A DECLARATION of the ARCH-BISHOB of Canterbury, and the Btshops in and near London, testifying their Abhorrence of the present Rebellion; With an Exportation to the Clergy and People under their Care, to be Zealous in the Discharge of their Duties to His Majesty King GEORGE.

HEREAS an Unnatural Rebellion has been Raised against Our Lawful and Rightful Sovereign King George in several Parts of the Kingdom, and is still Threatned in more, We have thought it Incum-I hreatned in more, We have thought it incumbent upon Us, out of Our Dutyto God, to Our King, to Our Country, and to Our Holy Religion, in this Publick Manner to Declare Our Athorrence of it, and to Warn both the Cerry and People under Our Charge, of the great Obligations they lie under, upon all these Accounts, to shew a hearty and an open Zeal for the Government in this Conjunctore.

The Providence of God has indeed to Won-

The Providence of God has indeed to Wonderfully appeared hitherto, both in timely Discovering the Treason, and in Disappointing Our Enemies of several Advantages they expected, that We have great Reason to trust in Him, that the Event will be to the Confusion of the Wicked Actors in this Rebellion; But however in a Matter of this High Nature, wherein Out Duty and Our dearest Interests are so deeply Concerned, no Endeavours ought to be thought Superfluous, nor Zeal Unnecessary.

We are the more Concerned, that both the Clergy and People of Out Communion should of Us do not Clearly and Heartily Declare our Detestation of such Practices.

We are not surprized, that Papills should rife up against a Government which they would never yet own, and endeavour to fet a Person upon the I brone, who will Establish their Religion, and Ruin Ours: (tho' Rebellion is but an ill Return for the Quiet they have enjoy'd) But that profess'd Meinbers of the Church of England thould Joyn with them in this, and out of Private Discontents, Attempt to fet up a Person whom they have so often, and so lately Abjured, is so vile and detestable a thing, as may justly make them Odious both to God and Man; But at the same time to pretend a Zeal for the Church, that is, to joyn with Papills, to fet up a Popilh Pretender, to Support the Church of England, is such an Important upon the common Sense of Mankind, that nothing even in Popery it felf can be more abfurd, and nothing but an infatuation from God, justly inflicted for Our Sins, can luffer to pals upon the

How much Blood this may cost, or what Ruin it may bring on Our Country, God only knows; But we think proper to observe to you, that the more clearly and openly We Declare Our selves for the Government, the less it will probably be: And that all those must have a Share in the Guilt of the innocent Blood that shall be spilt, not only who actually Joyn in the Rebellion, but who do any way Promote it; or even by their filence at this Juncture, shall give Hopes to the Pretender and his Friends, and just Cause of Jealousie and Sufficient to the Government.

And is this a Time to find Neuters when all lies at Stake? Or is Popery become to Innocent of late, that it is Indifferent whether a Peoith or a Protestant Prince be on the Throne? This We Clergy and People of Out Communion should shew themselves hearty Friends to the Government upon this Occasion, to Vindicate the Honory of the Church of England, because the thornous of the Church of England, because the chief Hopes of Our Enemies seem to stife from Discontents artificially raised among Us, and because some, who have Valued themselves, and because fome, who have Valued themselves, and have been too much Valued by others, for a fretended Dealth to believe, are so many, that if They are been too much Valued by others, for a fretended Zeal for the Church, have Joyned with Papills 1984king) cannot be in any Danger. And is it not in these Wicked Attempts, which as they must ruin the Church if they Succeed, so they cannot be in any Danger. And is it not the Church if they Succeed, so they cannot be in any Danger. And is it not well end without great Reproach to it, if the rest the Souls? They, have not only Abjuted the Preten-
