

Whitehall, June 28, 1718.

Whereas a great Number of Men armed, did lately come several times in the Night, in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, into the Lord Bishop of Winchester's Park at Barnham, particularly on the 2d Instant, between the Hours of Twelve and One in the Night, and fired at the Deer, Horses and Cattle there, killing and wounding some, besides what they carried off, expressing, by their Words and Shouting, that they did it in open Defiance of the Laws, and threatening to kill the Men and Cattle in and about the Castle and Park. And whereas on Saturday the 21st Instant they came again into the said Park, and set fire to the Lodge, standing about it till it was burnt down to the Ground, after which they gave a Volley and Huzza, declaring aloud they would do further Mischief by setting Fire to the Castle, and that they would leave no living Creature about the Park. His Majesty is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in the said Riot, who shall discover any Two or more of his Accomplices, so as they may be apprehended and convicted.
