Lisbon, May 31.

MR. Worleley, the British Envoy, had this Day an Audience of the King of Portugal, to congratulate his Majesty on the Birth of the young Prince. By a Letter from Faro of the 19th Instant we have an Account, that an English Ship of 30 Guns (supposed to be the Hind Man of War) has taken a Salée Rover (off Albofeira) of 4 Guns and 50 Men. Some Days ago the Fox and Bridgewater, British Ships of War, put into this Port, but failed again without loss of Time in quest of the Salée Men. The Prince Don Manuel is expected here very shortly from Paris.

Ratisbon, June 1. On the 24th past Count Stahrenberg set out from hence for Ausbourg, pursuant to Orders which he received that Morning from Vienna, to assist at the Congress of the States of the Circle of Swabia, who assembled there some Days before, and to press them to a favourable Resolution upon the Subject of furnishing Assistance against the Turks. This Proceeding makes it thought, that the Imperial Court look upon the War to be inevitable, though the Courier sent to Constantinople be not returned. 'Tis advised from Vienna the 27th of last Month, that Prince Eugene's Baggage was to be sent down the Danube the next Day; but 'twas not known when his Highness would set out for Hungary. Two Men of Distinction had been beheaded at Leopoldstadt for having corresponded with Berezeni, and others of the Malecontents that are in foreign Parts. On the 25th a Decree of the Imperial Commission was communicated to the Dyet here, ratifying the two Conclusions of the 28th of February, and 6th of April last; the first for the Levy of a Roman Month towards the Repairs of Fort Kehl and Philipshourg, to be paid here, according to the Order of the Colleges and Rank of Voting, without Exception; the other for making a perpetual Provision for those Fortresses. The Bishop of Spire still continues his Violences against that Town; and notwithstanding a Decree of the Imperial Aulick Council in their Favour, as well as the Intercessions of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, and of the Protestants in a Body, has neither withdrawn his Garrison, nor revoked a Placart in which he called it our Town (though it is a free independent State of the Empire,) but has put in new Soldiers instead of the Militia, employed Persons to oblige by Promises and Threats those who have given Depositions in behalf of the Town to revoke them, and has revived the Pretension of an old Debt which has been disputed these 66 Years, and is still depending in the Imperial Aulick Council. On this Occasion the Magistrates of Spire have again address'd themselves to the Emperour by a Memorial, a Copy of which has been communicated by their Agent to the Ministers here, with a Refutation of the false Allegations and unjust Inferences contained in a Letter which the Bishop wrote to his Imperial Majesty on the 24th of March, upon his first siezing the Town. The Protestants wrote to the Elector Palatine, on the 23d past, desiring that the Jesuite Usleber may be removed from his Office of Professor at Heydelberg and silenced, for the injurious Expressions which he has vented against the Protestant Religion in his publick Disputations.

Hambourg, June 5. On the 3d Instant in the Afternoon, the King of Denmark set out from Altena, in order to go to Copenhagen: At the same Time the Czar crossed the Elbe with all his Retinue, lay that Night at Harburgh, and continued Yesterday his Journey towards Pymont. Measures having been concerted and agreed between the King of Denmark and his Czarish Majesty, for the Operations of this Campaign, the Czar's Infantry which are to serve in the intended Descent on Schonen, are to be embarked at Rostock, and transported to Seeland, as soon as Vessels enough can be got together, which will not be long, since the King of Prussia has promised to furnish 16 or 20 Transport-Ships for this Expedition. In the mean Time the Russian Cavalry, which consist of 6 Regiments, making near 5000 Men, are to march through Mecklenbourg and Holstein in their Way to Denmark. The Czar, after passing some Days at Pymont in drinking the Waters, will go to Copenhagen; and 'tis believed, both the King of Denmark and his Czarish Majesty, will make a Tour into Schonen this Campaign. Letters from Dantzick of the 28th past advise, That the Russian Gallies had received Orders to sail from thence and nd pursue their Course; The Place they re designed for was not certainly known; ut as those Vessels are very proper to be sed in a Descent, 'tis not doubted they are o serve in the Enterprize on Schonen. The King of Poland had fixed the 29th for his eparture from Dantzick for Warsaw. We ave Letters from Stockholm of the 30th of pril, which relate, that on the 1st of that onth a Placart was publish'd there, wherey a Silver Coin called 15 Ore Picces, are advanced to 16 Ore, though they were before reckoned to go for 18 per Cent. above their intrinsick Value. That on the 22d, another Placart was published in all the Churches of Stockholm, by which the King commands, that a small Copper Coin, under the Name of Mint-Tokens, shall be current throughout his Dominions for half a Rixdollar: That the Arrears due to the Army and Fleet were begun to be paid in those Picces: That 'twas generally reported, that when all is paid out which is already minted of this Stamp, their Currency will be stop'd; when those Persons who shall have this Money in their Hands, will in Exchange for it have Obligations of the Chamber of Contributions issued to them payable in four Years. These Letters add, That the Beginning of last Year large Sums of ready Money were sent by the Burghers, and others of Stockholm, to the Chamber of Contributions, upon their Obligations to repay the same out of the Taxes arising this Spring; but instead of Money, all such as now demanded Payment of those Obligations, were compelled to take new ones payable 4 Years hence. On the 20th of April the Ammunition Laboratory which lies within half a Mile of Stockholm, was accidentally set on Fire, which in a few Minutes getting to a Cellar where lay about 18 or 20 Barrels of Powder, the whole Building, and what stood near it, blew up, but did little other Damage; and there were only 2 Men killed and 3 wounded by the Accident, though about 30 were at work when it first took Fire.

Whereas a Letter hath been lately counterfeited in the Name of George Huggins, Esq; the Mayor of Rochester, and sent to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; whosoever shall discover and secure the said Author and Counterfeiter of such Letter, so as that he may be brought to Justice, shall receive from the said Mayor of Rochester 10l. as a Reward for so doing.
