

- Nigel Graham FENWICK, lately Chief Fire Officer, Swaziland.
- Arlene, Mrs. FULLERTON. For welfare services to the local community, most recently in Morocco and Kuwait.
- Joyce Barbara Harries, Mrs. GARDNER. For services to nursing in Zambia.
- Robert Duncan GIBSON, lately OXFAM Country Representative, Rwanda.
- Simon Che-leung HO, Assistant Director of Education, Hong Kong.
- Professor Ivor John HODGKISS, J.P. For voluntary conservation and environmental service to the community in Hong Kong.
- Robert HOGARTH, M.V.O., Second Secretary, Foreign and Commonwealth Office.
- Christopher Barry HOWE. For services to university education in Hong Kong.
- John KIRKPATRICK. For voluntary service to the British community in Libya.
- KWAN Shu-tsun, Assistant Director of Education, Hong Kong.
- Elim, Mrs. PONG LAU, J.P., Headmistress, Diocesan Girls' School, Hong Kong.
- Dr. Michael LAU Wai-mai. For services to heritage conservation in Hong Kong.
- Louise, Mrs. LAW. For services at Government House, Hong Kong.
- Christopher LEE Ka-keung, J.P., Deputy Director of Immigration, Hong Kong.
- Mrs. WONG LEE Heung-lin, Senior Personal Secretary, Hong Kong Government.
- Miss Miranda LEE Yim-hung, Principal Chinese Language Officer, Hong Kong Government.
- LEE Nam-sang, J.P., Government Chemist, Hong Kong.
- Miss Carol LETHARDY, Second Secretary, Foreign and Commonwealth Office.
- LEUNG Chi-kin, Assistant Principal Immigration Officer, Hong Kong.
- George Arthur LILLEY, lately Project Liaison Officer, British High Commission, Canberra.
- Willy LIN Sun-mo. For services to industrial development in Hong Kong.
- Edward David Gerard LLEWELLYN, Personal Adviser to H.M. Governor, Hong Kong.
- LOK Cham-choi Anthony. For voluntary service as Deputy Commissioner, Auxiliary Medical Services, Hong Kong.
- Hugh Randle MALCOLM, Chief Medical Officer, Turks and Caicos Islands.
- John WYNELL-MAYOW, Assistant Political Adviser, Hong Kong.
- Miss Lindsey Anne McALISTER, Director, Hong Kong Youth Arts Festival.
- Miss Sheila Boyd McLEAN, Personal Assistant, H.M. Consul-General, Washington.
- John Ismay METCALFE, lately Administrator, European Community Liaison Unit, Gibraltar.
- Mark Scott Thomas MORGAN, First Secretary, British High Commission, Valletta.
- George Walter Thomas MOULSON, locally-engaged Driver, H.M. Embassy, Paris.
- Anthony Joseph MULLINS, Q.P.M., C.P.M., Senior Assistant Commissioner, Royal Hong Kong Police Force.
- NG Kwok-chuen. For services to the Post Office, Hong Kong.
- Randolph O'HARA, Senior Assistant Director, Municipal Services, Hong Kong.
- Alan Frank PARFITT, Second Secretary, U.K. Delegation to the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe, Vienna.
- Miss Janice PATTEN, Personal Assistant to the Political Adviser, Hong Kong.
- Nicholas William ROSEVEARE, lately OXFAM Country Representative, Mozambique.
- Christine Marie, Mrs. RUHSTORFER, locally-engaged British Vice-Consul, Munich.
- Clare, Mrs. SAKORNPANT, locally-engaged Entry Clearance Officer, H.M. Embassy, Bangkok.
- Kim Anthony SALKELD, Deputy Private Secretary to the Governor, Hong Kong.
- The Reverend William SCOTT. For services to the commemoration of the War Dead in France.
- John Michael SHANNON, Deputy Political Adviser, Hong Kong.
- Miss Anne Elizabeth SHEPHERD, Principal Assistant Secretary, Treasury, Hong Kong.
- SIN King-kui. For services to the translation of Hong Kong laws into the Chinese language.
- Sheila, Mrs. SKIADOPOULOU. For services to horse-riding for the handicapped in Greece.
- Gerald Robert SLATER. For voluntary service to the British community in Libya.
- Victor SO Hing-woh, J.P. For services to housing and the community in Hong Kong.
- John Benedict STILLWELL. For services to British interests in Portugal.
- Brenda Margaret, Mrs. TARGETT, Chairman, Association of British Women in Malaysia.
- Joseph Louis TAVARES. For public and voluntary welfare service in Gibraltar.
- Miss Elspeth Ann COLLINS-TAYLOR. For services at Government House and Fanling Lodge, Hong Kong.
- TONG Kin-wah, J.P., Government Electrical and Mechanical Engineer, Hong Kong.
- TSE Kwok Fu, B.E.M., Deputy Regional Commander, Civil Aid Services, Hong Kong.
- Stephen Dennis WILKINSON. For services to English language teaching and to welfare in Madagascar.
- Miss Fay Vera WOLLAND, locally-engaged Accountant, British High Commission, Wellington.
- Allan WONG Chi-yun, J.P. For services to the technological and business development of Hong Kong.
- WONG Chung-kee, Superintendent of Posts, Hong Kong.
- Joseph WONG Tai-nang, Senior Principal Executive Officer, Hong Kong Government.
- Justein WONG Chun, J.P. For voluntary services in the fight against crime in Hong Kong.
- WONG On-yuen. For services to music and the arts in Hong Kong.
- Ronny WONG Fook-hum, Q.C., J.P. For voluntary community and public service in Hong Kong.
- Alice, Mrs. WONG WU Cheuk-lai, Supervisor, Government Secretariat Typing Services, Hong Kong.
- Elizabeth, Mrs. WONG YEUNG Po-wo. For services to the development of physiotherapy in Hong Kong.
- John AU YEUNG Pak-keung, Chief Executive Officer, Hong Kong.