

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 15. to Saturday May 19. 1716.

ST. James's, May 18 The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty.

An humble Address of the Governour, Council, and General Assembly of the Island of Barbadoes. Presented to His Majesty by the Agents to the said Island, Introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Stanhope.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick, presented to His Majesty by William Colmore, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Esq; One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Address of the Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, &c. of the Associated Company of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham. Presented to His Majesty by----- Plumptre, and George Gregory, Esqs; Members of Parliament, introduc'd by His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham.

Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Lisbon, May 9 On the 2d Instant, at one a Clock in the Morning, the Queen of Portugal was brought to Bed of a Prince, who was presently Christened by the Name of Charles. Upon this Occasion we had Illuminations three Nights successively.

Vienna, May 9. On the 7th in the Morning the Emperour, attended by Prince Eugene of Savoy, and several other Ministers and Generals, took a Review of the three Regiments of Baden-Dourlach, young Lorraine, and Harrach; and afterwards saw two of the Vessels launched that are building here for the War in Hungary. In the Evening his Imperial Majesty went to Luxembourg-Castle, as is usual in this Season, and was followed yesterday by the Chanceries. He came back this Day, but will return thither to Morrow, and be here every Saturday and Sunday as long as the Empress is in Child-bed. Yesterday Count Herberstein, Marshal of the Court, was declared Captain of his Imperial Majesty's Horse-guard, in the Room of Count Ulfeld lately deceased.

Ratisbon, May 14. We have Letters from the Frontiers of Hungary, which say that General Loffelholz, Governour of Peterwaradin, had Orders from the Imperial Court, that if the Courier lately sent to Constantinople with the Emperour's last Offer of his Mediation, between the Port and the Venetians, should not come back to Peterwaradin by the 15th Instant at Midnight, he should then immediately dispatch an Express to Vienna, and the next Day send to Belgrade to declare War against the Port, as would afterwards be done at Vienna. He had also Orders to stop any Turkish Boats which should be sent up the River Save with Ammunition. But as these Directions were given before an Express from Sir Robert Sutton (the British Ambassadour at the Port) arrived at Vienna, 'tis likely they may have been changed, or at least delayed, on the Notice received by that Express of the Dispositions of the Turkish Court to accept the King of Great Britain's Mediation between them and the Venetians. On the 12th Instant Lieutenant-General Falkenstein, an Officer of Merit, and much esteemed by Prince Eugene, passed through this Place in his Way to Vienna, having particular Letters from the Prince to be there by the 16th Instant at furthest.

Dantzick, May 13, On the 10th Instant, the Czar, the King of Poland, the Lords and Ladies of both

Courts, and the foreign Ministers, were entertained some Hours on board the Russian Gallies; after which their Majesties parted; the Czar went and lay a League from hence, and the next Day proceeded on his Journey to Stetin: The Russian Troops and the Gallies are to continue here till further Order. Yesterday being the Birth-Day of the King of Poland, on which he entered the 46th Year of his Age, His Majesty received the Compliments of the Magistrates of this City, and of the foreign Ministers: There was a great Entertainment at Court, and afterwards a Ball. The Felt-Marshal Flemming, who was going to Berlin, being taken very ill on the Road, was brought back hither on the 10th.

Hamburgh, May 19. The Czar being arrived on the 16th Instant at Stetin, the King of Denmark will probably soon meet his Czarish Majesty, and 'tis now thought their Interview will be at Wismar.

Copenhagen, May 16. The Frigate called the White-Eagle arrived here on the 12th at Night, and has brought Advice, That the King of Sweden, notwithstanding all the Measures which the Danes had taken to surround his Troops, has found means to retire with his whole Army, without any Loss, by a Passage that was thought impracticable; and where, for that Reason, no Forces were placed. That King is now encamped at Fredericks-Hall, not far from the Frontiers of Sweden. The Squadron under the Command of Vice-Admiral Gabel, is expected to joyn Rear-Admiral Kaas, who continues at Elsinore. The Swedish Fleet was yesterday between Dornbusch and Meun. 'Tis supposed their principal Design is to prevent the Russian Fleet from joining the Danes.

Edinburgh, May 11. Lieutenant General Cadogan designs to set out to morrow for London. The Dutch Troops remaining in this Country, are all ordered to march back into England.

Whereas the Officers Widows who have Pretensions to the Royal Pension, have been, by His Majesty's Command, lately examin'd by the Lords Commissioners for Chelsea-Hospital, of whom several wanted proper Certificates of their Qualification, at the Time of their Examination, by reason of the Absence of the Officers of the Regiments their Husbands did belong to, or some other Accident, and were appointed to deliver them to the Secretary, which the following Persons have neglected, viz.

Regiments	Persons Names
Kirk's	Barbary Adams
Evans's	Martha Cheshire
Wynn's	Mary Jones
Stanwix's	Phebe Sandford
Ditto	Margaret Humphrys
Collinwood	Olive Romieu
Foot Guards	Mary Staggens
Pitts	Kath. Coate
Late Palms	Mary Payne
Gorges	Anne Dealtary
Montandre's	Eliz. Shore
Ditto	Sarah Lapointall
Will's	Abigail Storey
Butler's	Eliz. Lewis
Alexander's	Mary Sullivan
Wightman's	Jane H. lileigh
Nassaw's	Eliz. Archer
Wynn's	Susan Cottingham
Invalds	Kath. Richmand.

These are to give Notice, that if the above-mentioned Widows do not deliver their Certificates by the 15th of June next, they will be left out of the List.

*By Order from the Lords Commissioners.
Kingmill Eyre,*