Venice, May 27.

ON the 24th Instant, a Number of Transports sailed for Dalmatia, having on board 800 Men from Parma to recruit the Regiments of that Prince which are in the Service of the Republick, as also large Stores of Ammunition and Provisions. Other Transports are getting ready for Corfu, which are to carry 2000 Recruits, with the Battallion of Treviso consisting of 500 Men, and are to be convoyed by the St. Andrew and St. Peter d'Alcantara, Men of War of the second Rate. Yesterday the Doge went to the Lido, and performed the Annual Ceremony of Marrying the Sea; on which Occasion he gave a magnificent Entertainment to the Company that attended him.

Vienna, May 28. We have Advice from Passarowitz, that the Plenipotentiaries have agreed that during the Time the Conferences for treating of Peace shall be held there, no Hostilities shall be committed within two Leagues round that Place. On the 15th Instant the Turkish Ambassadors dispatched a Courier for Adrianople by the Way of Nissa; and the next Day the Imperial Ministers sent an Express to this Court, where a great Council having been held on the 23d in the Emperour's Presence, the same Messenger was sent back again to Passarowitz. 'Tis said that the full Powers of the Turkish Ambassadors not being in the requisite Form, the opening of the Congress will be delayed till the Return of the Courier from the Ottoman Court. Letters from Belgrade of the 20th Instant, say the Imperialists had begun to draw together at Semlin; and that all the Troops were to be in the Camp within 10 Days, in order to the forming of the Army the Beginning of next Month. Prince Eugene waits only for the Emperour's Orders to set out for Hungary.

Berne, June 1. Several Copies of a Libel having been dispersed lately in this City, reflecting upon certain Members of this State, and tending towards stirring up a Sedition amongst the Citizens, a strict Inquiry is making to find out the Author; and a Proclamation was issued out some Days ago by the Sovereign Council, promising a Reward of 1000

Crowns to any Person that should discover the said Author; and, besides this Reward, a full Pardon to any one, who having had a Hand in it, should declare who was the principal Contriver of it; but hitherto nothing has been discovered. It is advised from Basil, that the Marquis D'Avarey Ambassador of France to the Helvetick Body, had passed by Hunninguen in his Way to Paris, from whence he is expected back at Soleure in a few Weeks. They write from Milan the 24th past, that the Governour caused the new Fortifications of that City to be carried on with all Diligence, and that 400 Men had been sent to Mantua, and as many to Pizzighetone, to finish the several Outworks with which those two Places are ordered to be strengthened. The Two Cantons of Zurich and Berne having agreed upon an Answer to be made to the Emperour's last Letter concerning the Complaints and Pretensions of the Bishop of Constance, the same was transmitted some Days ago to the Court of Vienna. By this Answer the Two Cantons endeavour to clear themselves of the Accusation the said Bishop had laid to their Charge, as if they infringed the Jurisdiction he has in the County of Torgaw, (of which the Two Cantons, together with the Six other old ones, are joint Sovereigns;) and they attribute the ill Opinion the Emperour has conceived of them, to the groundless insinuations of some Persons, desiring his Imperial Majesty not to give any more Credit to the sinister Representations of their Enemies, who would make them pass for turbulent, unjust and ambitious People. At Baden the Conferences continue, and 'tis not doubted but the Treaty will now soon be perfected.

Hague, June 10. On the 8th Instant the Earl of Cadogan, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, set out from hence at 11 in the Morning to go to Delft, where he was entertained with a Dinner by the States of the Province of Holland. Between Three and Four in the Afternoon, his Excellency came in one of the States Yachts to a Bridge on the other Side of Ryswick, where he was received and complimented by M. Eckhout and Taminga, two Deputies of the States General, on the Part of their High Mightinesses. His Excellency
