St. James's, August 24.

AN humble Address to His Majesty from the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen, met at the Assizes held at Bodmyn for the County of Cornwall, the 31st of July, 1716, has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Radnor, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

An humble Address to His Majesty from the Province of Massachusetts Bay in New-England, presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales by Jeremiah Dummer, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable Paul Methuen, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

Venice, Aug. 14. By Letters from Corfu of the 27th of July we learn, that 30000 Turks were landed on that Island, where they ravage the open Country, and destroy the Olive-Trees: That they had begun to raise Batteries against the Town of Corfu; and that they are supplied with Ammunition and Provisions from Bucintoro, where the Turks have built Store-houses and Ovens. 'Tis believed the Town of Corfu can make but little Defence, but the two Fortresses may hold out a long Time. Our Senate is well satisfied with General Schulenburg's Conduct: He has about 7000 Men in Corfu, of which 2500 are Militia; but several Transports from hence having on board 2000 Men, were seen on the 3d Instant sailing with a fair Wind to Corfu.

Vienna, Aug. 19. Our Advices from the Imperial Army tell us, among other Particulars, that in the Battle on the 5th Instant, the Janisaries finding themselves very much galled by the Artillery of the Imperialists, fell with great Fury on one of the Wings of our Infantry, and made them give Ground twice; which obliged Prince Eugene, for encouraging his Soldiers, to charge the Janisaries in Person at the Head of a Troop of Dragoons: That all his Adjutants lost him in the Heat of the Action, and did not find him till he was in the Vizier's Tent: And that Prince Emanuel of Portugal distinguished himself very eminently on this great Occasion. Our Army, which lay in the Turkish Camp the Night after the Action, returned on the 6th to their Camp at Futack, on the Left of the Danube, where they had left all their Baggage. On the 9th, Field-Marshal Count Palfi was ordered with a Detachment of Cavalry, and Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg with some Battalions to march to invest Temiswarer. Prince Eugene is to follow with the whole Army, and will command that Siege in Person, hoping to reduce the Place within 4 Weeks at furthest. This Siege could not have been undertaken this Year for want of Carriage for the necessary Stores and Provisions, had not so great a Number of Buffaloes and Camels been taken from the Turks. The Marquis de Pr e is created a Grandee of Spain, and sets out from hence on the 22d for the Austrian Netherlands. We have confirmed Accounts from divers Places, of the Death of the Grand Vizier; and the Particulars they agree in are, that seeing his Men broken and beginning to betake themselves to Flight, he charged desperately where the Battle was hottest, and received two Wounds, the last of which being a Shot through the Head laid him dead on the Ground; his Body being carried off in a Waggon to Belgrade, was buried there. The Aga of the Janisaries was likewise killed, with the greatest Part of the Janisaries.

Copenhagen, Aug. 25. On the 16th Instant Sir John Norris, with the Squadron of British Men of War under his Command, and the Dutch Squadron commanded by M. Grave, with the Merchant-Ships under their Convoys, sailed from hence to the Bay of Kiog; whither they were followed on the 18th by the Danish and Russian Men of War, under the Command of the Czar, with a Number of Transports. On the 20th the whole Fleet proceeded towards the Island of Bornholm, whence Sir John Norris designed to detach 5 British Men of War, which, with the Dutch Squadron, are to convoy the Merchant-Ships to the several Ports whither they are bound. Yesterday came in a small Galliot with Advice, that the Fleet was arrived at Bornholm, and that on their Approach the Swedish Fleet retired, part to Carlscrona and the rest to Carlshaven: So that the Merchant-Ships may now pursue their respective Voyages with all Safety. On the 20th a Danish Man of War sailed from hence for Norway, having on board Colonel Messing with a good Sum of Money for paying our Troops tinue on the Frontiers of Norway: And the Danish Flotilla, consisting of 2 Men of War, 2 Prahmes, and some Frigates, continues in the Swinfund for the Security of the Coast. The Cavalry designed to be employed in the Descent on Schonen are coming hither, and 9 Regiments of them are already come into the Camp near this City: Within these few Days a great Number of small Vessels have arrived, laden with Hay twisted and other Provender for the said Cavalry, from the Isles of Laland, Langland, and Meun: And we expect very speedily the Russian Troops which are to be transported hither from Pomerania and Mecklenbourg, now that they can come without Danger. Tho' a sufficient Number of Transport-Vessels for the intended Descent, and of Gallies that can go very near to the Shore, is already provided here; yet two new Vessels are building in our Arsenal, one of which being of extraordinary Length and flat bottomed, is to carry to Land 4 Companies of Soldiers at once, and will draw but 3 Foot Water; the other is of the same Form with those used in the Descent on Rugen. They will both be ready within 3 Weeks. 'Tis expected the Czar will return hither, as soon as he hears that his Troops from Mecklenbourg are brought hither: But the Transports which were ordered from hence to fetch Part of them, are not yet gone from the Bay of Kiog, the Wind being contrary.

Berlin, Aug. 25. The Prussian Court are still at Wusterhausen, where the King diverts himself every Day with shooting. The Danish Envoy, Major-General Meyer, being return'd from Stettin, has obtain'd Orders for the Dispatch of the Transports from thence, which had been delayed upon some little Difficulties: He supposes they may have sailed by this Time for Mecklenbourg, to take part of the Russian Troops on Board, the other Transports being expected under Vice-Admiral Gabel from Copenhagen.

Brussels, August 31. Yesterday being the Day appointed to return God Thanks for the signal Victory gain'd by the Imperialists over the Turks, Te Deum was solemnly sung in the Cathedral of this City. His Excellency Count Kinigslegg, representing the Governour-General, assisted at this Ceremony, with all the Councils and Colleges, and the Chief Nobility, in great Pomp and Splendor; the Office being perform'd by the Arch-Bishop of Mechlin, under a triple Salvo of the Artillery and Small Arms of the Garrison: After which the Imperial Minister gave a handsome Entertainment at his own House, to a great Number of Ladies and Gentlemen of Quality. The Salvo's of the Artillery and Small Arms were repeated in the Evening, and the Populace entertained with the Diversion of Shooting for a Prize, with Rockets at a Bird, fixed on a high Pole in the Market-Place before the Town-House; and the Rejoicings ended with Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

in, five is orning, a wise, that the Spanish Council there, at the Instigation of some Persons of these Countries, endeavoured to prevail with his Imperial Majesty to appoint a Royal Council here, as in the Time of Count Bergheyck's Administration, instead of a Privy-Council and Council of State: But the Determination of this Point is deferr'd till the Arrival of Monsieur Thilquen, who having received the 500 Pistoles allowed him for his Journey, set out with one of his Sons two Days ago for Vienna, with a Design to meet the Marquis de Prié at Cologne, in order to confer with him on that Subject, and some other Matters relating to the Government of these Provinces.

Admiralty-Office, August 20, 1716.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having receiv'd a Letter signed A. B. giving an Account of some corrupt Practices in the Navy, their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if the Person who wrote the said Letter, will come to their Office, and make further Discovery of what he knows, they will give him due Encouragement and Protection.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs having received a Letter by the Penny-Post, mark'd J. W. proposing the Discovery of a Fraud committed in that Revenue, do hereby give Notice, that if the Person who wrote that Letter will attend the said Commissioners and do what he proposes, he shall have all fit Encouragements:
