By the KING,
A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
For a Publick T H A N K S G I V I N G.
G E O R G E R.

WE do most Devoutly and Thankfully Acknowledge the great Goodness and Mercy of Almighty God, who hath afforded Us His Protection and Assistance, and given Success to Our Councils and Arms, in Suppressing the late Unnatural Rebellion, raised within this Kingdom by Wicked and Desperate Men, with Design to Depose and Murder Us, and to Subvert the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of Our Kingdoms, and to Set on the Throne thereof a Popish Pretender, Bred up and Instructed in Romish Superstition and Arbitrary Principles; whereby We and Our Kingdoms are Delivered from the Miseries and Calamities that constantly ensue an Intestine War, and the Publick Peace and Tranquillity is Restored: And therefore duly considering, That such Great and Publick Blessings do call for Solemn and Publick Acknowledgments, We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Appointing and Commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be Observed throughout England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the Seventh Day of June next ensuing. And for the better and more Orderly Solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Arch-Bishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to Compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be Used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely Dispersion thereof, throughout their respective Dioceses. And We do strictly Charge and Command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be Religiously Observed by all Our Loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of Suffering such Punishment, as We may justly inflict upon all such who shall Contemn or Neglect the Performance of so Religious and Necessary a Duty.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Eighth Day of May, 1716. In the Second Year of Our Reign.
God save the KING.

And we do strictly Charge and Command, That the said Publick Thanksgiving be Reverently and Decently Observed by all Our Loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Seventh Day of June next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as Contemn or Neglect the Performance of so Religious a Duty. Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and we charge, that in Obedience, this Our Royal Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause Printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailies of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we Ordain to see the same Published; and we Appoint them to send Doubles thereof to the several Paroch-Churches within their Bound, That upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be Published and Read from the Pulpit immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Eighth Day of May, 1716. In the Second Year of Our Reign.

Perth, May 4. Lieutenant-General Cadogan arrived here Yesterday. On the Road he received a Letter from Captain Charleton, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Lively, giving an Account, that he had taken a French Ship called the Vendome, of 180 Tuns, 14 Guns, commanded by Captain Jacques Cresse, having on board 50 Chests of Arms, 15 Barrels of Powder, 2000 Weight of Biscuit, a Pipe of Brandy, and 15 Hampers of Wine, designed for the Rebels, and intrusted to the Care of one Lambard a Scotman, who when the Ship was taken was on Shore either on the Island of Skie, or that of Lewis. The Lieutenant-General has likewise received an Account from Colonel Cholmeley, that on his Arrival at Southwist, one Campbel, a Brigadier in the Pretender's Service, having got some People together, made a Shew of Resistance; But upon the Approach of our Grenadiers to attack them, they immediately immediately ran away, and were pursued by our Men, who took the said Campbel Prisoner, with several others: Campbel had his Commission of Brigadier in his Pocket, and is ordered to be sent with the rest to Fort-William. The next Day all the People in the said Island submitted and brought in their Arms, and Collonel Cholmeley was to sail from thence with his Detachment to the Lewis, where he was assured the People will also surrender at Discretion as soon as he comes. All the Rebels in the Isle of Skie being disarmed, and the Gentlemen and Heretors secured by Colonel Clayton, Directions are sent to him to return with his Detachment. To Morrow the Lieutenant-General sets out from hence for Edinburgh.

St. James's, May 10. On the 3d Instant the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chose for their Moderator Mr. William Hamilton Professor of Divinity there. His Majesty's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes was read, as was likewise His Majesty's most gracious Letter to the Assembly. His Majesty's High Commissioner made a Speech to the Assembly, which was answered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a Dutiful Answer to His Majesty's most gracious Letter, which being reported on the 4th, was unanimously approved; and having been transmitted by the High Commissioner to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, has been presented to His Majesty, and is as follows.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE accept with the greatest Thankfulness Your Majesty's Royal Favour in continuing to countenance our Assemblies, and the Honour of Your Gracious Letter to us.

The Notice Your Majesty is pleased to take of our Behaviour, upon Occasion of the late unhappy and unnatural Rebellion, as it greatly heightens our Satisfaction in having been enabled by the Divine Assistance to exert our selves any way answerably to our Duty to Your Majesty, so it puts us under new Obligations to lay out our selves as we have Access to advance the Interest of Your Majesty's Government, upon the Peace and Prosperity whereof, the Preservation of our Holy Religion, and our own Safety, under God, do entirely depend. And particularly we judge our selves most strictly bound to continue our Endeavours to impress the Minds of the People under our Charge, with a Sense of their Happiness under Your Majesty's wife and good Administration, and of the strictest Ties they are under by Laws Divine and Human, to all the Duties of Loyalty and Fidelity to Your Majesty, their only Rightful and Lawful Sovereign.

That Your Majesty should have in Your great Condescension put so high an Honour upon us, as to give us Thanks for doing what was our unquestionable Duty and Interest, is a Proof of that distinguishing Goodness which makes for bright a Part of Your Majesty's Princely Character.

We cannot sufficiently express the grateful Sense we have of Your Majesty's Goodness, in giving us repeated Assurances of Your unalterable Resolution to maintain the Established Government of our Church in the full Enjoyment of all just Rights and Privileges, which gives us full Hopes that in due Time we shall obtain Redress of the Grievances that we were brought under before Your Majesty came to the Throne, and which were laid before Your Majesty by a Memorial from the last Assembly.

Your Majesty's Choice of the Earl of Rothes to represent Your Royal Person in this Assembly, is a particular Instance of Your Majesty's Royal Favour to this Church. The extraordinary Zeal he hath shown upon all Occasions for the Protestant Succession, by the Part he acted both before Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, and in the Time of the late Rebellion, and his wise and kind Conduct in the last Assembly, render him most acceptable to us.

Your Majesty having nothing more in Your View, than the promoting of true Religion and Piety, and making all Your People happy under Your Administration, leaves us utterly unexcusable, should we not on our Part concur as we have Access for advancing those great and noble Ends, since we are in the great Goodness of God, by a very peculiar Providence, under the Influence of a Prince who is so great a Patron and Encourager of Piety and Vertue.

We should be wanting to the Duty we owe to God, and to the best of Kings, if we did not endeavour by our Department, to answer the just Expectations your Majesty is pleased to have of our Prudence and Moderation in this Assembly.

We adore the Blessed God, who in great Mercy to us, hath brought Your Majesty to the Throne, and appeared so Gloriously in behalf of Your just Cause, giving You Victory over Your unprovoked and ungrateful Enemies: And, to our Amazement, blessed Your Councils and Arms with such speedy Success, in restoring Peace and Tranquility, that the remotest Places and Islands are represented in this Assembly.

That the same God may long preserve Your Royal Person in Health and Safety; That he may enrich Your Majesty and Your Royal Family with all the Blessings of his Grace and Goodness here on Earth; and after a long and prosperous Reign, Crown Your with immortal Glory, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please Your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most Faithful, most Dutiful, most Obedient, and most humble Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name,
Edinb. May 5. and at our Appointment, by Sic
1716. Subscribitur William Hamilton,
Moderator.
