HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Cassel, Jan. 9. Yesterday we received the Confirmation of the News of the King of Sweden's Death, by one of the Hereditary Prince's Adjutants, who brought a Letter from the Prince to the Landgrave: This Officer reports, that upon the King's Death, the Hereditary Prince who commanded the Body which covered the Attack of the Castle of Frederickshall, immediately was sent for, and took upon him the Command of the Army, all the Generals having refused to obey the Duke of Holstein, who was likewise present. Such of that Duke's Party as were in the Camp, were seized; and Orders were dispatched for securing Baron Goertz and all the Deputation for the Finances at Stockholm, among whom there was but one Swede; which Orders it was not doubted would be diligently executed, the Governour of Stockholm being intirely devoted to the Prince. The Duke of Holstein retired to Gottenbourg, but not finding there the Reception he expected, he set out for Stockholm with very few Attendants. The Prince had left the Command of the Army to General Ducker, in order to go to Stockholm. General Ducker is to send Part of the Army to their former Quarters, and to return with the rest to Schonen. The Body of Troops near Drontheim was thought to be in Danger. The last Account of them was, that they were in want of Provisions, and must suffer extremely if they did not retire: But the King sent an Aide de Camp, with positive Orders for them to advance; and such Abundance of Snow has fallen since, that it is doubted they cannot repass the Mountains. The Landgrave designs to send Mr. Hein, the Hereditary Prince's Counsellour, to Sweden.

Brussels, Jan. 14. On the 12th Instant two Battallions of the Regiment of Foot of Bonneval came into this Town, the rest of that Regiment are garrisoned in Antwerp. 'Tis reported that the Collo-nel Count Bonneval, who is at the Court of Vienna, has obtained the Government of Dendermonde, and that he will accompany Prince Eugene hither the Beginning of March. M. Strozzi, zi; a Counsellour of the Finances, has given Directions for fitting up and furnishing the Court against the Prince's Arrival.

Paris, Jan. 14. The Prince of Dombes and the Count d'Eu, are allowed to take their Residence in the Town of Eu, and to be attended by some of their Servants. The 10th Instant an Ordonnance was published, by which all his Majesty's Subjects who are now in Spain, are commanded to return forthwith into France; only those of them who are concerned in Trade there, are allowed six Months to vend or remove their Merchandize or Effects. The same Day another Ordonnance was published, by which the Subjects of the King of Spain residing in France, are permitted to stay six Months in the Kingdom, to dispose of their Effects.

Whitehall, Jan. 12, 1718-19.

Whereas all the Officers belonging to the Regiments in the Island of Minorca and Garrison at Gibraltar, were lately ordered to repair to their respective Posts, upon Pain of His Majesty's high st Displeasure, such only excepted as had His special Leave to the contrary; notwithstanding which, 1st Lieutenant Parker, and 2d Lieutenant Braskey, of Brigadier Andrew Bisset's Regiment of Foot, have absented themselves, and are not to be heard of by their Colonel; His Majesty is therefore pleased hereby to declare His Pleasure, that unless they attend their Colonel in fourteen Days, and give Notice that they are repairing to their Duties, they shall be superseded by other Officers.

Geo. Treby.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 6, 1718.

Whereas the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have received a second Letter, signed Thomas Willson, William Luke, and John Bland, dated the 4th Day of this Month, giving an Account of Misdemeanours committed by an Officer in the Navy, neither of which Persons have appeared at their Office, upon the Advertisement inserted in the Gazettes on the Receipt of their former Letter, their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if they, or some of them, do not appear, or give some further Light how this Matter may be regularly enquir'd into, the Informations they have already given, cannot be effectual.
