OFFICE OF FAIR TRADING

FAIR TRADING ACT 1973

The Supply of Underwriting Services

Monopoly reference by the Director General of Fair Trading

The Director General of Fair Trading, in exercise of his powers under sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973, hereby refers to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply of underwriting services in the United Kingdom.

The Commission shall investigate and report on the questions whether a monopoly situation exists in relation to such supply, and if so:

- by virtue of which provisions of sections 6-8 of the said Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;
- in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way;

- whether any action or omission on the part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and
- whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate, or may be expected to operate, against the public interest.

In this reference:

"underwriting services" means the undertaking and performance (whether by underwriters, sub-underwriters or brokers) of engagements, in respect of the offer of shares in a company on the Official List:

- to take up shares comprised in the offer if the shares are not taken up by the persons to whom they are offered; or
- to procure or arrange that another person undertakes such an engagement as is mentioned in (i) above.

The Commission shall report upon this reference within a period of 12 months from the date hereof.

New General Licence

Licence No:

- (A) IPPO/GEN/97/48 (in England)
- (B) IPPO/WOAD/GEN/97/4 (in Wales)

Subject: Fishmeal (bagged or bulk) including meal of sea animals with the exception of mammals and products including mixtures, other than petfood containing these products.

Country of Origin: Iceland.

Conditions attached to this Licence:

1. Where the consignment:

Either:

- (i) originates from an establishment approved in accordance with Council Directive 90/667/EEC (laying down the veterinary rules for the disposal and processing of animal waste for its placing on the market and for the prevention of pathogens in feedingstuffs of animal or fish origin and amending Directive 90/425/EEC), it must be accompanied by a commercial document indicating the approval number of the establishment of production and the nature of the product;

Or:

- (ii) originates from an establishment registered in accordance with the Council Directive 90/667/EEC, it must be accompanied by a health certificate issued and signed by an official veterinarian showing the registration number of the establishment of production, the methods of treatment used on the consignment and the result of the salmonella tests carried out.

2. Sampling

- (a) Prior to importing material under this licence importers must advise the Divisional Veterinary Manager, in whose Division the consignee establishment is situated, of their arrangements for receiving imported consignments and thereafter must report the arrival of consignments to the Divisional Veterinary Manager in accordance with his or her instructions.
- (b) Any material imported under this licence shall be made available, if so required, for inspection and/or sampling by an officer of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food any appointment during the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday to Friday.
- (c) Where the result of sampling carried out under 3(b) above gives a positive result, the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food may require the consignment to be re-exported, subjected to further processing, destroyed or diverted to a use other than feeding of livestock.

3. The certificate required above must be the original certificate except in the case of products entering Great Britain via another Member States which, in accordance with Article 11.2(a) of Council Directive 90/675/EEC⁽¹⁾, must be accompanied by a copy of the original certificate authenticated by and provided by the official veterinarian at the border inspection post of entry to the Community, together with a document signed by the official veterinarian at the border inspection post of entry to the Community confirming that veterinary checks have been carried out to his or her satisfaction. However, in the case of products transported by air or sea which have been transhipped in a port or airport in another Member State and which, in accordance with Article 8.4 of Council Directive 90/675/EEC, have not been subject to veterinary checks in that Member State the certificate must be the original certificate.

Footnote

- (1) Council Directive 90/675/EEC laying down the principles governing the organisation of the veterinary checks on products entering the Community from third countries (OJ No. L373, 31.12.90, P1) as amended by Council Directive 91/496/EEC (OJ No. L268, 24.9.91, P56).

NOTES:

1. Nothing in this licence gives exemption from any prohibition or restriction imposed by the Products of Animal Origin (Import and Export) Regulations 1996 (which restrict importation to border inspection posts approved to handle the category of products concerned and require that imports are notified in advance to enforcement authorities), the Imported Food Regulations 1984, the provisions of the Food Safety Act 1990 and Regulations made under it, the Animal By-Products (Identification) Regulations 1995, the Marketing Authorisations for Veterinary Medicinal Products Regulations 1994, or by any regulation superseding or amending the same. Further information is given in leaflet XMC 631, available from the address below.
2. This is not a Department of Trade and Industry licence and gives no exemption from any prohibition, regulation or restriction imposed by the Department of Trade and Industry.
3. Please note that while this licence was current at the time of its issue, conditions can be subject to frequent change and importers are advised to check the latest position with Meat Hygiene Division (see below).

Caution

It is the importer's responsibility to ensure that any import covered by this licence complies with the terms and conditions as set out.

Any breach of any conditions attached to this licence will constitute an offence against the Animal Health Act 1981.

ROAD TRAFFIC ACTS

CORPORATION OF LONDON

Proposal to revoke the prohibition of "U" turns in Queen Victoria Street

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of London propose to make an Order under sections 6 and 124 of and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985.

The effect of the Order would be to amend the City of London (Prescribed Routes) (No. 1) Traffic Order 1988, so as to revoke the prohibition on vehicles making "U" turns in Queen Victoria Street, between Puddle Dock and New Bridge Street.

A copy of the proposed Order, of the above-mentioned Order of 1988, of the Common Council's statement of reasons for proposing to make the Order and of a plan showing the affected street, can be inspected during normal office hours on Monday to Fridays inclusive, within a period of 21 days from the date on which this notice is published in the City Secretary's Department, The Guildhall, London EC2P 2EJ.

Further information may be obtained from the City Engineer's Department, telephone 0171-332 1565.

Persons desiring to object to the proposed Order should send a statement in writing of their objections and the grounds thereof to the City Secretary, Guildhall, London EC2P 2EJ, within the aforementioned period of 21 days.

Persons desiring to object to the proposal should be aware that under the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985, this Authority would be legally obliged to make any comments received in response to this notice available for inspection by the press and public who would be entitled to make copies if they wish.

Hansard

The Official Verbatim Report of Parliamentary Proceedings

Hansard reflects opinion on all topics of the day and is of great interest to a wide range of business and professional groups. In addition to a factual word-for-word transcription of speeches in debate, it contains the answers to all Parliamentary Questions and complete Division Lists. Proceedings up to 10 p.m. each day are reported in the issue on sale at 8.30 the following morning at the Government Bookshop in Holborn. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted for debates on definite subjects.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 37, Water Resources Act, 1991) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
