

- Dr. Kenneth SCOTT, General Medical Practitioner, Beckenham, Kent. For services to Medicine.
- The Reverend Thomas Hardy SCOTT. For services to Cancer Care in Scotland.
- John SHARP, lately Chairman, Independent Schools Joint Council. Accreditation, Review and Consultancy Service. For services to Education.
- The Very Reverend Jack SHEARER, Dean of Belfast. For services to the community in Northern Ireland.
- Paul Douglas SHERLOCK, Technical Adviser (Emergencies), OXFAM. For services to humanitarian relief.
- Miss Joan Elizabeth SHIELDS. For services to education for Deaf-Blind Children.
- Rajkumar Sanayaima SINGH, Consultant Otolaryngologist, Ayrshire and Arran Health Board. For services to Medicine.
- Miss Valerie SINGLETON. For services to Broadcasting.
- Geoffrey SLEIGHTHOLME, lately Grade 6, Office for Standards in Education.
- Miss Sue SLIPMAN, Director, National Council for One Parent Families.
- Barrie Edwin SMITH. For services to City Regeneration and to Industrial Development in Sheffield.
- Barbara Mary Dimond, Mrs. SMITH. For services to the Wages Councils.
- David Bruce Boyter SMITH, Director and Chief Executive, Dunfermline Building Society. For services to Housing and to Public Life in Scotland.
- David Michael SMITH. For political service.
- Michael Basil SMITH, lately Headteacher, Filton High School, Bristol. For services to Education.
- Ronald Francis SMITH, Grade 6, Ministry of Defence.
- Miss Karen SMITHIES. For services to Ladies' Cricket.
- Professor Paul Samuel John SPENCER, Head, Welsh School of Pharmacy and former Dean, Faculty of Health and Life Sciences, University of Wales, Cardiff. For services to Science.
- Patricia Forrest, Mrs. STEVENSON, Chairman, Tayside Children's Panel Advisory Committee. For services to Young People.
- Gwenda Margaret Etheridge, Mrs. STEWART. For services to the community in Cheshire.
- Noel STEWART, Regional Partner in Charge (Northern Ireland) Coopers and Lybrand. For services to Business in Northern Ireland.
- Michael John STOREY. For political and public service.
- Robert Hardiman Graham SUGGETT, Principal, Warwickshire College of Agriculture. For services to Agricultural Education and to Conservation.
- Joyce, Mrs. SWEPSTON, Chair, Board of Visitors, Her Majesty's Prison Woodhill. For services to Prison Visiting.
- Jimmy TARBUCK. For charitable services.
- David Heathcote TATHAM, Group Trade Mark Agent, ICI. For services to Industry.
- Jean, Mrs. TAYLOR. For political and public service.
- Dr. John Michael TAYLOR, Director, Hewlett-Packard Laboratories Europe. For services to the Computing Industry.
- Barry TESTER, Commercial Director, Insulating Components and Materials Ltd. For services to the Defence Industry.
- Gilbert Stanley THOMAS. Founder of Peter Savoury Products. For business and charitable services to the community in Wales.
- Hedley Saunders THOMAS, Director, PW Management Consultancy Services. For services to Management Consultancy.
- Miss Patricia THOMPSON, R.D. Grade 7, Department of Economic Development, Northern Ireland Civil Service.
- Doctor Patricia Anne TIPPETT, Director, Blood Group Unit, Medical Research Council, London. For services to Science.
- Sam TOY, Chairman, UK 2000 Scotland. For services to Conservation.
- William James TYSON, Director of Planning and Promotion, Greater Manchester Passenger Transport Executive. For services to Transport in Manchester.
- Eric Arthur WALDRON, Chairman, Advisory Committee on Justices of the Peace, Southampton. For services to the Judicial System.
- William Heap WALMSLEY, Grade 7, Department of Health.
- The Very Reverend Rhys Derrick Chamberlain WALTERS. For services to the community in Liverpool.
- Patricia Maud, Mrs. WARREN. For political service.
- Captain John James WATSON, Chairman, British Ports Association. For services to the Ports Industry.
- Pamela, Mrs. WAUGH, lately Grade 6, Lord Chancellor's Department.
- Peter Abraham WEIDENBAUM, Founder and Member, Bolton and Bury Training and Enterprise Council. For services to Training.
- Alan Roy WELLS, Director, Adult Literacy and Basic Skills Unit. For services to Adult Literacy.
- David Edgar WHITE, Grade 7, Her Majesty's Board of Inland Revenue.
- Francis John WHITWORTH, lately Chairman, Merchant Navy Officers' Pension Fund Trustees.
- Dr. Peter David WICKENS, Director and Board Member, Nissan Motor Manufacturing (UK) Ltd. For services to the Motor Industry.
- Geoffrey Stuart WIGGINS, lately Veterinary Officer, Corporation of London. For services to Veterinary Medicine and to Public Health.
- Neil Keith WILKIE, Headmaster, Gairloch High School, Ross-shire. For services to Education.
- Gladys Joan, Mrs. WILKINSON, Chairman, Board of Visitors and Local Review Committee, Her Majesty's Young Offenders Institution, Dover. For services to Prison Board of Visitors.
- John Alan WILLIAMS, Vice-Chairman, Royal Automobile Club. For services to Motoring.
- Wyn Rees WILLIAMS, Principal, Hereward College of Further Education, Coventry. For services to Education.
- Professor Mark Herbert WILLIAMSON, Member, Advisory Committee on Releases to the Environment. For services to Environmental Protection.
- Alexander WILSON, lately Director, National Museum of Wales. For services to the Cultural Heritage of Wales.
- David WYNNE, Sculptor. For services to Sculpture.
- Dr. Ronald ZEEGEN, Consultant Physician in General Medicine, Westminster Hospital, London. For services to Medicine.