Representations on, and objections to, the Order may be made as set out below. Subject to confirmation by the Mayor, the charging scheme is due to start 14 months after the Mayor confirms the scheme Order. The earliest date that the scheme would start is January 2003.

The zone where roads would be subject to charges would be bounded by the Inner Ring Road ie Marylebone Road, Euston Road, Pentonville Road, Tower Bridge, Elephant and Castle, Vauxhall Bridge and Victoria. There would be a charge for the use of keeping of vehicles within the zone although there would be a range of exemptions and discounts. There would be no charge for using the Inner Ring Road itself. The charging hours would be 7.00 am to 7.00 pm, Monday to Friday excluding public holidays. The standard charge would be £5 per vehicle per day. There would be a system of penalty charge notices to deal with evaders and a system of vehicle clamping and/or removals, which would apply throughout Greater London, to deal with persistent evaders.

The aim of the scheme is to reduce congestion in central London.

Copies of the Order, relevant maps and a statement of reasons for introducing a congestion charging scheme and other supporting documents may be inspected at all reasonable hours at the offices of Transport for London, Faith Lawson House, 15 Dacre Street, London SW1H 0DJ and at the offices of the Corporation of London, the City of Westminster and the London Boroughs of Camden, Hackney, Islington, Lambeth, Southwark and Tower Hamlets. They will also be available at an exhibition which is to be held. Full details of locations, dates and opening hours where documents may be inspected, and of the exhibition, may be obtained by telephoning 0800 0853939.

Any person may make representations on, or object to, the Order. All representations and objections must be received by 28 September 2001 and should be made in writing and sent to Transport for London (Congestion Charging Scheme Order Consultation), Freepost LON17507, London SW1H 0YZ or by email to ccs@tfl.gov.uk.

All objections must specify the grounds on which they are made. In preparing a representation or objection it should be borne in mind that some or all of it may be imparted to other persons who may be affected by it. A summary of all representations and objections will be prepared and copies of individual responses will be available for inspection. The Mayor will consider all representations and objections received within the time limit specified above before deciding whether or not to confirm the Order (with or without modifications).
