St. James's, November 19. HIS Royal Highnels hath been pleafed to appoint John Goodall of Fowy, Efq; Sheriff of Cornwal. Richard Alport of Malpas, Efq; Sheriff of Che-Inire.

Venice, Nov. 14. On the 10th Instant the Great Countel met, and chofe Sig. Vicenzo Gradinigo Procurator of St. Mark, on his advancing the usual Sum of 25000 Crowns to be employ. ed in the War against the Turks. A Con-voy, with Stores of Provisions, is getting rea-dy to be fent speedily to Corfu. By a Ship from Spalato we learn, that Sig. Angelo Emo, Provedstore of Dalmatia, is at Cattaro; and that our Morlacks make frequent Incursions into the Country belonging to the Turks, and bring off great Booty. This Week arrived an English Ship from the Levant, by which we have an Account that the Fleet of Men of War of this Republick is in the Archipelago, and the Gallies at St. Mauro. Letters from Rome, of the 7th Inftant relate, that the Spanish Bishop of Oviedo, who has been some Time a Prilo-ser in the Caffle of St. Angelo, having upon Examination professed the Opinions of Molinos the Quietist, and persisting obstinately therein, is condemned to forfeit all his Estate and Effects, and to be imprisoned during his Life in the Gaol of the Inquisition. The Prince of Roffano had relolved to saile a Regiment at his own Expence, to give the Command of it to his Eldeft Son, and to fend him with it into the Emperour's Service. By this means he proposes to obtain his Imperial Majesty's Favour, and to be restored to his Estates of Sulmons and Rostano in the King-dom of Naples. Two of the youngest Sons Two of the youngest Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, are shortly expected at Rome, in order to be educated like Eccleliafticks, the better to qualify them for Preferments and Dignities in the Church ; one of them is already Bishop of Ratisbone. The Abbot Scarlati, Agent of the Houle of Bavaria, had given Direction for the Palace to be fitted up for them, which their Brother the Electoral Prince lived in during his Stay at Rome,

Vienna, Nov. 14. Orders have been fent from this Court to the Regency at Milan, to fupply with Money, and give Palsports to all the Spanifh Officers there, who are willing to come and ferve in Hungary, and to affure them that they fhall be provided for fuitably to their former Services and Stations. Prince Eugene of Savoy "arriving ar Razb in his Way hither from Temelwaer, was complimented there, in the Pope's Namey by the Abbot Rafponi, who delivered to him, with the Ceremony ufed on fuch an Occafion, the Prefents fent him by the Pope. On the 11th his Highnefs arrived here, was received with the greateft Marks of Favour by His Imperial Majefty, and has fince been complimented by all Perfors of Diffinction at this Court, on his Return from to glorious a Cam-paign. Councils of War have been held paign. with him, as well at the Imperial Palace, as at his Highnels's own Houle, in order to the taking effectual Measures for opening the Campaign early the next Spring, by fome Enterprize of Importance : In the mean Time the new Levies' already begun in this City and Neighbourhood, for recruiting the Im-perial Troops, are carried on with extraor-dinary Success; and Stores of Provisions and Ammunition are providing with the utmost Diligence, that nothing may be wanting when the Scalon comes for Action. The Princels of Wallachia, Widow of Stephen Cantacuzeno, who was put to Death at Conftantinople, is arrived here with her two Sons, Rudolphus and Conftantine. The Prince Don Emanuel of Portugal, who in his Return from Temeswaer stopt to view the Towns of Pres-bourg and Buda, is daily expected here. The Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz is preparing to fet out for Ratisbone, there to relide in the Quality of his Imperial Majefty's first Commissioner with the Dyet.

Berlin, Nov. 21. On the 16th Inflant the King of Pruffia arrived here from Wusterhaufen ; on the 18th his Majefty received Advice, that the Czar will not arrive at Havel-berg till ro Morrow, and has therefore put off his Journey thither to the fame Time. But two of his Majefty's Ministers, Count Denhof and M. Printz, were gone before this News came. M. Kniphaulen, who is come from Copenhagen to give the King an Ac-count of what lately paffed there, and Major-General Meyer, the Danish Envoy, who is also newly come from Copenhagen, are to follow his Majesty to Havelberg, as are also the Russian and Polish Envoys. On the 17th arrived here M. Schunck, who negociated the Marriage between the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg and the Princels of Schwedt: This Evening that Prince arrived here, and was received with a triple Discharge of the Cannon on the Walls. Letters from Warlaw of the 13th Inftant fays the Treaty of Accomodation had at last been fully agreed and fign-ed on the 8th, and fent to the Marshale of the Confederacy by the Staroits of Belsk and Wlodomirs, who though they were returned without the Ratification in Form, had given Affurances that it would certainly follow in two or three Days; and the General Marshal Leduchowski himself was expected at Warlaw by the 17th. As the Confederates infilted on the intire Evacuation of the Saxon and Mulcovite; Troops, the King's Plenipotentiaries engaged for the first, and to use effectual Endeavours' with the others, who were advanced under General Ronne as far as Dubno, as General

Bauer was on the other fide to Mezeritz. Copenhagen, Nov. 21. Three Battallions of the Troops of Jutland, the Regiment of Fuhnen, Fuhnen, that of Laland, and the Battallion of Norwegians, are appointed to be forthwith tranfported to Norway; as is a lio the Regiment of Horse of Lectzau, but their Horses are to be left behind here, and they are to be provided in that Country with Horses more fit for the Service there. Major-General Mesting is to have the Command of this Reinforcement, which will amount to between 4 and 5000 Men; and the Transports which carry them are to have for their Convoy two Men of War commanded by Commadore Tordenshild. The faid Regiments are new cloathed, and a confiderable Quantity of Powder, with 1000 Saddles, and feveral Thousand Mulquets, Carbines and Piftqls, will be fent with them. Orders are fent for putting ftrong Garrilons into Frederickshall and Frederickstadt, it being expected the Swedes will make fome Artempt on that Side this Winter, unless they are prevented by great Rains, or deep Snows. For the Security of the Commerce between this City and Lubeck, three Men of War are appointed to cruife near Meun, under the Command of Commadore Shindel. 95 Ships newly arrived from Petersbourg, with Stores of all Kinds for the Czar's Service, are, by his Order, unlading, and their Cargoes are to be laid up in the Magazines which his Czarish Majesty has caused to be creeted here. On the 15th Inftant Sir John Norris, with the British Trade under his Convoy, failed from hence with a very fair Wind. Admiralty-Office, Nov. 19. By Letters from Rear-Admiral Corawall, dated at Gibraltar the 20th of last Month, we have Advice, That our Cruizers had met
