Naples, December 30.

'HE Viceroy receiv'd Letters last Night from General Zumjungen at Melazzo, dated the 22d Inftant, which give an Account that the Germans had perfected some Intrenchments which they had been carrying on. That by Deferters they had been told the Spaniards defign'd to make a general Attack upon them, and therefore they had made all ready to give them a good Reception; but they doubted the Enemy would not venture to execute that Defign, especially fince they had Notice of their Detaching Part of their Horle towards Syracula, and others with some Foot towards Trapani. One of the British Cruizers has brought in a Ship which had been twelve Months in the Spanish Service, having on board 140 Spanish Recruits bound from Cagliari to Palermo, a good Number of Cannon Bullets, and fome Naval Stores. There has been such bad Weather of late, that the 2000 Germans which came last from Gevoa in the Tartans, are still detained at Baia,

Paris, Jan. 21. On the 7th of this Month the Parliament of Bourdeaux made an Arrêt, condemning the Catholick King's Decla-ration the 23th of December, which, they treat as a Libel under that Title, composed, (as the Preamble to the Artêt fets forth) by fometurbulent Persons, who making use of a Name fo facred, and fo much respected as is that of the King of Spain, endeavour without his Knowledge or Participation to foment Troubles, which 'twas well enough known fome Perfons vainly imagin'd might be excited in the Kingdom. The Preamble of the Atrêt further imports, that this Declaration can be nothing else but s Sequel of the Conspiracy which was so hap-pily discovered : That it seems to attack a Prince, to whose Orders Submission is due, and who is the proper Truffee of the Royal Autho-That it is calculated to pread Division tity. and Confusion, by professing to acknowledge no other Power in the Kingdom than that of an Affembly, which was never called but to prowide Supplies in the Exigencies of the State. Wherefore they forbid all Manner of Per-fons on Pain of being declar'd Diffurbers of the publick Peace, of Corporal Punishment, and of a Fine of 3000 Livres, to Vend, Utter, Distribute, Print, or Keep it.

The Parliament of Paris made an Arrêt likewife the 16th, condemning the fame Decla-ration, as being (in the Terms of the Pre-amble to the Arrêt) not only filled with most visulent and offentive Expressions, but like. wife with Maxims perfectly oppofite to the Principles of the French Government; and therefore cannot be fuppofed to come from a Prince who well knows the Rights of Sove-

The Preamble of this Arret further fets forth, that the Authors of that seditious Paper, who could have no other View than fomenting Difcord, and inciting Rebellion, thought they might allow themfelves any Means whatever for attaining that End 5 that they have the Audaciousness to call in question the most facred Laws of the State; and to difown the lawful Authority by which the Kingdom is governed. Wherefore they order the faid Paper to be suppressed as seditious, tending to ftir up Rebellion, and injurious to the Royal Authority; forbidding all Persons to print, sell, utter, or otherwise disperse the same, in any manner whatever, on pain of being pro-lecuted as Difturbers of the Publick Peace, and guilty of High Treafon.

Dresden, Jan. 11. The last Letters from Warfaw tell us, that the Deputies which were fent some Time fince to the Czar, are returned from Petersburgh, with Orders for the Muscovite Troops to retire out of Poland ; the Czar leaving it to his Polish Majefty and the Republick, to appoint Commiffaries to conduct his Troops into his own Country. The 12th of the next Month the King is to hold a Senatus. Confilium at Warlaw, fo that his Majefty cannot return hither fo foon as was expected.

Cassel, Jan. 15. The Landgrave having re-folved to fend Collopel Row to Stockholm, he fet out from hence on the 12th Instant, and will endeavour to pais from Lubeck; and if the Hereditary Prince do not detain him in Sweden, and fend another, he will return as foon as possible with an Account of the State of Affairs in that Country. He carries Letters from the Landgrave to the Prince bis Son, and to the Princess Ulrica. Counfellour Hein is also preparing to go to Sweden. We have an Account from Gottenburgh, that General Mor-ner, Governour of that Place, who was reckoned one of Baron Goertz's chief Friende, and entirely devoted to the Duke of Holftein, being with the Army when the King was killed, fubmitted himfelf immediately to the Hereditary Prince, affured him of his Duty to the Princess, and defired to receive his Commande. The 21st of March is appointed for the Election of a Bishop of Munster. Private Letters from thence advise, that the Prince of Bavaria's Succels is very uncertain ; that the late Bilhop's. Brother, who is Prior of Paderborn, has the Majority of the Chapter for him, and will in all Probability fucceed to that Bifhoprick. It is advised from Berlin, that half the Palace there was burnt, above 30 People deftroyed or wounded, and that it was with Difficulty the young Prince was faved.
