

- Maureen, Mrs. FOERS, Founder, Northern Business Centre (Humber) Ltd. For services to Small Business in Humberside.
- Colin Hamish FORSYTH, lately General Dental Practitioner, Rutland. For services to Dental Care for Prisoners.
- Professor Robert Stewart FOWLER, lately Principal and Chief Executive, Central School of Speech and Drama. For services to Higher Education.
- Ernst FRAENKEL, Chairman, Wiener Library. For services to Holocaust Scholarship.
- Keith Bertram FRANCIS, Divisional Manager, Administrative Support and Estates Management, Office for Standards in Education.
- Thomas Michael FREEMAN, lately Chief Executive, Horizon NHS Trust, Hertfordshire. For services to People with Learning Disabilities.
- Philip Albert FRIEND, Equal Opportunities and Disability Consultant. For services to People with Disabilities.
- Miss Susan GARLAND (Mrs. Worthington), Deputy Chief Executive, British Tourist Authority. For services to Tourism.
- Miss Pauline GAUNT, Head, Transport Bill Co-ordination Team, Department of the Environment, Transport and the Regions.
- Anil GHOLKAR, Consultant Neuro-radiologist, Newcastle-upon-Tyne Hospitals NHS Trust. For services to Neurology.
- Robin Warwick GIBSON, Chief Curator, National Portrait Gallery. For services to Museums.
- Trevor GREENWOOD. For services to Education.
- Professor Robert James GURNEY, Director, NERC Environmental Systems Science Centre, University of Reading. For services to Earth Observation and to Environmental Science.
- John GUY, Principal, Farnborough Sixth Form College, Hampshire. For services to Education.
- Clifford HARDCASTLE. For services to the community, especially Education, in South East London.
- David Wynne HARDING, Grade B1, Ministry of Defence.
- John Richard HARRIS, Senior Executive, McCain Foods (GB) Ltd. For services to the Potato Processing Industry.
- Derek Alfred HEASMAN, Headteacher, Dollis Junior School, Mill Hill, London. For services to Education.
- John David HEBBLETHWAITE, Secretary, Liturgical Commission. For services to the Church of England.
- Martin HENRY. For services to Export and to Business.
- Peter HOLLIS, Headteacher, Oaklands Community School, Southampton, Hampshire. For services to Education.
- Paul HOPKINS, Headteacher, St. Gabriel's RC High School, Bury, Lancashire. For services to Education.
- David Kingsley HYLAND, Special Casework Lawyer, Crown Prosecution Service.
- Doris, Mrs. INGHAM. For services to the Women's Section, Royal British Legion.
- Miss Marjorie Elizabeth JACKSON, Executive Nurse Director. For services to Health Care in London.
- Colin Leslie JONES, lately Secretary, Welsh Local Government Association. For services to Local Government.
- Professor Dylan Marc JONES, Professor, School of Psychology, University of Cardiff. For services to Military Science.
- Margaret Anne, Mrs. JONES, lately Chief Executive, Brook. For services to Family Planning.
- Richard Owen Phillips JONES, Head, Amman Valley School, Ammanford. For services to Education.
- Professor Peter Ignaz Paul KALMUS. For services to Physics.
- Kartar Singh KATHURIA, Executive Member and Treasurer, Kirklees Racial Equality Council. For services to Ethnic Minority Communities in Huddersfield and Kirklees, West Yorkshire.
- Maurice KENCH, lately Chairman, Royal United Kingdom Beneficent Association. For charitable services to Elderly People.
- David William Andrew KERR. For public service.
- Professor Richard Ian KITNEY, Professor of Biomedical Systems Engineering, Imperial College London. For services to IT in Health Care.
- Marie, Mrs. KNOTT, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Kendray Hospital, Barnsley. For services to Health Care for Elderly People.
- Ms Zara LAMONT, Director, Construction Best Practice Programme. For services to the Construction Industry.
- Carol Alison, Mrs. LAWS, Headteacher, Wheatfields Junior School, St. Albans Hertfordshire. For services to the Promotion of 'Safer Routes' for School Journeys.
- Josephine, Mrs. LAYCOCK, Physiotherapist. For services to Incontinence Care.
- Albert Barry LEESE, Managing Director, Epichem Ltd. For services to the Defence Industry.
- George Moir LESLIE, Managing Director, George Leslie Ltd. For services to Civil Engineering and Construction.
- Valerie Ellen, Mrs. LE VALLIANT, lately Director, Jones Lang LeSalle. For services to Architecture and to the community in East London.
- Ronald William LOFTHOUSE, lately Vice Chairman, Merseyside TEC. For services to Training.
- Norman Ralph LOWE. Managing Director, Enviro Consulting. For services to the Water Industry and to Environmental Protection.
- Roger Clark LOWRY. For charitable services to Health Care.
- John Archie MACASKILL, Chairman, Crofters' Commission. For services to the Highlands and to Crofting.
- Miss Sheena MACFARLANE, International Vice President, Girls' Brigade. For services to the Girls' Brigade.
- Henrietta, Mrs. MACIVER, Chief Executive, Turning Point Scotland. For services to Women Offenders and Drug Misusers.
- Colonel Robert Hugh MACKETH. For services to the Cadet Forces.
- Angus Alexander MACKENZIE. For services to Health Charities in the Highlands.
- Gordon David MACKENZIE, Headteacher, Balwearie High School, Kirkcaldy. For services to Secondary Education.
- David MADDEN. For services to the Police.
- Gilbert MADLEY. For services to the Royal Air Forces Association in North West England.
- Mohinder Singh MAHI, Grade 7, OFTEL, Department of Trade and Industry.
- Anne Mary, Mrs. MALLINSON, J.P. For services to the community in London.