St. James's, Jan. 11. This Day the following Address, (subscribed by the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City of York on the 27th of November last, and afterwards by the Clergy of the Diocese, in Number 376.) was presented to His Majesty by the Reverend the Dean of York, and Mr. Finch. Being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Nottingham, Lord President of the Council. Which Address His Majesty received very graciously, and expressed himself well pleased with that Assurance of their Duty and Loyalty.

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the City and Diocese of York.

May it please your sacred Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City and Diocese of York, humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty our entire Abhorrence and Detestation of that unnatural and most wicked Rebellion, begun and carried on by Papists, Nonjurors, and other disaffected Persons, with a Design to Depose your Majesty, our only lawful and rightful Sovereign, and to set a Popish Pretender on your Throne; and to give your Majesty the fullest Assurance, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, Defence, Support and Maintain your undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, against him the said Pretender, and all other your Enemies whatsoever.

We are truly sensible that, of all your Subjects, we of the Clergy are under the most strict Obligations, both of Duty and Interest, to do this: As being Ministers of a Church that teacheth the best Principles and Measures of Obedience to Princes: As being bound to be Examples to others of Fidelity to those Oaths which we have taken of Allegiance to your Majesty, and Abjuration of the Pretender: As being sure to suffer first and most from Popery, if ever (which God forbid) it should prevail against us: And as having in your Majesty, as you have been graciously pleased both by Word and Deed to assure us, a most powerful and ready Protector and Favourer of our Established Church; And, by the Grace of God, we will act suitably to these Obligations; and both by doing our own Duty towards your Majesty, in the best Manner which we are able, and using our utmost Endeavours that all under our Care may do theirs likewise, make amends, as far as in us lies, for the scandalous Behaviour of others, who, while they glory in calling themselves Church of England Men, not only are guilty of Rebellion, but chief Leaders in it.

And as an Earnest of our sincere Resolution to do all this, we now offer up our most hearty and fervent Prayers to God, that he would be pleased to give your Majesty the Victory over all your Enemies; to make you
