Rome, September 20.

ON the 15th Instant a Contract of Marriage between the Constable Colonna and the Daughter of the late Duke Salviati, was signed in the Palace Salviati; her Dowry is 150000 Crowns. On the 18th they were married by Cardinal Fabroni. Certain Inhabitants of Montelibretto, and some Officers belonging to the Prince of Palestrina, were lately seized and brought hither, upon Complaint made by Count Gallas the Emperour's Ambassadour, that they held Intelligence with Scarpileggia the Chief of the Banditi; but upon Examination their Guilt not appearing, they were all dismissed, except one who still remains confined. Captain Grifoni is sent to Villettri, in order to head a Number of Soldiers to Collalto, and act with them against the Banditi, who commit great Disorders in the open Country, and in the Woods and Forests thereabouts. Sig. Molara, Commissary of Arms, is gone at the same time to acquaint the Duke of Gaetano, that the Pope out of Regard to him would not send Sbirri nor Soldiers on his Estate, but desires him to assist Captain Grifoni against the Banditi, many of whom have retired into his Woods. 'Tis advised from Malta, that the Great Master of that Order being very much broken by his great Age and Infirmities, had appointed Don Raimond de Paz, a Majorcan, to be his Lieutenant.

Milan, Sept. 21. On Sunday last the Companies of the Regiment of Konigseck, which were in Garrison in our Castle, marched for Pavia, where they are to join the rest of their Regiment, and proceed with that of Bareith and two other Battallions to Genoa, there to be imbarked for Naples. By Letters from Rome 'tis advised, that since the Publication the 8th Instant of the Brief of Separation, against those Prelates in France who refuse Obedience to the Bull Unigenitus, nothing further has been done by the Court of Rome in that Affair; but that they wait to see what Effects that Brief will have in France, and whether the Success will be answerable to the Hopes with which the Pope has been flattered by his Adherents in that Kingdom.

Genoa, Oct. 4. Certain Officers are gone, by Order of this Government, to meet on the Frontiers 5600 Imperialists, and to conduct them to San Pietro d' Arena, where they are to imbark for Naples. A Man of War and several Transports are expected in three or four Days from Naples, to take on board those Troops. General Wachtendonk, who is to command them, arrived this Afternoon from Milan, and says the said Troops will be at San Pietro d' Arena by the 12th Instant. Two Days ago came into this Port two British Ships from Alicant, which in their Way touched at Port Mahon. Here is come also, the Eagle, commanded by Captain: Thomas King, in 14 Days from Messina.
