ague, Dec. 30. The States of the Province of Holland re-assembled on the 24th Instant, and having taken again into Deliberation the fitting out of a Squadron of Men of War to be sent to the Baltick, will probably come to a final Resolution in that Affair before they separate. Most of the Provinces having fixed the Number of Troops which they accept on their Repartition, the Council of State is drawing up the general Establishment and Estimate of the War for the ensuing Year. We have had very stormy Weather for some Days past, which has done great Damage; the Water having risen higher than has been known in the Memory of Man, broke through several Diques, and has overflowed some Parts of the Country, particularly in North-Holland, Friseland, and Groningen. The Danish Resident here has, by Order from his Court, proposed to the States the empowering their Minister at Copenhagen to settle and adjust with those of the King of Denmark his Majesty's Demands upon this State, promising that the Ships belonging to the Subjects of this State, which have been lately seized by Order of his Danish Majesty, shall be discharged.

St. James's, Dec. 25. This being Christmas-Day, His Majesty received the Holy Communion in His Chapel, by the Hands of the Lord Bishop of London.
