Town and Country Planning County of Herefordshire District Council

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990, SECTIONS 69 AND 70

LEINTWARDINE CONSERVATION AREA

Notice is hereby given that the county of Herefordshire District Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, have designated the following parts of Leintwardine Village, Herefordshire as a Conservation Area. The area will be known as Leintwardine Conservation Area.

From the A4113 road bridge at the southern end of the village, the boundary follows the southern side of the rivers Teme and Clun westwards towards Mill Farm. It then continues to run northwards along the field boundary separating OS parcels 1300 and 2100 incorporating Seedley House to the east. The boundary continues northwards excluding OS parcels 1424 and 1835 yet including OS parcel 2729 to the east. The boundary then veers slightly to the north-west to include the workshop and yard of Jay Lane incorporating the cottages numbered 30-34 High Street at the junction with Jay Lane. Here it turns southwards along the western side of the High Street crossing the road eastwards to follow the rear boundary of No. 33 High Street. It then runs south again to exclude the public playing field and adopts the northern boundary of the cemetery to join up with the western side of Watling Street opposite the Primary School. Once again continuing in a southerly direction the boundary follows Watling Street until it reaches No. 48 Watling Street where it is redirected eastwards along the garden of Weaver Barn. The boundary then continues its southerly direction incorporating the garden plots of the properties along Watling Street excluding OS parcels 6729 and 6517. Beyond these fields it divides The Wardens from Rosemary, including the former but not the latter. The boundary takes a dogleg to exclude Lowe Croft to its east. It recontinues its southerly direction along the rear boundaries of properties including Milestone House, Shalom and the Sun Inn being included to the west until it reaches Rosemary Lane. Here it continues straight over separating River View and the Fire Station with the latter being excluded from the designated area. The boundary then joins up with the south side of the River Teme before finally turning westwards to reconnect with the boundary beginning at the bridge some 160 metres to its west.

Lucton Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that the county of Herefordshire District Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, have designated the following parts of Lucton Village, Herefordshire, as a Conservation Area. The area will be known as Lucton Conservation Area.

The boundary runs south from the junction of the B4362, along the western side of the C1040 leading into the village. It is then redirected westerly along the northern edge of the public right of way and field track before extending south to incorporate The Old Farmhouse and its curtilage. It then heads in an easterly direction taking the alignment of the boundaries between OS field parcel 6000 but excluding the modern farm buildings yet including New House Farm courtyard buildings. It then turns to the south-east to incorporate the rear boundary of New House then turning southwards along the eastern edge of field parcel 7400 then eastwards along the northern edge of parcel OS 8200. It then crosses the road opposite Bankfield turning north and along the east side of the road until it meets up with the public footpath where it heads in a north-east direction. It follows the line of the footpath for about 60 metres before turning north-westerly to incorporate the rear boundary of the properties between Cartref and Church View. At this point the boundary heads west back to the village road and then towards The Old Shop where on meeting up with the eastern boundary of parcel 6330 its eastern edge past the sewage works, and towards the north-west to join with the B4362 road. From this point, the boundary follows the southern side of the road in a south-westerly direction back to the junction with the C class road into the village.

Lugg Bridge (Stapleton) Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that the county of Herefordshire District Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, have designated the following parts of Lugg Bridge Hamlet, Herefordshire, as a Conservation Area. The area will be known as Lugg Bridge (Stapleton) Conservation Area.

The southern boundary, for a large part, follows the centre of the River Lugg both to the west and to the east of Lugg Bridge. To the east it departs from the river at the point where Brink Lane almost touches the river. The boundary then follows Brink Lane westwards departing from it in a northerly to enclose OS parcels 8174 and 8277 joining Ford Street along the northern curtilage of Brink House. It then directly crosses Ford Street incorporating the stoned stepped stile before returning south along the western edge of Ford Street. Opposite Stapleton House the boundary heads in a north-westerly direction to incorporate the OS parcel 6380. After following the north and west boundary of this field boundary the Conservation Area turns back towards Ford Street but before reaching the road it is deflected south again along the garden boundaries and drainage ditch behind the dwellings of Glenview and Stapleton Lodge. The Conservation Area is completed by its reunion with the River Lugg opposite the River Cottage.

Plans showing the above Conservation Areas can be inspected at the offices of the Conservation and Environmental Planning Section of Herefordshire Council in Corn Square, Leominster, Herefordshire HR6 8LU.

Designation of the above conservation areas took effect on 28th July 2000.

The effect of the Conservation Area designation will be that:

1. the demolition of certain buildings and structures is brought within Conservation Area Control;
2. 6 weeks written notice must be given to the local planning authority of any works proposed to trees in the Conservation Areas;
3. permitted development rights under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 are more restricted;
4. planning applications for development which would in the opinion of the local planning authority affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area must be given publicly;
5. the Council will give special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character and appearance of the Conservation Area, and
6. grants and loans may be payable by English Heritage towards expenditure incurred in the preservation or enhancement of the character or appearance of the Conservation Areas, and for the repair of buildings in the Conservation Area.

Offences against the first three provisions may result in heavy fines or imprisonment.

Any enquiries regarding the above should be addressed to the Conservation and Environmental Planning Section, Planning Headquarters, PO Box 3, Leominster, Herefordshire HR6 8LU.

M. Rosenthal, County Secretary and Solicitor
