On the 15th they passed a Bill, Intituled,

An Act for continuing to His Majesty an Additional Duty on all Wines and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and also a Tax on all Sallaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Pensions therein mentioned, and for granting a further Additional Duty on Ale, Beer, and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and for securing the Repayment of Fifty Thousand Pound Sterling formerly advanced unto His Majesty for the Use of the Publick, together with the Interest thereof.

Whitehall, November 25.

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have been presented to His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty:
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, being entirely sensible, That the Happiness and Welfare of these Kingdoms depend (next under God) on Your Majesty and Your Royal Family, and being desirous, on all Occasions, to express our unfeigned Zeal for Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, beg Leave, in the most humble Manner, to congratulate Your Majesty on Her Royal Highness the Princess's safe Delivery, and on the Happy Increase of the Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

We cannot but adore the Divine Providence, which has, in so particular a Manner, disappointed the Hopes of Your Majesty's Enemies ever since Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne; and we esteem it one of the greatest Blessings we enjoy, to see Your Majesty's Government further secured by a numerous Issue, who, we assure ourselves, will, in Imitation of Your Majesty's Royal Example, continue our Happiness to the latest Posterity.
