st. Famei's, May 10. On the 3d Inflant the Gene-ral Affembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edin-burgh, and chofe for their Moderator Mr. William Hamilton Profession of Divinity there. His Majefly's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes was read, as was likewise His Majefly's most contended by the state of the Majefly's most gracious Letter to the Affembly. His Majefly's High Committioner made a Speech to the Affembly, which was anfwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Was antiwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a Dutiful An-fwer to His Majefty's most gracious Letter, which being reported on the 4th, was unanimously approved; and having been transmitted by the High Commissi-oner to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, has been prefented to His Majesty, and it as follows: is as follows.

May it please Your Majesty,

YE accept with the greatest Thankfulness Your Majesty's Royal Favour in continuing to countenance out Astemblies, and the Honour of Your Gracious Letter to us.

The Notice Your Majelty is pleafed to take of our Behaviour, upon Occasion of the late unhappy and unnatural Rebellion, as it greatly heightens our Sa-tisfaction in having been enabled by the Divine Af-fiftance to exert our felves any way and werably to our Duty to Your Maj. fty, fo it puts us under new Obli-gations to lay out our felves as we have Accels to advance the Interest of Your Majesty's Government, up-on the Peace and Prosper ty whereof, the Preservation of our Holy Religion, and our own Satety, un-der God, do entirely depend. And particularly we judge our felves molt firictly bound to continue our Endeavours to impreis the Minds of the People under our Charge, with a Senfe of their Happinels under Your Majelty's wife and good Administration, and of the firstelt Ties they are under by Laws Divine and Human, to all the Duries of Loyalty and Fidelity to Your Majesty, their only Rightiul and Lawful Sovereign.

That Your Majesty should have in Your great Condescention put so high an Honour upon us, as to give us Thanks for doing what was our unquellionable Duty and Interest, is a Proof of that diffinguishing Goodness which makes so bright a Part of Your Majesty's Princely Character.

We cannot fufficiently express the grateful Sense we have of Your Majesty's Goodness, in giving us re-peated Assurances of Your unalterable Resolution to maintain the Established Government of our Church maintain the Eitablined Government of our Church in the full Enjoyment of all just Rights and Privi-leges, which gives us full Hopes that in due Time we shall obtain Redrefs of the Greivances that we were brought under before Your Majesty came to the Throge, and which were laid before Your Majesty by a Memorial from the last Assembly.

Your Majefty's Choice of the Earl of Rothes to represent Your Royal Person in this Assembly, is a parcicular Infrance of Your Majefly's Royal Favour to this Church. The extraordinary Zeal he hath flown up-on all Occifions for the Protestant Succession, by the Part he acted both before Your Majelty's happy Acce-fion to the Throne, and in the Time of the late Re-bellion, and his wife and kind Conduct in the latt Af-fembly, render him most acceptable to us.

Your Majefty having nothing more in Your View, than the promoting of true Religion and Piety, and making all Your People happy under Your Admini-stration, leaves us utterly unexcusable, should we not on our Part concur as we have Accels for advancing those great and noble Ends, fince we are in the great Goodnels of God, by a very peculiar Providence, under the Influence of a Prince who is to great a Pattern and Encourager of Piety and Vertue.

We should be wanting to the Duty we owe to God, and to the bift of Kings, if we did not endeavour by our Deportment, to answer the just Expectations your Majefty is pleased to have of our Prudence and Moderation in this Affembly.

ration in this Aliembly. We adore the Bleffed God, who in great Merey to-us, hath brought Your Majefty to the Throne, and appeared fo Glorioully in behalf of Your just Caufe, giving You Victory over Your unprovoked and un-grateful Enemies: And, to our Amazement, bleffed Your Councils and Arms with fuch fpeedy Succefs, in reftoring Peace and Tranquility, that the remoteft Places and Islands are repretented in this Affembly.

That the fame God may long preferve Your Royal Perfon in Health and Safety; That he may enrich Your Majefty and Your Royal Family with all the Bleffings of his Grace and Goodnefs here on Earth; and atter a long and prosperous Reign, Crown Your with immorral Glory, are the earneft Prayers of, May it pleate Your Majefty,

Your Majesty's most Faithful, most Dutiful, most Obedient, and most humble Subjects,

The Minifters and Elders met in this National Affembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Prefence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Sie Subferibitur William Hamiltons Edinb. May 5. 1716. Moderator.
