Venice, November 5.

BY a Ship from Ragusa we have received Advice, that General Sebastian Mocenigo, who commands the Troops of this Republick in Dalmatia, had made himself Master of the Suburbs of Antivari, and raised a Battery against the Place, which 'twas believed would soon oblige the Governour to surrender. By Letters from Cephalonia we have an Account, that the Captain General Pisani, with the Men of War and Gallies, was still at Zant waiting for a fair Wind, but that every Thing was on board necessary for undertaking the Siege of Prevesa. Two Men of War of the second Rate, will be launched next Week in our Arsenal.

Dresden, Nov. 13. A Popish Priest at Leipfick, named Eckhart, having in a late Sermon inveighed against the Doctrine and Person of Luther, upon Occasion of the Jubilee observed by the Protestants of this Country for the Establishment of the Reformation in it, some Students there got together, assaulted him in his House, and burnt his Effigies, with that of the Pope, before the Gates of the principal College. The last Letters from Warsaw tell us, that the Czar had caused publick Notice to be given in all the Palatinates, that all those who had received any Damage by his Troops, might make their Complaints to Commissioners appointed by that Purpose, whom he had ordered to give them Satisfaction. Those Letters also told, that the Russian Troops were to march out of that Kingdom, and that they should sell the Magazines they had in the several Places of Poland and Lithuania.

Copenhagen, Nov. 17. A Number of Transports are taking in Provisions here for Norway, whither they are to sail in a few Days under the Convoy of a Man of War: Four other Men of War are fitting out to cruise in the Baltick. The King of Poland has notified by a Letter to his Danish Majesty, the Electoral Prince his Son's Change of Religion; to which an Answer has been returned by his Danish Majesty, importing, that he cannot but be concerned at it, the rather because by this Proceeding the said Prince has forfeited his Right of Succession to these Kingdoms if it should happen to devolve to his Family. Tho' several foreign Ministers at this Court have made pressing Instances, for the Hambourg Ships which remain under Arrest at Gluckstadt to be released, his Danish Majesty has not yet declared his Mind positively on that Subject.

Cologne, Nov. 19. On the 15th Instant the Count of Manderfcheidt-Blankenheim, the Emperour's Plenipotentiary, made his publick Entry into this City with great Magnificence, attended by two Troops of Burghers on Horseback. He was saluted with a triple Discharge of the Cannon, and of the small Arms of the Garrison which stood drawn up on the Ramparts; and the Companies of Burghers on Foot lined the Streets through which he passed to the House provided for his Reception. On the 16th the Magistrates, and Officers Civil and Military, of the City, went to receive his Excellency at his Lodgings, and the Burghers again lining the Streets, conducted him to the Town-House, where he received in the Emperour's Name the Homage of the Magistrates, Council, and
