The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Saturday June 2. to Tuesday June 5. 1716.

Lisbon, May 31. R. Worfeley, the British Envoy, had this Day an Audience of the King of Portugal, to congratulate his Majesty on the Birth of the young Prince. By a Letter from Faro of the 19th Instant we have an Account, that an English Ship of 30 Guns (supposed to be the Hind Man of War) has taken a Salée Rover (off Albofeira) of 4 Guns and 50 Men. Some Days ago the Fox and Bridgewater, British Ships of War, put into this Port, but failed again without loss of Time in queft of the Salée Men. The Prince Don Manuel is expected here very fhortly from Paris.

Rasisbon, June 1. On the 24th paft Count Stahremberg fet out from hence for Ausbourg, purluant to Orders which he received that Morning from Vienna, to affift at the Con-gress of the States of the Circle of Swabia, who affembled there fome Days before, and to prefs them to a favourable Refolution upon the Subject of furnishing Affistance against the Turks. This Proceeding makes it thought, that the Imperial Court look upon the War to be inevitable, though the Courier sent to Constantinople be not returned. 'Tis advifed from Vienna the 27th of last Month, that Prince Eugene's Baggage was to be fent down the Danube the next Day; but 'twas not known when his Highness would fet out for Hungary. Two Men of Diftinction had been beheaded at Leopolstadt for baving corresponded with Berezeni, and others of the Malecontents that are in foreign Parts. On the 25th a Decree of the Imperial Commission was communicated to the Dyet here, ratifying the two Conclusions of the 28th of February, and 6th of April last; the first for the Levy of a Roman Month towards the Re-pairs of Fort Kehl and Philipshourg, to be paid here, according to the Order of the Colleges and Rank of Voting, without Exception; the other for making a perpetual Provision for those Fortresse. The Bishop of Spire fill continues his Violences against that Town; and notwithstanding a Decree of the Imperial Aulick Council in their Favour, as well as the Interceffions of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, and of the Protestants in a Body, has neither withdrawn his Garrison, nor revoked a Placart in which he called it our Town (though it is a free independent State of the Empire,) but has put in new Soldiers instead of the Militia, employed Perfons to oblige by Promifes and Threats those who have given Depositions in behalf of the Town to revoke them, and has revived the Pretention of an old Debt which has been difputed thefe 66 Years, and is fill depending in the Imperial Aulick Council. On this Occafion the Magistrates of Spire have again address'd themselves to the Emperour by a Memorial, a Copy of which has been communicated by their Agent to the Ministers here, with a Refutation of the falle Allegations and unjust Inferences contained in a Letter which the Bilhop wrote to his Imperial Majefty on the 24th of March, upon his first fiezing the Town. The Protestants wrote to the Elec-tor Palatine, on the 23d past, defiring that the Jesuite Usleber may be removed from his Office of Professor at Heydelberg and filenced, for the injurious Expressions which he has vented against the Protestant Religion in his publick Disputations.

Hambourg, June 5. On the 3d Instant in the Afternoon, the King of Denmark fet out from Altena, in order to go to Copenhagen : At the fame Time the Czar croffed the Elbe with all his Retinue, lay that Night at Harburgh, and continued Yefterday his Journey towards Pyrmont. Measures having been concerted and agreed between the King of Denmark and his Czarish Majesty, for the Operations of this Campaign, the Czar's Infantry which are to ferve in the intended Defcent on Schonen, are to be imbarked at Rostock, and transported to Seeland, affoon as Veffels enough can be got together, which will not be long, fince the King of Pruffia has promifed to furnifh 16 or 20 Transport Ships for this Expedition. In the mean Time the Ruffian Cavalry, which confist of 6 Regiments, making near 5000 Men, are to march through Mecklenbourg and Holftein in stheir Way to Denmark. The Czar, after paffing fome Days at Pyrmont in drinking the Waters, will go to Copenhagen; and 'tis believed, both the King of Denmark and his Czarifh Majesty, will make a Tour into Schonen this Campaign. Letters from Dantzick of the 28th past advise, That the Ruffian Gallies had received Orders to fail from thence and