

- Claude BLAIR. For services to Church Conservation.
- James BLAIR, Curator, Perth Museum and Art Gallery. For services to the Arts.
- Miss Joyce BLOW (Mrs. Darlington), Member, Board of British Standards Institution. For services to Consumer Protection.
- Rabbi Lionel BLUE, Writer and Broadcaster.
- Brian William BLUNDEN, Managing Director, Pira International. For scientific services to the Paper, Printing and Publishing Industries.
- Harold Davies BLUNDRED, Chairman and Managing Director, Transit Holdings Ltd. For services to the Bus Industry.
- Thomas Henry BOORE, lately Chairman, National Caravan Council. For services to the Caravan Industry and to Tourism.
- Benjamin Edward BOOT, Member, MAFF's North Mercia Regional Panel. For services to Agriculture.
- Michael Anthony Frederick BORRIE, Manuscripts Librarian, the British Library.
- Antony James BOYCE, Chairman, South Devon Healthcare NHS Trust. For services to Health Care.
- Philip Charles BRADBURN. For political and public service.
- Stephen BRADSHAW, Executive Director, Spinal Injuries Association. For services to Disabled People.
- David Henry, Baron BRASSEY OF APETHORPE, D.L. For services to the community in Northamptonshire.
- Richard James BRIGGS. For services to the Development of Hyde Park.
- Major William Garratt St. Stephen BROGAN, D.L. For services to the Army Benevolent Fund in Leicestershire and Rutland.
- Christopher David BROOK, Grade 7, Her Majesty's Board of Customs and Excise.
- Matthew Kennedy BROWNE, Medical Director, Monklands and Bellshill Hospitals NHS Trust and Consultant Surgeon, Monklands and District General Hospital, Glasgow. For services to Medicine.
- Colin BRUMMITT, lately Finance Officer, University of Warwick. For services to Higher Education.
- Peter William BRUNT, Consultant Physician, Aberdeen Royal NHS Trust. For services to Medicine.
- Dilys Averil, Mrs. BURGESS, Chairman, Policy Group, Independent Schools Joint Council. For services to Education.
- Peter Henry Frederick BURTON, Group Chief Executive, Bloxwich Engineering Ltd. For services to the Engineering Industry.
- Frederick BUSHE. For services to Sculpture.
- Peter BUXTON, Governor 1, Her Majesty's Prison Frankland.
- Gerald CAKEBREAD, Grade 7, Hydrographic Office, Ministry of Defence.
- Miss Judith CHALMERS, Broadcaster and Vice Chairman, Holiday Care Service. For services to Holidays for People with Disabilities.
- Alan CHAPMAN, Official Receiver (B), Insolvency Service, Department of Trade and Industry.
- Philip Hemming CHARTERS, Grade 7, Overseas Development Administration.
- Anne, Mrs. CHEETHAM, M.B.E. For political and public service.
- Andrew John George CHINN, Headmaster, Ferndale Comprehensive School, Mid-Glamorgan. For services to Education in Wales.
- John Edward Holder CHRISTIE. For services to Truro Cathedral and to the community in Cornwall.
- Hector Goodfellow CLARK, Q.P.M., lately Deputy Chief Constable, Lothian and Borders Police.
- Elisabeth Kay, Mrs. COLEMAN, Chief Executive, Harveys and Company (Clothing) Ltd. For services to Equal Opportunities.
- Kenneth George CHURCHILL-COLEMAN, Q.P.M., Commander, Metropolitan Police.
- Henry Anthony COLL. For services to Employment.
- Isabella Amelia, Mrs. COLVIN, Member, Executive Committee, Women's National Commission. For services to Women's Issues and to the community.
- Elizabeth Margaret, Mrs. CONRAN, Curator, The Bowes Museum. For services to The Bowes Museum.
- Colonel Mark Thurston COOK (Rtd.). For humanitarian services in former Yugoslavia.
- Angela Beryl Sackville, Mrs. COPE, Vice President, Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. For services to Animal Welfare.
- Robert Arthur Peter COUPE, Grade 7, Department of Health.
- Sebert Leslie COX, Assistant Chief Probation Officer, Home Office.
- Colin Alexander Bell CROSBY, Chairman, Grampian Housing Association. For services to the Housing Association Movement in Scotland.
- David Lewis CROSBY, Senior Consultant Surgeon, South Glamorgan. For services to the National Health Service in Wales.
- George CROWTHER. For political and public service.
- Ezekiel Adams CURRIE, Agricultural Inspector Grade 1, Department of Agriculture.
- Miss Jane Helen DARBYSHIRE. For services to Architecture.
- Mary, Lady DAVIDSON. For services to the community, particularly to Christian Aid, in Edinburgh.
- Anthony Murles DAVIS. For services to the community in Sheffield.
- Miss Caroline Harriet DAWES, Deputy Chairman, Occupational Pensions Board. For services to the Pensions Industry.
- Gillian, Mrs. DAWSON, County Vice President, St. John Ambulance Brigade, Jersey.
- Captain James Charles Laurie DE COVERLY, Grade 6, Department of Transport.
- Charles Martin de SELINCOURT, Chairman, Foundation for the Study of Infant Deaths.
- Maureen Drew, Mrs. de VIELL, Grade 7, Department of Employment.
- Peter DELANY, Courts Administrator, Lord Chancellor's Department, Leeds.
- John Alexander DEMPSEY. For political and public service.
- John MacMillan Walter DINWOODIE, Grade 6, Department of the Environment.
- George Blyth DORWARD, lately Member, Border Regional Council. For services to Local Government.
- Stephen Thomas DOUGHTY, Grade 7, National Audit Office.