

The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 19, to Saturday March 23, 1717.

St. James's, March 22.

AN humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County of Bucks, at the Assizes held at Ailesbury, March 11, 1716-17; has been presented to His Majesty by Richard Hamden, Esq; Foreman of the Grand Jury, and one of the Knights of the Shire of Bucks, and William Mead, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, accompanied by several Gentlemen and others, introduced by the Right Honourable the Marquês of Wharton.

An humble Address of the Burghers and Inhabitants of the Borough of Ailesbury in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Marquês of Wharton, attended by some of the Principal Inhabitants of the said Borough.

An humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chipping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has also been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Marquês of Wharton, High Steward of the said Borough.

Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Madrid, March 8. The Pope's Nuncio, Sig. Aldrovandi, is expected very suddenly from Rome: He left this Place last Summer, and returns with all the Differences adjusted between the two Courts. Heretupon the fitting out at Malaga of the Squadron of Men of War, which is to be at the Pope's Disposal, and serve in the Levant against the Turks this Summer, is hastened, and Seamen from all the Coasts of this Kingdom are ordered to repair to Malaga. That Squadron consists of seven Men of War. Orders are also sent to Barcelona, for getting ready six Gallies to be employed in the same Service in the Levant. The Miquelets who having been taken in Arms are now in Prison, or who shall be taken in Arms, are, instead of being put to Death as formerly, to serve at the Oar in those Gallies. His Majesty has appointed Don Felix Cornejo, who was Secretary of the Embassy in France under the late Duke of Alva, to be his Envoy to the Swiss Cantons.

Berlin, March 20. The King of Denmark has written a Letter to his Prussian Majesty, dated the 13th Instant, to acquaint him with his Resolution of allowing no Ships whatsoever to trade any longer to Sweden, neither from Dantzick, Lubeck, nor any other Neutral Port; and to desire his Prussian Majesty would join in this Regulation for the common Interest of the Alliance, and give the necessary Orders at Koningsberg, and his other Ports in the Baltick. Eight more Battalions of Russians have Orders to leave Mecklenburgh, and will be ready to march in about a Fortnight's Time, after which there will only remain nine Battalions, besides the Regiment of Guards, and the Gallies under General Weyde. Count Goloskin was last Week to wait on the King at Potsdam, with a Letter from the Czar, and a Compliment for the Civilities which were shewn the Czarine during her Stay at Wesel. On the 18th, Major General Schultz passed through this Town in his Way from Peterburgh to the Czar. The King went Yesterday to Old Brandenburgh, to view his own Regiment; and was expected To Day at Spandaw, to muster a Battalion of Invalids which has been lately formed. The last Letters from Warsaw are of the 13th of this Month. The King of Poland had then notified his Resolution to set out on the 20th or 24th; and if the Water be open by that Time, designed to go down the Vistula as far as Dantzick: 'Tis advised, that he purposes to stay six or seven Months in Saxony.

Copenhagen, March 20. The King of Denmark, who returned hither Yesterday, has given repeated Orders to the Intendant of the Arsenal, to get ready the Prahmes and other Flat-bottom Vessels proper to be used in making a Descent; and Men are set to work on them with all Diligence. According to the last Advices from Schonen, Corn is excessive dear in that Province, as well as in other Parts of Sweden.

Brussels, March 25. The Communities called the Seven Nations of this City, have been assembled several Days; but cannot by any Perswasions of the Magistrates be induced to give their Consent to the Subsidy required by the Marquis de Prié, Administrator of these Provinces. The City of Antwerp makes the same Difficulties to consent to the Subsidy, and