The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authoricy.

From Donday, February 27. to Thursday March 2. 1670.

Plymouth, Feb. 24.

Ere is lately failed from this Port, the Marigold, the Mary, and John, Merchant men, the Two firft bound for Newfoundland, and the other for the Weft-Indies; our Newfoundland Fifter-men are ftill in Port, but ready to fail with the firft opportunity.

but ready to fail with the first opportunity. Portfmouth, Feb. 26. The 25th inflant the Orangetree, fome days before arrived in this Port from Barmudaes, laden with Oranges and other Fruits of that Countrey, failed for London.

Rome, Feb. 11. The 11th inflant the Marquis de Soragna, Ambaflador from the Duke of Parma, had his first publick, Audience of the Pope, whither he was conducted with the usual Ceremonies, and the fame day the Pope disposed of several vacant Bishopricks.

The Cardinal Altieri hath acquainted the Sacred Colledge as likewife the foreign Ambaffadors at prefent refiding here, together with the Princes and perfons of Quality of this Court, with the Marriage lately concluded between his Niece and the Duke de Gravina Orfino, who have all been to compliment them upon that fubject.

Don Pedro & Arragon having by an Express from Madrid received infructions from the Queen Regent, to dispatch with all the haste he conveniently may his Embassy in this Court, in order to his return to Naples, where the affairs of that kingdom seem to require his speedy presence, hath accordingly acquainted the Pope therewith, intending, immediately after his having been entertained for three days in the Popes Palace, as Vice Roy of Naples, according to what was agreed on before his arrival in that particular, to take his leave of hi Holiness, and to depart towards the later end of the next week on his way to Naples.

The Pope having received a Letter from his moft Chriftian Majefty, wherein he feems to complain of his not having at the laft promotion, beftowed a Cardinals Cap on the Bishop of Laon, at his re commendation, hath promifed to satisfy his Majefty very suddainly in that matter. The Abbot Colonna, now Prince de Sonino, ha-

The Abbot Colonna, now Prince de Sonino, having been the 4th inftant to acquaint the Pope with his intended marriage with the Signora Cleria Cejarini, and having received his Benediction thereupon, was the fame day married to the faid Lady in the Church of Santa Catharina de Siena in the prefence of most of their relations, and other perfons of the greatest quality about Town.

Madrid, Feb. 18. The 5th inflant Monfieur Van Beverning, Ambaffador Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces, arrived within three Leagues of this place, from whenee he came privately to Town, to give directions for the furnishing his Houfe, which is the fame the Baron de Batteville was formerly lodged in, and to difpose things in order to his publick entry, which it is faid may now be in few days.

On the 12th inftant Don Antonio de Cordoua, who hath been for some time prisoner here, and who upon his examination confessed himself to have been the Author and contriver of those jealousses and misunderstandings which have formerly been between Don Juan of Austria and the Ministers of this Court, and more especially the Conde de Miranda, whom he accused to his Highnels of having a design to poison him, was according to a sentence, passed against him in the Council Royal, for endeavouring to raise fedition and disfurbances in the Govennment, brought to the Market place, where his throat was cut by the publick Officer of Justice, a kind of death onely peculiar in case of such crimes, to those that are of more then ordinary extraction. His Brother continues still a prisoner, though for crimes of another nature, and as is faid, may suddainly be likewise brought to condigne punissent. The King is at present perfectly recovered, to the great joy of her Majesty and the whole Court, and hath been abroad again fince his late indisposition.

Vienna, Feb. 14. This Court is difpatching an Envoye to the Grand Signior, with very rich Prefents, to affure him of his Imperial Majeflies inten tions to maintain inviolably the peace at prefent eftablifhed between the two Empires, and to divert the Port from countenancing the Rebels in Hungary, who it is faid continue ftill their follicitations for protection from thence, to which end they have privately fent their Deputies thither, to endeavor by all poffible means to prevail upon the Grand, Vizier; but that hitherto they have not received the leaft incouragement from him, to hope for any fuccor.

Here is lately fent from hence, by Order of the Council of war, Commiffioners towards the frontiers of Hungary, to take an account of the prefent condition of the Militia in those parts, that upon their return, care may be taken for the providing of whatever may be wanting there.

Some days fit ce arrived an Extraordinary Courier from Prince Abaffi, with Letters to the Emperor, humbly defiring his Imperial Majefties favour and clemency on the behalf of those Hungarian Genrlemen, who upon the opening the present Commiffion at Presbourg, left their Countreys, as refusing to appear before those Commiffioners, where they thought they might be somewhat hardly dealt with; how far the Emperor may be wrought upon in their favour, is not yet known.

By the last Letters from Weftphalia, the Emperor having been informed of the little likelihood there feems as yet to be of any accommodation between the Princes of Lunenburgh and the Bifhop of Munfter, and fearing left those differences might occafion fome further diffurbance to the Empire, hath fent to the neighbouring Princes and Electors to interpole their Mediation for the adjusting that matter.

Venise, Feb. 21. The Procefs which was heretofore carried on with fo much eagernefs, againft Captain-General Morofini, is now finished, and in few days a report will be made to the Senate, of all that there passed which as is faid, will prove much to the honour and reputation of the faid Gaptain General, who having overcome the first shock of those that appeared to violently against him, shoch retorted all their malice, and contrivance upon them-