Vienna, September 18.

THIS Court has received Advice from Sardinia of the 3d Instant, by a Courier from Naples, importing, that on the 26th, 27th and 28th past, the Spaniards bombard-ed Cagliari from the Sea; that on the 29th they landed four Pieces of Cannon and five Mortars, with which they continued firing on the Town to the 3d Instant; but without having done much Damage, or begun any formal Attack: That their Land-Forces were not above 5000 Men compleat; and that the Viceroy, the Marquess de Rubi, was determined to make a good Defence. The two Princes of Bavaria arrived here from the Army two Days ago, and will stay here (as is given out) about a Fortnight. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is expected here from Lintz. The last Letters from the Imperial Army encamped at Semlin, relate, that five Turks arrived unexpectedly there, without any Passport or Guard, and delivered a Letter to Prince Eugene; upon which it was immediately reported in the Camp, that they had brought Proposals of Peace; but the Letter was only to desire that the Hostages which the Turks left in Belgrade for the Performance of the Capitulation, might be set at Liberty, which was immediately ordered, and they accordingly went away with those Turks, without any mention of Peace on either Side. Prince Eugene came back from Semendria on the 8th, and having passed by Panzova, gave Orders for its being fortified, which they are accordingly going to do out of Hand. The Troops which convoyed that Part of the Garrison of Belgrade that went by Land as far as Nissa, are returned to the Camp, and report, that the Grand Vizier had been deposed, and a Son of the old Bashaw of Bohnia put in his Place. Some Regiments which were sent after the Tartars in Upper Hungary, have received Orders to march into Transylvania, that they may be ready to join General Steinville in case of Need, all the Tartars who were in the Turkish Army being gone to Walachia. Last Night Sir Robert Sutton arrived here from Paris.

Hague, Oct. 1. On the 29th past the Deputies of the States General had a Conference with the British Ministers the Lord Cadogan and Mr. Whitworth, to communicate to them the Memorials which had been given in by the Spanish Ambassadour the Marquess Berratti-Landi, to justify the Expedition against Sardinia. The Deputies assured them, that as the good Offices of their High Mightinesses had been desired for composing the present Troubles, they were ready to joyn with His Britannick Majesty in his Endeavours for preserving the Tranquility of Italy. These Memorials have likewise been communicated by the States to the Marquess de Chateaufort the French Ambassadour, and to the Imperial Minister Baron Heems. The States General have thought fit to write a Letter to the Czar, in favour of the Town of Dantzick, at the earnest Request of the Magistrates of that City, and in Consideration of the great Interest they have in the Trade thither. M. Voorfchooten, the only Son of M. Duyvenvoorde, late Ambassadour of the States at the Court of Great Britain, dyed here of the Small-Pox the 28th past: He is excellent, being a young Gentleman of very great Parts.

DR. Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir; which, for all Ailments of the Stomach, and Impurities of the Blood, as Scurvies, Dropsies, &c. excels any one Preparation that ever was made; 'tis the most pleasant Bitter in the World; most Gentlemen drink it in Wine, Ladies in Tea, and others in Beer; Ale, Cyder, &c. now famous throughout most Parts of Europe; few go to Sea, or travel without it. Merchants find great Quantities abroad, and most Captains and Masters of Ships take it with them, it selling beyond Sea at a great Price, and there is room for large Profit. The Virtues and Effects of which are sufficiently known, and in the Bills with it particularly described; being in French, Dutch and Spanish, as well as English; prepared now only by his Widow Susanna Stoughton, at her House in Bartholomew-Lane, near the Royal Exchange. It often gives present Relief in the Gout, especially if in the Stomach or Bowels, taken in strong Mountain Wine, and a double Dose.
