From Saturday June 20. to Muelday June 23. 1719. From the Camp before Fontarabia, June 21, N. S. HE King of Spain advanced a few Days ago to ... Saca, two Leagues from hen.e, with an Army of about booo Foot and 4000 Horle. By an intercepted Letter, da ed the 15th, to the Governour of Fontarabia, it appears that the King intended to have attempted the railing of the Siege of that Place, politive Orders being therein given to fold out till the 18th or 19th, with direct Affirances of being relieved by the King himself by that time. But the Place having furrendred, the King retired from la Saca the 19th in the Morning, and took his March back to Pampelona. Part of the Marshal Berwick's Army will march towards St. Sebastian the 24th Instant, in order to lay Siege to that Place. Paris, June 28. The Post which came in last Night from Turin brings an Account, that they had received there Letters from Melazzo of the 5th, which fay, that General Mercy baving had an Account that the Marquels de Lede with his Army was at Castro Real, he marched to give him Battle, but on his Approach the Marquels de Lede retired to Franca Villa; fo the Imperial General feeing that the Spaniards did not intend to come to a Battle, returned to Melazzo, where he was making Dispositions to besiege (as it was believed) Meffina. In the mean time he had fent a Detachment under Lieutenant General Seckendorf, which had taken and plundered Lipari.

Edinburgh, June 18. We have received the following Account of the late Action near Glenfhill.

On the 3th Infant the King's Forces under the Command of Major General Wightman, began their March from Invernels, and having balted one Day at the Head of Loch-Nefs, came up with the Rebels on the 10th, about Four in the Afternoon, at a Place called the Pals of Glenshill, which they gave out they were tefolved to defend; but upon the Ap-proach of the King's Troops they immediately deferted it, and retired to another Pafs called Strachell, where they were yet more advantagi-oufly posted. The General having viewed their Situation, made his Disposition for the Attack in the manner following. On the Right were posted all the Grenadiers under the Command of Major Milburn, being about 150 in Number, who were fustained by Mountague's Regiment, commanded by Licutenant Collonel Lawrence, and a Detachment of 50 Men commanded by Collonel Harrifon, the reft of his Regiment being in Garrifon at Inverlochy; thele were supported by Huffel's Dutch Regiment, and four Companies out of Amerongen's 3 this Wing had 56 of Lord Strathnaver's Men in the Flank, under the Command of Enfign Mac Kay, and the whole Wing was commanded by Collonel Clayton, who acted as Brigadier upon this Occasion. The Left Wing consisted of Clayton's Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant Collonel Reading, and had on the Flank about fourfcore Men of the Monroes, under the Command of Mr. Monroe of Cullcairn. The Dragoons, which were 120 in Number, commanded by Major Robertion, and had made their March from Invernels without the Lofs of so much as one Horse, or the least Inconvenience to them, were ordered to keep the Road, having four Cohorns placed in their Front. The Major General himlelf was polted in the Centre, where every one had free Accels to him for Orders. The Rebels Forces confisted of 1640 Highlanders, belides 300 Spaniards. and a Gorps a part of 300 High-landers, who were posted on a Hill, in order to make themfelves Mafters of our Baggage, From it being always one of their chief Aims. the Disposition above-mentioned it is evident the Dilpointion above-mentioned it is evident that His Majefty's Forces, actually engaged, did not exceed 850 Men, befides the 120 Dragoons and 136 Highlanders. About Five the Left Wing was ordered to begin the Attack, and the Rebels always as they had fired their Maskets, skipping off, and never venturing to come to a close Engagements were driven from Rock to Rock, our Men chairing them before them for above three chacing them before them for above three Hours, till we gained the Top of the Hill, where they were immediately difperfed. We have not yet received any Account of their Lofs, only we hear that the late Lord Sea-forth and Lord George Murray are wounded, the former in the Arm, and the other in the Leg. On our Side there have been 21; Men killed, and t21 wounded, Officers in-cluded. The King's Troops lay on their Arms all Night, in order to bring off the wounded, and marched the next Morning to Glenshill, where about Two in the Afternon the Spaniards furrendred Priloners at Diferetion; and delivered up all their Arms and Ammunition; their Commander faith, that Seaforth and all the reft are fhifting for themfelves, and believes they will endeavour to get off as foon as poffible at the Sea Port Towns, where they can hope to have Friends to let them elcape.
