Bümd. 5748 The London Gazette.

Bubliched by Authority.

"From Eucloay May 19. to Saturday May 23. 1719.

Geneva, May 22.

Z Efterday the Count de Marfay, His Britannick Majefly's Refident with this Republick, was informed that two Britifn Gentlemen ar-rived here on Saturday at Night the 20th Infant, and lodged at a publick Inn; that they came from Italy; that one of them (who had been here about 23 Years ago) appeared on Sunday at Church, where fome Perfons knew him by his Name, which is Stuart, and alfo that he is one of the Pretender's protefled Adherents. allo that he is one of the Pretender's protelled Adherents. The other kept clofe in the Inn, but fome of his Servants were known to be the late Earl of Mar's Domeflicks. Upon thefe and other Circumflances, the Count de Maríay went Yelferday in the Evening to the firft Syndick of this State, and defired that fome Members of the Council, attoinpanied by forme Englifth and Scotch Gentlemen who knew the fate Lord Mar and had offind to he firsten mich to the Inn had offered to be prefent, might be fent to the Inn to examine the Perfon who kept himfelf concealed. Hereupon, at Ten at Night an Officer with forme Sol-diers was fent to the Inn, and the Soldiers were pofdiers was fent to the Inn, and the Soldiers were poll-ed, near the Chamber-Doors of the two Strangers without Noife. This Morning before Five they made ready to be gone, but the Officer fiezed them. The Council affembling, deputed two of their Members to the Inn at Nine a-Clock, viz. M. Tremblay and Buiffon, who were accompanied by leveral English and Scotch Gentlemen. M. Tremblay and Buiffon go-ing first into Mr. Stuart's Chamber, faid to him, that being informed he was one of the Pretender's declared Adherents, they were toone on the Part of the Coun-Adherents, they were come on the Part of the Coun-cil to demand his Name, and what Bulinels had brought him and his Companion to this City. He aufwered, that having formerly been here, and being known even to M. Buiffon himfelf, he would own his Name was Stuart: But as for his Companion he could not tell them who he was. Thereupon M. Tremblay and Builfon went into the other's Chamber, and told him what they came about. He pretended he tould not speak French, and defired an Interpreter, naming Mr. Stuart for that Office, which was granted the more feadily because M. Tremblay un-derstande English. He told them by that Interpret derstands English. He told them by that Interpre-ter, that he had deligned to have passed through France to England, but could not get a Paliport, and was now going to use the Waters of St. Pré, a little Town in Switzerland about fix Leagues from hence. But after they had asked feveral Queftions, to which he gave evalive Anfwers, M. Tremblay and Builfon told him directly, that they had fome Gentlemen at Hand who well knew the late Lord Mar, and that they would call them in. To which he replied, that he would give them no further Trouble, but own he was Lord Mar. Immediately they cauled him and he would give them no further Trouble, but own he was Lord Mar. Immediately they cauled him and Mr. Stuart to be fecured, and fiezing all their Pa-pers and putting them under a Cover which the faid late Lord Mar fealed with his own Seal, they committed them both to fafe Cuftody. Paris, May 28. We have Advice that the Trenches before Fontarabid were opened on the aill Inftant; the Marfhal Berwick being prefent. Hague, May 26. On the 24th at Night the Earl of Cadogan, who had been to wait on the King of Great Britain at Schonhoven, returned hither; ha-ving left His Majefty in perfect Health. From Schon-hovea His Majefty went by Water to Waert, and and will proceed from thence by eafy Journeys to Hanover. Earl Stanhope is come hither for fome. Days, and has already had Conferences with the Penhonary and other Minifters of this State. The Duke of Wharton, the Lords Spencer, Marfh, and How, with other Englih Gentlemen ; are now here. M. Penterrieder, the Emperour's Minifter to His Britannick Majefty, arrived here Yefterday. * Hague, May 30. Yefterday Earl Stanhope went from hence in one of the States Yachts for Utrecht, whence he will proceed to Hanover. 'Tis advifed from Petersbourg by Letters of the 7th of this Month, from Petersbourg by Letters of the 7th of this Month, that the Prince only Son of the Czar by his prefent that the Prince only Son of the Czar by his present Confort, died there on the sth. Whiteball, May 23. On the 21ft Inflant, his Grice the Duke of Roxburghe received Advice by an Ex-press from Scotland, that on the 10th two of His Majefty's Men of War came before Illand-Donan, and cannonaded the Calille, in which were 44 Spaniards commanded by Irith Officers : That the Spaniards mu-tinied, fiezed their Officers, and with the Stores of Ammunition and Provisions they had there, delivered up themfelves and Officers Prifowers to the faid Shins. up themselves and Officers Prisoners to the faid Ships. This has fruck great Terrour among the relt of the Rebels. Major General Wightman was preparing to march from Invernefs, to attack those Rebels who remain in their Quarters.

Whiteball, May 23. On the 14th Inflant the Ge-neral Alfembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chofe for their Moderator Mr. James Greirfon. His Majefty's Committion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes was read, as was likewife His Majefty's molt gracious Letter to the Af-fembly. His Majefty's High Commiftioner made a Speech to the Affembly, which was an fwered on their Part by the Moderator; and a Committee was ap-pointed to draw up a dutiful Anfwer to His Majefty's moft gracious Letter, which being reported on the 16th, was unanimoully approved.

His Majefly's Higb Commiffiener, the Earl of Rothes's Speech to the General Affembiy of the Church of Scotland, May 14, 1719. Right Reverend and Right Honourable.

IS Majesty's constant Care for the Welfare of his Subjects has on all Occasions been very confpicuous.

He has commanded me to affure you of his firm Refolution to maintain the Presbyterian Government of this Church, and has in his most gracious Letter fully expressed, not only the Sense he has of your Loy-alty and good Affection to him, but also his ready Concurrence in whatever Methods may be taken, for promoting true Religion and Piety, difcouraging Pro-fanenefs and Immorality, and preventing the Growth of Poperv.

You have renewed Proofs of His Majefty's tender Concern for your Happinels and Peace, by his late Endeavours to take away the Differences that have appeared upon Account of the Oaths, which, by the Blefling of God, will be fuccefsful, if you be not wanting to your felves.

You cannot but be fenfible how much these Differences have been improved to your Difadvantage, and have not only emboldened your Enemies to dj-flurb you, but in fome Measure covered them from the just Censure of the Law; which otherwise their Difloyalty to the King, and Infults done to this Church muft have brought upon them.

You have now a happy Opportunity of removing Jealoufies that have been amongft your felves, and depriving at the fame time those who have refused the Oaths on other Accounts, of all Possibility of using your Scruples as a Screen for their Difaffection

His Majefly asks no other Return of Gratitude from you, but what is both your Duty, and for your Interest; Concord and Brotherly Love are great Bleflings in themfelves, and as such a Disposition in you will be most agreeable to the King, it will en-able you to look with Contempt on the Practices of your Enemies, as his Majefly does on those who would pretend to disturb the Peace of his Government.

His Majefty has again been pleafed to honour me to reprefent him in this Atlembly. As I cannot but with Gratitude acknowledge your Civility and Kindnefs to me formerly, fo I hope I shall have your Con-currence in carrying on the good Ends his Majesty proposes; and I think my felf very happy that my En-deavour for your Peace and Welfare is a fure Way to recommend me to his favour.