

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16. to Tuesday June 19. 17 61.

ST. James's, June 18. The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty.

An humble and congratulatory Address of the Chancery, (in the Absence of the Bishop) and the Clergy of the Diocess of Carlisle, at the General Chapter of Visitation. Presented to His Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Carlisle.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Burgeses, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor. Presented to His Majesty by Sir Henry Ashurst, Baronet, and Samuel Travers, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by six of the Aldermen of the said Borough, introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord-Lieutenant of Berkshire, and by his Grace the Duke of Kent, Constable of the Castle of Windsor.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Borough of Bridgewater, in the County of Somerset, in Common-Council assembled. Presented to His Majesty by George Dodington, Esq; His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Address of the Provost, Bailies, Dean of Guild, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dundee. Presented to His Majesty by Patrick Halden, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Esq; One of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Lublin, June 8.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Addresse of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, do, with all due Thankfulness to God, most heartily Congratulate your Majesty upon that glorious Success with which your Councils and Arms have been of late so signally blessed.

The Assurance we have that by this Means an End is put to that most wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which in some Parts of Great Britain disturbed the Quiet of your Majesty's Reign, fills us with unspeakable Joy, and encourages us to believe, that the Peace and Quiet which we of this Kingdom have had, and hope long to enjoy, under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, will be happily secured to us.

And as we are perswaded that the firm unshaken Loyalty of your Protestant Subjects in this Kingdom (whose steady Zeal for your Royal Person and Family constantly appeared) was, through God's Blessing, an effectual Means of preventing all those Attempts of disturbing our publick Peace that might be feared from the great Numbers of Papists that live among us; so we faithfully promise for our selves, to give the utmost Discouragement and Opposition for the future to the wicked Designs of those that shall shew any Disaffection toward your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, or to the Succession in your Royal House, and are fully convinced the same will be done by the rest of your Majesty's Protestant Subjects of this Kingdom.

We shall never be wanting in our earnest Supplications to Almighty God, that his wonderful Providence which conducted your Majesty peaceably to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, and has hitherto preserved you on it, may still watch over you for God May those amiable Virtues in your Majesty which adorn your Crown, attract the Hearts of all your Subjects, and peacefully engage them unanimously to join their best Endeavours in promoting (what we are sure your Majesty will esteem the glory of your Reign) the firm Establishment of Peace and Happiness, Truth and Justice, Religion and Piety: That so after a long and happy Reign over us, you may be able to transmit to your Royal Heirs, together with your own Virtues, this peaceable Government of a truly good and loyal People.

On the 4th Instant the House of Commons, with their Speaker, attended their Excellencies the Lords Justices with the following Address.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, with Hearts full of the sincerest Joy and Satisfaction, beg Leave to Congratulate your most sacred Majesty on the happy Success wherewith it has pleased Almighty God to crown your Councils and Arms in extinguishing the late horrid and unnatural Rebellion, ris'd and carry'd on in Great Britain by Papists and perjured Traytors, to deprive us of the incalculable Blessings of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, and place on the Throne of these Kingdoms a tender bred up in Romish Superstition and Arbitrary Principles.

So wicked an Intreprize, aggravated by the blackest Crimes of Perjury and Ingratitude could never prosper, but has contributed to your Majesty's Glory, by rendering your Justice and unparalleled Mercy equally conspicuous.

Amazed at the Steadiness and Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Pretender sought his Safety by flight, wanting Courage to stand the Shock of your victorious Arms: With what Hopes then of Success can his wicked Adherents flatter themselves against a Prince, who by a most wise, just and merciful Administration, has not only gained the Hearts and Affections of his People; but amidst the Difficulties of an intestine Rebellion, preserv'd a Name so powerful Abroad, as to be courted by the greatest Princes for his friendship, and have his Mediation sought by the remotest States?

Your loyal Commons are, in a more particular Manner, obliged to offer their unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, to whom (under God) we owe the Peace and entire Tranquility wherewith this your Kingdom hath been blessed.

And we humbly assure your Majesty, that as your faithful Commons were, with the greatest Cheartulness and Unanimity, determin'd to hazard their Lives in Defence of your undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms: And (notwithstanding the Poverty of this Kingdom) entrusted your wife and excellent Government with an unprecedented and unlimited Vote of Credit; so it shall be always our Ambition, as it is our Duty and Interest, to approve our selves the most loyal Subjects to the best of Princes.

Their Excellencies were pleased to return the Answer following.

Mr. Speaker,

WE shall take Care to have this Address laid before His Majesty by the first Opportunity, wherein His Loyal Commons continue to express the same Zeal and Affection for His Majesty's Person and Government, which has so eminently appeared on several Occasions.

To