Constantinople, April 19. HE first of this Month the Grand Signior and the Vizier Azem broke up from Daud Pashaw in the neighbourhood of this City, and marched for Adrianople, having the Day before ordered the Captain Passaw to put to Sea with the Fleet, which he did accordingly, but was obliged by contrary Wind to come back to an Anchor off the Seven Towers. The Admiral's own Ship carries 112 Guns; the was launched 12 Years ago, but never went to Sea before: 'Tis rumoured the Fleet will make Attempts on Zant and Cephalonia, as also on Corfou, which is the Rendezvous of the Venetians, by this Means to prevent the junction of the Maltele and other Christian Naval Forces with the Venetian Fleet; the Captain Pashaw being of a very daring Temper, and extremely defirous to Egnalize himfelf, 'tis not doubted that if his Orders do not rettrain him he will venture an Engagement where-ever he meets the Venetians, tho' his Offi cers are unexperienced and the Ships ill manned. The Treasure which the Sultan took with him from hence was carried by about 400 Camels; and if (as is reported) it be all in Silver, itis computed it amounts to 2400000 Rixdollars. His Highness proposes to stay this Summer at Adrianople, and to commit the Enterprize against the Morea to the Conduct of the Grand Vizier. have Advice that the Inhabitants of the Morea have declined taking Arms to defend themselves; and the Captain Pashaw, who is a Native of that Country, hath lately received Letters from certain Greeks in Napoli di Romania, giving an account of the Garrison. Fortifications Artillery, and Magazines of that Place: 'Tis certain that the Grand Signior has owen very strict Orders for treating the faid Inhibitants with Lenity and Kindness, and for preserving the Country from being plundered and laid waste; and there will not be any Tariars employed in the Expedition: The Body which the Tartan Han has orders to keep in a Readinels, is supposed to be designed against Hungary if there shall be Occasion: The Han himself is to meet the Port at Adrianople. The Grand Vizier has declared his Intentions to befiege Napoli di Romania which Place by the report of the Master of a Christian Ship that lately touched there in her way hither, is in a very good Condition, having a Garrison of 6000 Men and being sufficiently provided for a long Siege; Men were kept daily at work in improving the Fortifications and Defences of the Place; and the Turks being very deficient in Officers of Experience, and especially having noone Ingenier of known Ability, they will probably find it very difficult to succeed in that their first Enterprize. P. S. The Grand Signior made his Entry into Adrianople on the 12th Instant; on the 16th, the Januar-Aga marched, and the Vizier was to follow him on the 18th: He deligns however to say about three Weeks at Perez within two Days Journey of Salonichi, to Soil his Cavalry according to the Customs of the Turks. They bring all the Forces of the Empire into the Field: The Bashaws of Aleppo, Sivas, and Diarbekin, as well as those of Anak tolia, being in Motion with the Militia of their respective Governments, and some of them advanced very near to this Place: They are to pass the Hellespont at Gallipoli

Venice, May 18. This State continues to fend all possible Supplies to the Levant, for putting its Forces by Land and Sea into a Condition to oppose the Attempts of the Turks. On the 16th failed from hence three Men of War commanded by Sig. Almoro Morosini, Proveditore Extraordinary of the Morea, having under his Convoy five Ships laden with Provisions, and carrying 800 Men of our new Levies. A new built Man of War called the Queen of the Sea, was brought out of the Arsenal on the 15th, and will very shortly fail to join the Fleet; she is to be commanded by a Genouses Captain, whom the Republick have engaged in their Service. Letters of the 4th Instant which came by the way of Otranto advise, that the Captain-Gereral Deltino having proviced the Islands of St. Mauro and Cephalonia with Troops and Ammunition, was advanced with the Fleet to the Heighth of Patras; he had not then received any Intelligence that the Turkish Fleet had put to Sea.

ligence that the Turkish Fleet had put to Sea.

Stockholm, May 4, 1715. O. S. The Birth-Day of the Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel, being the 17th of April, happened to fall this Year on Easter day; however there was a Ball at Court that Evening, as also another on the 19th, which was the young Duke of Holstein's Birtha Day; on both these Occafions all the Foreign Ministers were invited to Court. On the 22d the Eclipse of the Sun was very remarkable here, and much greater than the Astronomers had calculated it, having been merally obscured for aabout seven Minutes, insomuch that several Stars were seen near the Sun, and appear'd as bright as at Midnight. It happened that about 100 Muscovite Prisoners were at that time bringing under a Guard from the Place of their Confinement to work, 28 whereof found Means during the Surprise the Guard was under in the Time of the Eclipse ro make their Escape. Several Peasants who came lately from Aland reported that they had an Account there from Abo, the Capital of Finland, that the Mulcovites were making great Preparations for a very confiderable Enterprize, and that several Regiments of Russian Intantry were daily expected in that Island; and on the ad Instant an Express came from Colonel Cronberg, who commands the Troops posted on the Coast over-against Aland, and brought Advice that the Muscovite Regiments were come over from Finland, and that a Descent was intended to be made upon this Continent, whereupon Orders have been dispatched to the Regiments which are the nearest to this Place to repair hither with all possible speed. Two Dutch Ships, and one of Lubeck, were brought in hithen some Days ago by a Swedith Privateer, who took them out of the Port of Liban, and so close to the Town that several Swedes were killed by Musket Shot from the Garrison. The King's Atlora by Musket Shot from the Garrison. The King's Ational new General has lately delivered a Writing to each of the Senators letting them know that he has been directed by his Majesty to inspect the Protocol of their Met ings, in order to fee who has obeyed, and who has voted against the King's Commands, but it is not yet known in what Manner or how foon they will be summoned to answer to their several Accusations. Yesterday we. had Advice from Schonen that the Squadron which was cruifing under the Command of Count Wachmeister was all taken by the Danes. This News put People inte some Confirmation, and has altered the Scheme of our Maritime Affairs.

Stralfund, May 21. The Prussian and Saxon Troops lie very quiet in their Camps, and give us no Disturbance as yet a however the King of Sweden is very vigilint in viewing the Passes and Defiles all about the Country, and making the best Dispositions he can to receive his Enemies in case of an Attack. In riding our lately his Majesty was in great danger by his trorfe talling upon him; his Officers wies took him from under his Horfe, thought te had been extremely hurr; but his Majesty rade on at that time without much Concern; however the figure he then to closed. on his Breast has since incommoded him; and yester-day his M. jesty tound he could not bear the fangue of riding as usual, but returned home, and voided from Blood, as is faid. Many Soldiers and Persants are employed in making a Dirch which is to be carried on from the Sea near the Gare called Franken Tohr to the Morais near the Gate called Triblees Tohr, Some ne v Works are likewise adding to the Fortifications at the Gate called Knieper Tohr; and other Preparations are making for putting this place in the best Posture of Defence we can. The Duke Administrator of Holst-in went from hence fome Days ago, but the occasion of his Journey, and whither he is going, are not furely known here. We are told that Count van Dernath will take the first Opportunity of going over to Swed 2, in order to relide

; as a o a out M. Tornshiold, who went from ence fince the Arrival of Monsieur de Croissy, some thinks to Deux-ponts, others to Vienna.

Hagne, June 11. The Council of State had formed 2 Plan for reducing the Land-Forces maintained in time of Peace by this State, from 46611 Men to 40270, as foon as the Treaty of Barrier shall be concluded; which Plan was not ill received by the States of this Province of Holland, and was fent to the other Provinces for their Perufal and Approbation; but the States of Gelderland have by their Deputies already made a vigorous Remonstrance against it, setting forth that they are ready to consent to any other Expedient for lessening the general Burthen of the Taxes, but that they cannot consent to this Reform, which would too much endanger the Publick Safety; being rather of Opinion, that the present Number of Forces should be increased to 50000. There are Letters from Adrianople by the way of Vienna, dated the 28th of April, which relate that the Captain Pashaw being very much indisposed, had been obliged to be carried ashore; and that the Departure of the Turkish Fleet from the Dardanells was tetarded till he should be able to take the Command upon him, or till the Grand Signior should appoint another Admiral in his Room.
