Madrid, April 13. The Marquess Ceva-Grimaldi, late Governour of Cadiz, is made Captain General of Estremadura, and the Government of Cadiz is given to Don Thomas de Ydiaques late Governour of the Castle of Pampelona. The Queen being recovered of her Lying-in, appeared in publick on the 10th Instant, and heard Mass in the Royal Chappel; and in the Evening the Ladies of the Court were admitted to kiss her Hand and make their Compliments. The King designs to set out on the 2d of next Month, with the Queen and the Prince of Asturias, for Segovia, where the necessary Preparations are making for their Reception. 'Tis advised from Port-Passage, that on the 7th Instant, four new Men of War, the Building and Arming of which was committed to the Direction of Don Antonio Galtanneta, sailed from thence for Cadiz.

Venice, April 16. The Czar having sent hither 27 Muscovite Gentlemen, and his Resident having, in his Name, desired Leave of the Senate for their serving this Summer on board the Fleet of this Republick, the Senate has consented to it. Our Preparations against the Turks are continued with the greatest Diligence, and six new Men of War of the second Rate are on the Stocks in our Arsenal. Sig. Mocenigo, having embarked with his Retinue on a Galley, is gone for Dalmatia, to take Possession of that Government; he carries with him a considerable Sum of Money for providing what is necessary for the military Service in those Parts the ensuing Campaign, and he is to be convoyed to Zara by a Galley, commanded by Sig. Vetturri, Captain of the Gulph, and two Gallions. To Day came Advice from Otranto, that the Ships are arrived there which are appointed to convoy General Schulenburg to Corfu; we have also Advice, that a few Days ago that General went Post from Naples for Otranto. A great Number of Troops, part being drawn out of our Garrisons in the Terra Firma, and the others new Levies, are arrived here, and Transports with a Convoy are getting ready for their Imbarkation. 'Tis advised from Rome, that the Pope has ordered a Colonel with 100 Men to march to Pefaro, to serve for a Guard to the Pretender.

Leipsick, April 24. Letters from Warsaw advise, that the Body of Muscovites commanded by General Renne were actually marched out of Poland, but the others which come from Mecklenberg, did not seem disposed to leave the Kingdom yet, but made frequent Marches and Countermarches in the Country to supply them-
