Supply of Refrigerants in Non-Refillable Containers: Regulations under section 140 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990

The Department of the Environment is planning to introduce Regulations under section 140 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 entitled "The Environmental Protection (Refrigerants in Non-Refillable Containers) Regulations 1993".

The intention of the Regulations is to ban the import into the UK, storage and supply to the UK market of CFC, HCFC and HFC refrigerants in non-refillable (disposable) containers, except for the purposes of research and development or analysis. Regulations to ban the supply of refrigerants in these containers are needed because their use can lead to unnecessary pollution, particularly emissions of ozone depleting substances.

It is intended that these Regulations will come into force on 30th November 1993. The draft Regulations may be inspected free of charge by members of the public during office hours at: The Department of the Environment, Global Atmosphere Division, Room B259, Romney House, 43 Marsham Street, London SW1P 3PY.

Representations in writing about the proposed Regulations may be made to the Secretary of State for the Environment at the above address until 30th September 1993.

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT, 1990

Theiwall Conservation Area (Extension)

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, that the Council has determined that the area described in the Schedule to this Notice is an area of special architectural or historic interest and that it is desirable to preserve or enhance the character and appearance of the area and has accordingly designated the area as a conservation area.

The effect of the designation is that where any application for planning permission for development of land in or adjacent to the conservation area is made to the Council and either the development would, in the opinion of the Council, affect the character or appearance of the conservation area or the development would, in the opinion of the Council, affect the setting of a listed building, the application will be subject to the special procedure contained in section 73 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990. The demolition of all buildings is brought under control and consent to demolish any building within the conservation area should not be taken as being given as part of planning permission for redevelopment of the site unless the Council states that it includes consent to demolish the building in the Notice granting planning permission. It also becomes an offence to cut down, top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage, or wilfully destroy any tree within the conservation area except with the consent of the Local Planning Authority. Permitted development rights under the General Development Order 1988, are also more restricted than in other areas.

Statutes in Force

A vital reference work on the law of the land

What is Statutes in Force?

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes. It provides the text (without commentary) of the current statute law of the land, in a way which is comprehensive

constantly updated

The complete edition consists of 107 looseleaf binders which contain hole-punched crown quarto (246 x 189mm) booklets - giving a total of some 60,000 pages. The Acts are arranged, not in purely chronological order, but classified into 125 groups according to subject matter.

Statutes in Force is intended to be a permanently renewable edition of revised statutes. It is kept up to date in a number of ways:

- The issue of new Acts for insertion into their appropriate groups (they are published in complete text form usually within two months after Royal Assent)
- The issue of instructions for the removal of repealed Acts
- The publication of revised reissues of heavily-amended Acts
- Cumulative supplements for each affected group giving particulars of amendments and partial repeals (pending their eventual incorporation in revised reissues of the affected Acts).

Customers may obtain copies of any individual Act in the Statutes in Force edition. This service will be of most benefit when ordering heavily amended Acts which have been revised and re-issued or Acts which are now out-of-print in the original (Queen's Printer) version.

There's a free leaflet on Statutes in Force available from:
