At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 19th day of July 1994

Present,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Diplomatic Service Order in Council 1991 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") provision was made relating to the appointment of persons to situations in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the principal Order so as to permit the making of arrangements to provide for encouragement and assistance to be given in the selection process to persons who are registered as disabled:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Article 2 of the principal Order shall be amended by the insertion of a new paragraph (2A) between paragraphs (2) and (3) reading as follows:

"(2A) Notwithstanding article 2(1)(a), a person may be appointed where it appears to the Head of the Service that the person satisfies the standard for entry into the grade and has been selected for appointment under a scheme which provides for selection for appointment to be made on merit on the basis of fair and open competition, but includes provision for encouragement and assistance in the process of selection (by way of a guarantee of an interview or otherwise) to be given to any person who is registered as a disabled person under the Disabled Persons (Employment) Act 1944(a)."

2. This Order may be cited as the Diplomatic Service (Amendment) (No. 2) Order in Council 1994 and shall come into force forthwith.

TREASURY

HAITI: SANCTIONS

Paragraph 4 of United Nations Security Council Resolution 917 of 6th May 1994 ('the Resolution') strongly urges states to freeze without delay the funds and financial resources of specified Haitian individuals and to ensure that neither they nor any other funds and financial resources are made available to or for the benefit of such persons or of the Haitian military.

Paragraph 2 of EU Council Decision 94/315/CFSP of 30th May 1994, provides that EU member states shall take without delay the legislative, regulatory or administrative measures necessary to give effect to the freeze on funds and financial resources described in paragraph 4 of the Resolution and Council Recommendation 94/313/EC of 30th May 1994 contains supplementary provisions concerning the meaning and implementation of the Decision.

A list of the individuals covered by United Nations Security Council Resolution 917 was produced by the United Nations Security Council Sanctions Committee on 17th June 1994.
