

- William Gordon MYATT. For services to the community, especially Young People, in Newcastle-under-Lyme, Staffordshire.
- Laurie Martin NAUMANN, Director, Scottish Council for Single Homeless. For services to Homeless People.
- Colette Rose, Mrs. NEILL, Higher Executive Officer, Ministry of Defence.
- Christine Mary, Mrs. NEVARD. For services to the Civil Service Benevolent Fund.
- Ronald Frederick NEWBY. For services to Global Care.
- Margaret Ann, Mrs. NEWTON. For services to Disabled People in Bradford, West Yorkshire.
- Esme Jean, Mrs. NICKELS, Warden, Bouverie House, Northampton Borough Council. For services to the residents of Bouverie House and to the community in Hardington, Northamptonshire.
- Alistair Frank Hunter NICOLSON, lately Flexible Anti-Smuggling Team Member, H.M. Board of Customs and Excise.
- John Findlay NIELD. For services to Ex-Service Personnel in Blackpool, Lancashire.
- Archie NIVEN, Building Manager, Government Office for the North East.
- Edward Arthur NOEL. For services to the Performing Arts on Jersey.
- Robert NOY, Hospital Visitor. For services to the community in Cambridge.
- Ethel Elizabeth, Mrs. NUNN, Founder, Society of Friends of the Lotus Children. For services to the Street Children of India.
- William A. NUTT. For services to Motor Cycling.
- Paul Desmond O'HEARN, Founder Member, Supersavers Project, Perkins Engines Ltd. For services to Environment Protection.
- Francis O'KANE. For services to the Community.
- Moria, Mrs. O'NEILL. For services to Tourism.
- William Bamford O'NEILL, Farmer. For services to Angling and to Tourism.
- Lieutenant Colonel Brian Robert O'RORKE. For services to Management Consultancy.
- Miss Phyllis OBORN, Chairman of Governing Body, Capel Manor College, Enfield, Middlesex. For services to Education.
- Hazel Constance, Mrs. OFFORD. For services to the community in Grantchester, Cambridgeshire.
- Clive Brian OWEN, Owner/Managing Director, E Owen Clothing Manufacturers Ltd. For services to the Clothing Industry and to Export.
- George Frederick OWEN, Taxi Driver and Secretary, Albany Taxi Charity Fund. For services to the Taxi Industry and to the community in Southwark and Bermondsey, London.
- John Richard OWEN. For services to the community in Llanwnnog, Powys.
- Miss Nerys OWEN, Administrative Officer, Forestry Commission.
- Arthur Reginald OWERS, lately President, High Roding Cricket Club, Essex. For services to Cricket.
- Rosaleen Mary, Mrs. PADWICK, Senior Personal Assistant, Department of Health.
- Leonard PAGE, Estate Warden, Roaches Estate, Peak District National Park Authority. For services to the Countryside and to Conservation.
- Guy Bruno Daniel PAGET, Steward, Corgarff Castle. For services to Conservation.
- Sylvia Brigid Claire, Mrs. PALTHORPE. For services to Pastoral Education.
- David Victor PALMER. For charitable services to the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children NHS Trust.
- Marina, Mrs. PALMER. For charitable services to the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children NHS Trust.
- Janice Pamela, Mrs. PANTON. For humanitarian services to the people of Montserrat.
- Jennifer Naomi Banks, Mrs. PARKER, J.P., D.L. For services to the community, especially the British Red Cross Society, in Hertfordshire.
- Doris Florence Mary, Mrs. PARMENTER, lately School Crossing Patrol, Hartley Witney, Hampshire. For services to Road Safety.
- Margaret Sheila, Mrs. PARRISH. For services to Nursing, particularly of Elderly People, in Bridgend, South Wales.
- George Geddes PARSONAGE. For services to the Glasgow Humane Society.
- Harshul PATEL, Administrative Officer, Ministry of Defence.
- Annette Bell, Mrs. PATERSON. For services to Disabled and Elderly People in Forres, Morayshire.
- Eileen Frances, Mrs. PATTERSON. For public service.
- Stuart PEARCE. For services to Association Football.
- Andrew Currie PEASTON, Building Control Manager, Midlothian Council. For services to the Construction Industry.
- Phyllis Vera, Mrs. PECK. For charitable services to the Lister Hospital, Stevenage, Hertfordshire.
- Michael Joseph PERCE. For services to the Southmead Project, Bristol and to the welfare of Drug Users.
- Victor Daniel PERFITT, Chairman, British Herbal Medicine Association. For services to the Herbal Medicines Industry.
- George Edward PERRY, Managing Director, Hyperion Records. For services to the Music Publishing Industry.
- Harold Edward PHILLIPS. For services to the community in Tetbury, Gloucestershire.
- May, Mrs. PHILLIPS. For services to Parent Counselling.
- Miss Anne PHILPOTT. For services to St. Martin in the Fields High School, London.
- David PIERCE, lately Senior Training Adviser, Department for Education and Employment.
- Agnela Aida, Mrs. PINTO, Senior Personal Secretary, H.M. Board of Customs and Excise.
- Gerald POPE, Porter, Department for International Development.
- Herbert John PORTER, Governor 5, H.M. Prison Grendon.
- Marjorie Tyrrell, Mrs. PORTER. For services to the community, especially Young People, in Lambeth, London.
- Sister Theresa POUNTNEY, lately Unit Manager, Elgood House Church Army Hostel, Marylebone, London. For services to Homeless and Mentally Ill People.
- Kathleen Ann, Mrs. POYNTER. For services to the WRVS in Wiltshire.
- Malcolm PRATT, Leader, Chester-le-Street District Council. For services to Local Government.
- Alison May, Mrs. PRESTON, Music Tutor, Wardle Primary School, Edinburgh. For services to Music Education.
- Thomas Jules PRESTON, J.P., Managing Director, City of Sunderland Training and Enterprise Council. For services to Training, particularly for those with Special Needs.