THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and of Her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come:

GREETING!

WHEREAS His late Majesty King Edward VII did, by Order in Council dated 15th June 1901 institute a Decoration to be called the Conspicuous Service Cross;

AND WHEREAS His late Majesty King George V did sanction, by Order in Council dated 14th October 1914, the said Cross to be in future designated the Distinguished Service Cross: and, by Order in Council dated 19th May 1931, did amend and consolidate the regulations governing the said Cross;

AND WHEREAS His late Majesty King George VI, by Orders in Council dated 20th December 1939, 17th April 1940, 5th November 1942 and 13th January 1943, and We, by Order in Council dated 13th October 1980, did further amend the regulations governing eligibility for the Distinguished Service Cross;

AND WHEREAS We deem it expedient to amend the regulations further to allow members of any rank in all Our Armed Forces to receive the said Cross;

NOW THEREFORE, We do hereby declare that the regulations promulgated by the aforementioned Orders in Council in respect of the Distinguished Service Cross shall be abrogated, cancelled and annulled; and in substitution thereof We, by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, are graciously pleased to make, ordain and establish the following rules and ordinances, which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept.

Firstly: It is ordained that the Decoration shall be designated and styled the "Distinguished Service Cross".

Secondly: It is ordained that the Decoration shall consist of a Cross having on the obverse in the centre the Royal Cypher surmounted by the Crown, that the reverse shall be plain and bear the rank, name and Service, Regiment or Corps customarily appropriate to the recipient, and the date of award; that the Cross shall be suspended by a ring, and that the whole shall be in silver.

Thirdly: It is ordained that the Distinguished Service Cross shall be worn on the left breast suspended on a ribbon one-and-three-eighths inches in width with equal stripes of dark blue, white and dark blue.

It is further ordained that in the official list showing the order in which Orders, Decorations and Medals are to be worn it shall be placed immediately after the Royal Red Cross, First Class.
