Attorney General, in support of these proceedings.

And upon hearing Mr. Robert Jay, of Counsel, on behalf of the Applicant and Mrs. Dauncey, the Respondent, appeared in person.

And the Court making no Order as to costs herein.

It is Ordered that the Applicant's application herein be granted and that the said Mrs. Sandra Dauncey, be and is hereby prohibited from:

1. instituting any civil proceedings in any Court and
2. continuing any civil proceedings instituted by her in any Court before the making of this Order and
3. making any application other than an application for leave as required by section 42 of the said Act, in any civil proceedings instituted in any Court by any person unless she obtains the leave of the High Court having satisfied the High Court that the proceedings or application are not an abuse of the process of the Court in question and that there are reasonable grounds for the proceedings or application

[This matter occupied the time of the Court from 10.33 a.m. to 12.45 p.m. and for 2 p.m. to 2.35 p.m.]

4th December 1991.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

NOTICE OF SEIZURE UNDER THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT 1979

To Giovanni Adorui

Pursuant to section 139(6) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the Customs and Excise Acts, certain goods, namely:

twelve rounds of shotgun ammunition imported by you and detained by an Officer of Customs and Excise at London Heathrow Airport on 14th October 1990, have been seized as liable to forfeiture by force of the following provision namely:

Section 78(4) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 in that the said goods were on 14th October 1990, being taken into or out of the United Kingdom contrary to a prohibition for the time being in force namely S43 of the Customs Consolidation Act 1876.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in writing in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 3 to the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979.

If you are outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man you must also give the name and address of a solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and act on your behalf.

If you do not give notice of claim within the said period of one month or if any requirement of the above-mentioned paragraph 4 is not complied with, the goods in question will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited.

If you do give notice of claim in proper form, the Commissioners will take legal proceedings for the condemnation of the said goods.

J. A. Lavery, Officer of Customs and Excise, H.M. Customs and Excise, Customs Directorate Division 3C, Alexander House, 21 Victoria Avenue, Southend, Essex SS99 1AD.

19th December 1991.
