Paris, November 14. N. S. The Reform of the French Troops is still deferred: The Plan of it is said to be larger than any made by France since the Peace of the Pyrenees: It is reported, that the Irish, Swiss and German Troops will be mostly kept on Foot. The King has declared his Intentions to give Half-pay to the Officers who shall be disbanded, and has recommended it to the Care of his Ministers to find means of doing it. Of the fifty French Battalions which were employ'd in Catalonia, thirty are to continue there in the Pay of the King of Spain, the other twenty are on their March towards France. The young Duke of St. Aignan is to go to Bayonne, to Compliment the Queen of Spain in the King's Name: His Majesty sends her for Presents Boxes for her Toilet, a Watch set with Diamonds, and other such like Curiosities. As the Difficulty in relation to the sending an Ambassador to Vienna (which was the Precedence that was formerly given to the Ambassador from Spain, as coming from the most August House) is now at an end; it is said, that the Duke de la Force is likely to be the Person named for Ambassador to the Imperial Court, and it is expected that Count Koningseck may come with the same Character hither. The Elector of Cologne was at Marli on the 11th Instant, and had an Audience of the King at 3 in the Afternoon; it was but short, and his Electoral Highness immediately set out on his return to Paris. The Firework which was to have been on the 11th in the Place de Ireve, on Occasion of the Peace between the Emperor and Empire and France, is put off till the 15th at Night, when there will be a Publick Supper in the Hôtel de Ville, which the Duke de Trémes, as Governor of this City, gives upon this Solemnity. 'Tis advis'd from Madrid, that the Marshal Berwick arrived there the 28th past. We have News here, that the great Dutchess of Tuscany is at the last Extremity.

Brussels, Nov. 14. N. S. Lieutenant-General Cadogan arrived here on the 11th in the Evening from Antwerp; and Yesterday Count Koningseck, the Emperor's Minister for regulating the Barrier, came hither likewise, with Messieurs Geldermalsen and Gockinga, two of the States Deputies: Their Collegues Count Rechteren and M. vander Duffen are gone to the Hague, to make Report to their Principals of what passed in the Conference held at Antwerp after the return of the Courier, which Count Koningseck had sent to Vienna. That Minister proposes to return to Antwerp in a Day or two, with Mr. Cadogan and the Dutch Deputies. Mr. Cadogan since his arrival here, has been every Day in Conference with M. Vandenberg and the Regency, upon the ordinary Affairs of these Provinces. Two French Cabinet Couriers have lately passed by this Place with Dispatches for M. de Chateaufort Ambassador from France at the Hague. Our Letters from the Frontiers confirm the Accounts we had formerly, that the great Reduction which had been resolv'd to be made among the French Troops, is put off till further Order.
