ELECTRICITY NOTICES

TEESIDE POWER LIMITED

Notice of Extension of a Consent by 90mw to the Construction and Operation of the Wilton Combined Heat & Power Combined Cycle Gas Turbine Generating Station, at Greystone Road, Grange town, Middlesbrough.

Notice is hereby given that Teesside Power Limited (T.P.L.) have applied to the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry under section 36 of the Electricity Act 1989 ("The Act") and for a direction under section 90(2) of the Town and County Planning Act 1990, that planning permission for the development be deemed to be granted for "The Development of a Startup Facility" to the existing consent to construct and operate a 1875mw Combined Cycle Gas Turbine Generating Station based at Wilton, which was issued by the Secretary of State for Energy on 5th November 1990.

The new extension would give the Power Station the ability to re-energise the electricity supplies to the North East in the event of a major breakdown of the Transmission system.

A copy of the application with a plan showing the land to which it relates, together with a copy of the Environmental Statement Update discussing the Company's alterations to the existing consent in more detail and presenting an analysis of the environmental implications, are available for inspection during normal office hours at the following address: Redcar and Cleveland Council, Fabian Road, Cleveland TS6 9AR. Tel: 01642 444000.

In addition, copies of the Environmental Statement Update may be obtained at a cost of £25 from the office at Redcar and Cleveland Council at the above address, while stocks last.

Any objections should be made in writing to the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry, 1 Victoria Street, London SW1 0ET, stating the name of the Station and the grounds of the objection not later than 3rd November 1997.

29th September 1997. (498)

Notice under section 11(2) of The Electricity Act 1989

The Director General of Electricity Supply ("the Director") hereby gives notice pursuant to section 11(2) of the Electricity Act 1989 ("the Act") as follows.

1. He proposes to modify the conditions of the licences granted under section 6(2) of the Act and held by Accord Energy Ltd., Allied Domecq plc, British Gas plc, British Gas Trading Ltd., Candecca Resources Ltd., Citigen Ltd., East Midlands Electricity plc, Eastern Electricity plc, Electricity Supplies Northern plc, Energy Supply Contracts Ltd., Enron Direct Ltd., Enron Gas & Petrochemicals Trading Ltd., Fellside Heat & Power Ltd., Hydro-Electric Energy Ltd., Impkemix Energy Ltd., Independent Energy UK Ltd., London Electricity plc, Magnox Electric plc, Manweb plc, Melrose Oil UK Ltd., Midlands Electricity plc, National Power plc, Norsk Hydro (UK) Ltd., Northern Electric plc, Norweb plc, Nuclear Electric Ltd., PowerGen plc, Renewable Energy Company Ltd., Scottish Hydro-Electric plc, Scottish Power plc, Seaboard plc, Shell Power Ltd., Slough Energy Supplies Ltd., South Wales Electricity plc, South Western Electricity plc, Southern Electric plc, UK Electric Power Ltd., Unilever UK Central Resources Ltd and Yorkshire Electricity Group plc (the "licensees").
2. He proposes to modify the conditions of these licences in order to promote (from 1998) competition in electricity supply to all customers, and to provide further protection for customers in respect of the terms and quality of such supply.
3. In summary, the Director proposes to modify the conditions of these licences by amending existing conditions and introducing new conditions to the following effect:

(a) To provide that the licensees may supply electricity to premises with a maximum demand of under 100kW in such areas and from such dates as the Director may direct; to provide that the Director may vary or withdraw his directions; and to specify the grounds on which those directions may distinguish between licensees.

(b) To prohibit each licensee, in any market in which it is dominant, from supplying electricity on predatory, discriminatory or unduly onerous terms; to provide that the Director may determine whether such prohibition applies; to require that advance notice of new terms of supply is given to the Director; and to permit such obligations to be disappplied in certain circumstances.

(c) To oblige licensees, in certain circumstances, to offer terms for connection to distribution systems which they own or operate.

(d) To require licensees, before commencing to supply customers, to procure that such customers enter into standard connection agreements with their local public electricity supplier.

(e) To require licensees who own electricity meters at premises to offer terms for the use of such meters.

(f) To require licensees to inform customers of a service for use (by any person) to report and receive advice on matters which are dangerous or require attention in relation to the supply or distribution of electricity.

(g) To require licensees to take steps to detect and prevent the theft of electricity, damage to electrical apparatus and interference with electricity meters.

(h) To prohibit licensees from entering into agreements for the provision of meters which restrict, distort or prevent competition in the supply of electricity.

(i) To provide that the fees to be paid by licensees to the Director be a proportion of the total costs of the Director.

(j) In respect of those licensees who have, unlimited by time, licence powers for the compulsory purchase of land or for carrying out streetworks, to limit such powers to a specified date or to such later date as the Director may direct.

(k) To require licensees, when directed by the Director, to contact and offer to supply customers of suppliers whose licences have been revoked.

(l) To provide for all licensees to enter into an agreement (between themselves and with other parties) concerning the systems, processes and procedures necessary to facilitate competition in electricity supply, the content of such agreement, where the parties cannot agree, to be determined by the Director.

(m) To require licensees to enter into a common agreement providing for the use of the registration services of public electricity suppliers, making provisions for changes of electricity supplier at premises, and specifying the forms in which transfers of relevant data are to take place.

(n) To require licensees to give to customers information to facilitate changes of supplier.

(o) To provide that the conditions referred to at paragraphs (p) to (x) below shall not be effective where a licensee does not supply domestic and small business premises and has not notified the Director of its intention to do so.

(p) To prohibit each licensee, before a specified date prior to the opening of an area to competition in electricity supply, from providing in any contract to supply relevant domestic or small business premises that there may be a fee payable by the customer for the termination of that contract.

(q) To require licensees, subject to certain exemptions, to offer to supply domestic and small business customers with electricity and, where such offer is agreed, to give a supply.

(r) To provide that licensees produce and comply with codes of practice as to: payment of bills and procedures for dealing with customers in difficulty; provision of services to persons who are of pensionable age, disabled or chronically sick; procedures with respect to site access; promotion of the efficient use of electricity; and procedures for complaint handling; and to provide that licensees shall consult on and from time to time revise such codes.

(s) To require that each licensee submit to the Director and to consumers' committees, and that it publish annually, information in respect of its performance in relation to the provision of electricity supply.

(t) To require licensees to give customers information in respect of electricity consumption and complaint handling.

(u) To require licensees, on request, to meet with certain consumers' committees.

(v) To make provisions in respect of contracts for the supply of electricity to domestic and small business premises, including provisions that such contracts be published in standard forms, provide a range of payment options, be limited as to any security deposit or termination fee which they may require, and provide that they may be terminated by the customer on notice or on the occurrence of certain specified events; and to require licensees to inform customers of the expiry or variation of such contracts, and to publish the principal terms of such contracts.

(w) To provide in certain cases for the assignment of customer debt between suppliers on a change of supplier.

(x) To require licensees, to pay their customers sums received from public electricity suppliers in respect of failures to meet standards of performance in relation to the distribution of electricity.

(y) To make provision for the conditions referred to at paragraphs (v) to (x) above to be amended by the Director with the consent of a weighted majority of suppliers, and to provide for certain of those conditions to be disapplied by the Director.

(z) To introduce new definitions consequent upon the above modifications and to make minor drafting changes to some existing conditions.

A copy of the proposed modifications may be obtained (free of charge) from the Office of Electricity Regulation. Any representations or objections may be made on or before 28th October 1997, to Mrs. Ravi Randhawa, OFFER, Hagley House, 83-85 Hagley Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham B16 8QG.

A. J. Boorman, authorised on behalf of the Director
30th September 1997. (747)

Notice under section 11(2) of The Electricity Act 1989

The Director General of Electricity Supply ("the Director") hereby gives notice pursuant to section 11(2) of the Electricity Act 1989 ("the Act") as follows.

1. He proposes to modify the conditions of the licences granted under section 6(1)(c) of the Act to East Midlands Electricity plc, Eastern Electricity plc, London Electricity plc, Manweb plc, Midlands Electricity plc, Northern Electric plc, Norweb plc, Seaboard plc, South Wales Electricity plc, South Western Electricity plc, Southern Electric plc and Yorkshire Electricity Group plc (the "licensees").
2. He proposes to modify the conditions of these licences in order to promote (from 1998) competition in electricity supply to all customers, and to provide further protection for customers in respect of the terms and quality of such supply.
3. In summary, the Director proposes to modify the conditions of these licences by amending existing conditions and introducing new conditions to the following effect.

(a) To remove the prohibition on cross-subsidies between different parts of the supply business of each licensee.

(b) To prohibit each licensee, in any market in which it is dominant, from supplying electricity on predatory, discriminatory or unduly onerous terms; to provide that the Director may determine whether such prohibition applies; to require that advance notice of new terms of supply is given to the Director; and to permit such obligations to be disapplied in certain circumstances.

(c) To require licensees, when directed by the Director, to contact and offer to supply customers of suppliers whose licences have been revoked.

(d) To provide for all licensees to enter into an agreement (between themselves and with other parties) concerning the systems, processes and procedures necessary to facilitate competition in electricity supply, the content of such agreement, where the parties cannot agree, to be determined by the Director.

(e) To require licensees to publish in advance indications of likely changes to the charges for use of their distribution systems.

(f) To require each licensee to prepare a standard agreement to govern the retention at premises not supplied on tariff by that licensee of an established connection to its distribution system; and to provide that such agreement be approved by the Director, and that its terms be from time to time reviewed by the licensee in consultation with other parties.

(g) To require each licensee to establish, operate and publicise a service for use (by any person) to report and receive advice on matters which are dangerous or require attention in relation to the supply or distribution of electricity in its authorised area.

(h) To require licensees to take steps to detect and prevent the theft of electricity, damage to electrical apparatus and interference with electricity meters.

(i) To require licensees to offer agreements authorising persons to connect metering equipment to their distribution systems.

(j) To prohibit licensees' supply businesses from entering into agreements for the provision of meters which restrict, distort or prevent competition in the supply of electricity.

(k) To require each licensee to provide a service to maintain a register of, and to transfer to relevant persons, information necessary to facilitate competition in supply to premises within its authorised area; and to require all licensees to prepare a form of common agreement providing for use of their registration services, making provisions for changes of electricity supplier at premises, and specifying the forms in which transfers of relevant data are to take place.

(l) To require all licensees to provide (whether themselves or by a third party) a national service to maintain a network over which transfers of data may be made for specified purposes.

(m) To require each licensee to provide, within its authorised area, services: to facilitate supply by persons authorised to supply electricity under exemptions pursuant to section 5 of the Act; to provide and operate electricity meters; to retrieve, process and aggregate meter reading data; to create, process and aggregate electricity consumption data in relation to un-metered supplies; and to facilitate the use of its prepayment meter system(s).

(n) In respect of the services referred to at paragraphs (k), (l) and (m) above: to require licensees to offer to enter into agreements for such services, not to discriminate between persons in the provision of such services and to publish statements of charges relating to such services; and to provide that the Director may determine the terms of such agreements as are referred to him.

(o) To require licensees to treat as confidential information received by their distribution businesses; and to oblige licensees to inform the Director of the means by which they will ensure compliance with this requirement, and to report annually to the Director as to such compliance.

(p) To limit the circumstances in which licensees can install electrical apparatus on the customer's side of an electricity meter.

(q) To provide that licensees produce and comply with codes of practice as to: payment of bills and procedures for dealing with customers in difficulty; provision of services to persons who are of pensionable age, disabled or chronically sick; procedures with respect to site access; promotion of the efficient use of electricity; and procedures for complaint handling; and to provide that licensees shall consult as to and from time to time revise such codes.

(r) To require that each licensee submit to the Director and to consumers' committees, and that it publish annually, information in respect of its performance in relation to the provision of electricity supply.

(s) To require licensees, to make payments to other suppliers for the benefit of the customers of those suppliers in respect of failures by the licensees to meet standards of performance in relation to the distribution of electricity.

(t) To require licensees to give to customers information: in respect of electricity consumption and complaint handling; and to facilitate changes of supplier.

(u) To provide that the fees to be paid by licensees to the Director be a proportion of the total costs of the Director.

(v) To prohibit each licensee, before the end of a specified period after the opening of its authorised area to competition in electricity supply, from providing in any contract to supply domestic and small business premises that there may be a fee payable by the customer for termination of that contract.

(w) To make provisions in respect of contracts for the supply of electricity to domestic and small business premises, including provisions that such contracts be published in standard forms, provide a range of payment options, be limited as to any security deposit or termination fee which they may require, and provide that they may be terminated by the customer on notice or on the occurrence of certain specified events; and to require licensees to inform customers of the expiry or variation of such contracts, and to publish the principal terms of such contracts.

(x) To provide in certain cases for the assignment of customer debt between suppliers on a change of supplier.

(y) To make provision for the conditions referred to at paragraphs (w) and (x) above to be amended by the Director with the consent of a weighted majority of suppliers, and to provide for certain of those conditions to be disapplied by the Director.

(z) To introduce new definitions consequent upon the above modifications and to make minor drafting changes to some existing conditions.

A copy of the proposed modifications may be obtained (free of charge) from the Office of Electricity Regulation. Any representations or objections may be made on or before 28th October 1997, to Mrs. Ravi Randhawa, OFFER, Hagley House, 83-85 Hagley Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham B16 8QG.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
