St. Fames's Nov 1.

The Ministers appointed by the Commission of the General Affembly of the Chur h of Scotlan, were this Day antro-duced to his Maj fly by his Grace the Duke of Montrofe, one of his Majetly's principal 'ecretaties of State; and Mi William Carflans did in their Name Congratulate his Maj. fly upon his happy Accession to the Throne in the fol-lowing Speec.

May it please your Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

HE Ministers and Eld rs of the Commission of the General Assembly of the Caurch of See land, had such a particular Satusfaction in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Turone of these Nations, that they did not only embrace, with the great Cheatfalness, that they did not only embrace, with the great Cheatfalness, the instepper runnity of Congratulating your Majesty, by an humble Address upon to remarkable an Livent, in which Divine Goodness to these Nations, and to all the Protestant hurches, doth signally appear; but they did also judge it their Duty to appoint us, who now, through your Royal Goodness, have the Honour to be in your Majesty's Presence, to restifise in their Name, the deep and thankful Sense they have of the Mercy of the God of Heaven, who hard brought your Majesty to your Dominions in Peace and Satety, and placed that Crown upon your Royal Head, to which your Majesty alone had a just and an unquestronable Right; and that in such a way as fills both your Majesty's Friends and loyal Subjects with Admiration and Thankfulness, and your open and secret Emmies with Amazement and Confusion, even when they were big with Expectations of having a Popish Pretender advanced to the Throne, which now, to the universal Joy of all the true Lovers of the Protestant Religion, and of the just Civil Liberties of Men, your Majesty is rightfully possessed and long may the Crown shoursh upon the Head of a Prince, whole Eminent Virtues are an Ornament, and give a bright Lustre to it.

We persuade our selves, great Sir, that the Noble Patriots of North-Britain, who are deservedly honoured with your Majesty's Favour, have so fully informed you of the Zeal of the Church of Scotland for the Interest of your Majesty and your Royal Family, that there is nothing left for us to represent on that Head: Only we may truly say, that it was a Zeal for rooted and sincere, that the Menaces of those who were as great Enemies to the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family, as they were to the Constitut pointments.

We do not, Sir, mention these Things, to plead Merit with We do not, Sir, mention their Things, to plead Meritwith your Majefty; for we did nothing but what was our Dury to God; to our Country, and indeed for our own true interest there being few, if any, in Scotland, who are Enemies to our Church Establishment, but such as are equally, and for the same Reason so, to the late happy Revolution, and to your Majesty's just Title: Only we hope, that we shall have the Honour to be always considered by your Majesty, as your faithful and loyal Subjects, and have your gracious Protession.

faithful and loyal Subjects, and have your gracious Protection.

We are, may it please your Majesty, deeply sensible of the great Goodness, our Church hath a ready received remarkable Proofs of, from your Majesty, in your most gracious Answer to the humble Address of the Commission of the General Assembly of our Church, and in your Majesty's obliging your self so leasonably, by Oath, to maintain the Presbyterian Government, Doctrine, Worship, and Discipline, of the Church of Scotland, with all the legal Rights and Privileges thereof; so that your Majesty has given us good ground to hope, that we shall not only be preserved from all insults and incroachments upon our Constitution for the stutte, but that we shall also have a favourable hearing, as to any just and seasonable Representations of what is gnevous to us, which we may presume, at any time, to lay before your Majesty, that it will be the Care of the Ministers of our Church, so to behave themselves, as that it may appear, they are steady in their Loyalty to your Majesty, as the only rightful and lawful sovereign of these Nations, and Zealously concerned for the Quiet of your Government, and that they will be earnest and constant in their Endeavours to instruct the People, and to establish them in their Duty and Assession to such as are Euconies to both, mies to both.

May the All-fufficient God prevent your Majesty with the Blessings of his Goodness, and convey an uninterrupted Succession of signal Mercies to all your Dominions in your Royal Progeny, to latest Posterity. May your Hand find out all your Encimies. May your Majesty never have a Subject, what shall have so little Regard to God and his Conscience, as ever to be an Abetter of a Pretender, whom, by solemn Oath, he hath abjured. May all the Protestant Churches, and Exper in general, find the Advantages of your write and just Administration. May the Eternal God grant you length of Days upon Lat h, and crown you, at Last, with Glory, Honour, and immortality, in the highest Heavens.

To which his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Answer, Heartily join with you, in your Thankfulness to God, for his having blesled your remarkable Firmness in so good a Gaute, with the desired Success.

You may be ture of a suitable Return, on my part, by my Proceeding you in the Enjoyment of all your just Rights and Privileges
