Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 23. to Tuesday November 26. 1717.

Dublin, November 16.

ON the 14th Instant, the House of Commons of this Kingdom of Ireland passed a Bill, Intituled,

An Act for continuing to His Majesty the Additional Duties on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes.

On the 15th they passed a Bill, Intituled,

An Act for continuing to His Majesty an Additional Duty on all Wines and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and also a Tax on all Sallaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Pensions therein mentioned, and for granting a further Additional Duty on Ale, Beer, and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and for securing the Repayment of Fifty Thousand Pound Sterling formerly advanced unto His Majesty for the Use of the Publick, together with the Interest thereof.

Whitehall, November 25.

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have been presented to His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, being entirely sensible, That the Happiness and Welfare of these Kingdoms depend (next under God) on Your Majesty and Your Royal Family, and being desirous, on all Occasions, to express our unfeigned Zeal for Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, beg Leave, in the most humble Manner, to congratulate Your Majesty on Her Royal Highness the Princess's safe Delivery, and on the Happy Increase of the Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

We cannot but adore the Divine Providence, which has, in so particular a Manner, disappointed the Hopes of Your Majesty's Enemies ever since Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne; and we esteem it one of the greatest Blessings we enjoy, to see Your Majesty's Government further secured by a numerous Issue, who, we assure ourselves, will, in Imitation of Your Majesty's Royal Example, continue our Happiness to the latest Posterity.

To

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to Congratulate your Majesty with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Joy, upon Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales's happy Delivery of a Prince.

It is with unſpeakable Pleaſure and Satisfaction we behold the numerous Iſſue of your Royal Son the Prince of Wales, whereby we have a delightful Proſpect that the many Bleſſings and Felicities of your Majesty's auſpicious Reign will not be confined to the preſent, but transmitted to future Ages, by an illuſtrious Race of Princes deſcended from your Majesty.

When we reflect on the Dangers that lately threatned our Religion, Laws and Liberties, we cannot but adore that Providence which ſo ſeaſonably placed your Majesty on the Throne of your Anceſtors, and thereby ſecured thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to which we were reſtored by the late happy Revolution.

Your faithful Commons will always endeavour to make your Majesty's Reign eaſy and proſperous, and deſire nothing more than that the Princes deſcended from your Majesty may inherit your Royal Virtues, and fill the Throne of theſe Realms to lateſt Poſterity.

Whitehall, Nov. 25, 1717.

*Whereas John Kett, Commander of the Reſolution of Yarmouth, did, on the 15th of October laſt, receive a conſiderable Sum of Money at the Bank of England, and hath
