And whereas it has been represented, that several Widows on the English Establishment do live in Ireland, and the great Inconvenience and Charge it will be to them to repair hither: These are further to give Notice, that a Board of the General Officers will be appointed in Ireland to examine such Widows as are upon the English Establishment who live there; and that their transmitting authentick Certificates, or a List of such Widows, sign'd by the Officers shall be found qualified, will be sufficient to entitle them to their Pensions here.

And whereas several Widows of Officers have petitioned his Majesty that he would be graciously pleased to admit them on the Pensions according to the Quality of their Husbands; these are also to give Notice, That the said Petitioners do attend at the said Board on Wednesday the Eighteenth Day of January next, to make out their Pretensions to the Royal Bounty.

By Order from their Lordships,
 Kingsmile Eyre, Secretary.
