A copy of the proposed Order, and an appropriate plan may be inspected during normal office hours in the Environment & Highways Department, County Hall, Swansea.

Eastbound Vehicles can utilise the road network at Baldwins Interchange to retrace their route involving an additional maximum distance of 2.15 miles.

LUTON BOROUGH COUNCIL

The Borough of Luton (New Bedford Road) (Prohibition of Traffic) (Experimental) Order 1994

Notice is hereby given that on 14th February 1994, Luton Borough Council, pursuant to arrangements made with the Bedfordshire County Council, made the above Order under section 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and Part III of Schedule 9 to the Act and of all other enabling powers.

The Order will come into operation on 28th February 1994, and will be in force for an experimental period of 18 months.

Major sewer works in New Bedford Road required the recent temporary closure of the road under British Rail Bridge No. 137 with the operation of a mini roundabout at the junction of New Bedford Road with Telford Way. The operation of the mini roundabout has generally proved successful in coping with traffic flow with evident reduction in delays to traffic. The effect of this Order is to continue the prohibition of traffic, except cycles, from New Bedford Road under Bridge No. 137. Pedestrians will not be affected and continued access will be permitted for building and demolition operations, maintenance of the railway bridge and embankments, public utility and local authority purposes, and fire, police and ambulance purposes. The lengths of road affected are formally described in the Schedule below.

A copy of the Order together with a plan showing the length of road concerned and a statement of the Council's reasons for making the Order may be inspected at my office on the First Floor of the Town Hall between 9.30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday to Friday.

The Council will consider in due course whether the provisions of the Order should be made permanent. Any person wishing to object to the making of a permanent Order may do so within a period of 6 months from the coming into force of the Experimental Order or if the Order is subsequently varied by another Order under section 9 or modified, pursuant to section 10(2) of the 1984 Act, from the coming into operation of that variation or modification (whichever is the latest). If you wish to object to the making of a permanent Order you should send the grounds of your objection to the undersigned by 28th March 1994, quoting ref. RP/LIT/New Bedford Road.

If you wish to question the validity of this Order or any provision contained in it on the grounds that they are not within the powers contained in the above Act or any requirement of that Act or any regulation made under it has not been complied with in relation to this Order you may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Order was made, apply to the High Court for this purpose.

R. J. Stevens, Borough Secretary

Delivering the Response to the District Court

You are to deliver your response to the Office of the District Court within 90 days from the date this summons has been published in the Official Gazette of Finland. At your own risk, you can deliver it to the Office also by mail, by telefax, through other electronic communication channel, or by messenger.

In case you request extension of the time limit before the expiration thereof, the District Court may, for a special reason, extend the time limit in order for you to give your response.

Contents of the Written Response

In your response, you are requested to

- notify, whether you accept or contest the action, and, if you contest, to present such justification for the contesting which may have bearing in deciding the matter;

The document is to be appended to the response, either the original document or a copy thereof. If your contesting is based on a negotiable bond, a bill of exchange, or a cheque, the original document has to be appended to the response. In the response, you are also to inform the mailing address and the telephone number during the office hours for any witness or other person to be heard.

You may prepare your response yourself or have it prepared by a representative. You get directions for preparing the response from the Office of the District Court. The person who prepares the response has to sign the response and, in addition, to disclose his/her profession, domicile, address, and telephone number where he/she can be reached during office hours. The response is also to disclose the mailing address where the summonses, requests, and notices can be sent. These documents can be served to you by sending them by mail to the address disclosed in the response.

Consequences of a Negligence to Respond or of a Defective Response

If you do not respond within the time limit, or if you contest the plaintiff's claim and do not justify your contesting in the manner explained above, the District Court can decide the matter by a default judgment in accordance with the plaintiff's claim, if the claim is not clearly unfounded.
